CONVERSATION

Timmy is going to the beach with Sam. He asks Jack to join them.

Morning, Jack. Do you want to come to the beach with me and Sam?

Sorry, Timmy. I have a lot of chores to do. I need to trim the bushes and mow the lawn.

What does Jack need to do?

Wouldn't you rather come to the beach than trim the bushes and mow the lawn?

No, I do these chores to make money. My mom gives me $10 every week for doing yard work.

How much money does Jack earn every week for doing yard work?

Wow, that's a lot of money.
You can buy lots of candy
and toys every week!

Yes, and sometimes I can earn more. I'm saving my money to buy a laptop.

Why is Jack saving his money?

That's a good idea, Jack.
Maybe I should save money, too.

Yes, think about something you would like to have. How much does it cost?
This can be your savings goal.

What can be Timmy's savings goal?
