

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Eyes on me.

Spare the Turkey

You are going to learn:

Topic: Festivals & holidays — Spare the turkey

Words: turkey, vegetarian, stuffing, mashed potatoes

Grammar: Phrasal verb (fill up)

Warm-up

Which holiday do you think is more interesting? Why?

St. Patrick's Day

shamrocks parade dance

Christmas

Santa Claus

Christmas tree

Christmas gifts

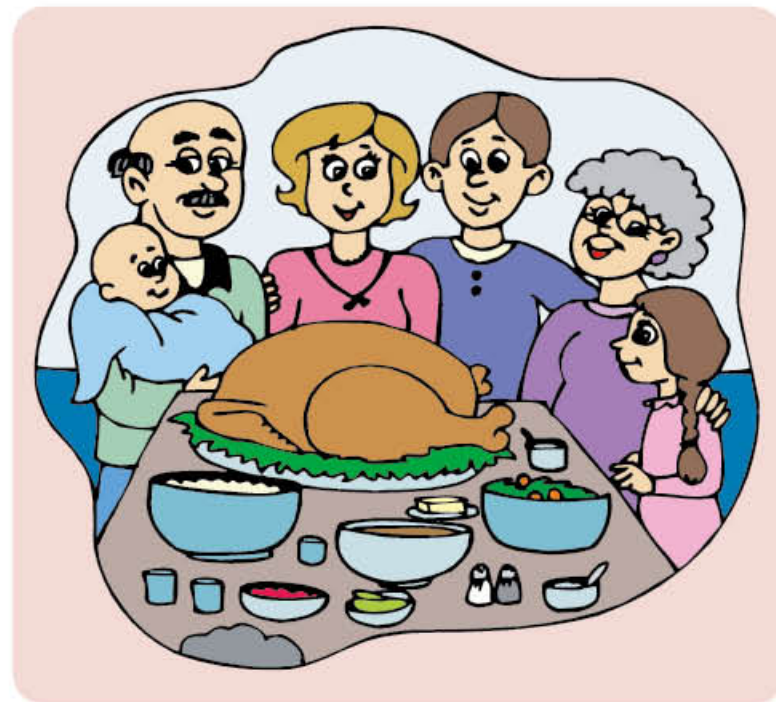

Let's prepare!

Vocabulary

Turkey is the traditional food for Thanksgiving.

tur·key

Which picture shows a turkey?

Vocabulary

He is a vegetarian.
He doesn't eat meat.

veg·e·ta·ri·an

Which dish will a vegetarian not eat?

Vocabulary

He is filling up the turkey with stuffing.

stuff·ing

Can you circle the stuffing of this turkey?

Vocabulary

You can make delicious mashed potatoes by mashing potatoes with milk and butter.

mashed po·ta·toes

Which one is mashed potatoes?

Grammar

They are going to fill up their stomachs with cookies and cakes!

fill up

car

fill up water

Let's talk!

Introduction

Timmy and Mom are talking about Thanksgiving Day dinner.

A woman with short brown hair, wearing an orange tank top and a red polka-dot apron, stands in a kitchen. She is holding a knife in her right hand. In front of her on a wooden table are three pumpkins and a glass bowl filled with small, round, golden-brown potatoes. The kitchen has dark brown cabinets and a white tiled backsplash. A small potted plant sits on the counter to the left.

Hi, Timmy. Would you like to help prepare the Thanksgiving dinner for tomorrow?

A young boy with brown hair, wearing a red t-shirt and blue shorts, stands in a doorway. He has his hands on his hips and is smiling. Behind him is a room with a pink wall and a yellow armchair. The floor is light green.

OK.
Hello, Mr. Turkey,
I am coming!

Oh — sorry, Timmy.
But this year we won't have turkey.

Huh? No turkey
on Thanksgiving?
Why?

Your Aunt Sally and her family are coming, and they are vegetarians.

Oh... But how are we going to fill up the turkey with stuffing if we don't have a turkey?

Grammar

Phrasal verb: fill up

"Fill up" means "to make something full".
e.g. She fills up her glass with water.

Oh! We will still have stuffing, and also your favorite:
mashed potatoes. There'll be a lot more pumpkin pies than last year too.

Really?! That sounds like enough to fill up my stomach!

Sure. And it's a good way to spare the turkey
this Thanksgiving.

Yes. So does that mean we can eat two turkeys next year?

Let's practice!

Activity

Complete the passage using the words in the Word Bank.

Word Bank

stuffing

turkey

vegetarian

mashed potatoes

People usually have _____ to celebrate Thanksgiving.
They fill up the turkey with _____. But if you are a _____, you can have some stuffing and _____.

Activity

Describe the pictures using "fill up".

The cook... the turkey with stuffing.

food stomach

There is enough...

glass beer

Activity

Role-play.

vegetarian

mashed potatoes

pumpkin pies

Timmy and Cindy are talking about their Thanksgiving dinner.

big turkey

fill up stuffing

mashed potatoes

How was your Thanksgiving dinner?

It was great! We had...

Activity

Sample dialog.

Timmy: How was your Thanksgiving dinner?

Cindy: It was great. We had a big turkey and mashed potatoes, and Mom filled up the turkey with lots of stuffing. It was so delicious!

Timmy: Oh, my mouth is watering! We didn't have turkey this Thanksgiving.

Cindy: Why? How do you fill up the turkey with stuffing if you don't have a turkey?

Timmy: My aunt and her family came, and they are vegetarians. But we still had stuffing, mashed potatoes and lots of pumpkin pies.

Cindy: Wow, that sounds like enough to fill up your stomach!

Today I learned:

Topic

Festivals & holidays —
Spare the turkey

Words

-  turkey
-  vegetarian
-  stuffing
-  mashed potatoes

Grammar

Phrasal verb (fill up)

e.g. That sounds like enough to fill up my stomach!

SEE YOU SOON!

51

TALK

