Introduction

Timmy, Sam and John are talking about their holiday plans.

A colorful illustration of three children walking on a grey path through a green park. In the background, there is a large orange school building with many windows, a white wind turbine, and several green trees. The sky is blue with some clouds. Two speech bubbles are present: one from the child on the left and one from the child on the right.

Hurrah! Only ten days to the holiday!

I know. I have been counting the days.

How do you want to spend your holiday?

I would like to go hiking with my father. I want to learn how to use a map and compass!

That will be fun!
What are you going to do, Timmy?

My Uncle Tom is coming to visit us. He said he would show me how to do magic tricks!

Wow, cool!

What are you going to do with your holiday, Jack?

I would like to do something... But I don't know yet.

Well, why not come to my home and spend the holiday with me? We can learn magic tricks together! And we can play charades with Emma. She loves that game.
