Reading 3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

An understanding of the basic concepts of how to survive in the wilderness is very important. In order to survive, you need to overcome many problems by yourself.

What does the wilderness look like in your mind?

Reading 3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

If you are in the wilderness without any help, one of the first things you should do is build a shelter with branches and rope. The shelter must be strong enough to protect you against bad weather.

Why is it important to build a shelter as soon as possible?

Reading 4 min

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

Besides shelter, you need to make a fire to cook food, boil water, and keep safe from dangerous animals. Using a magnifying glass and drilling a stick into dry wood are possible ways to start a fire.

Word Focus

- An antonym is a word that means the opposite of another word.
- E.g., "Safe" is an antonym of "dangerous".

Reading 4 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

In a survival situation, you should find a good source of water as soon as possible. Look for a spring first but if you cannot find one, look for a stream. Running water is safe to drink when it's boiled.

Do you know any other methods to find water in the wilderness?

Let's practice.
