A Swan and the Star

Sweetie the duck likes to swim in the swamp.
Stella the butterfly always flies swiftly around her.

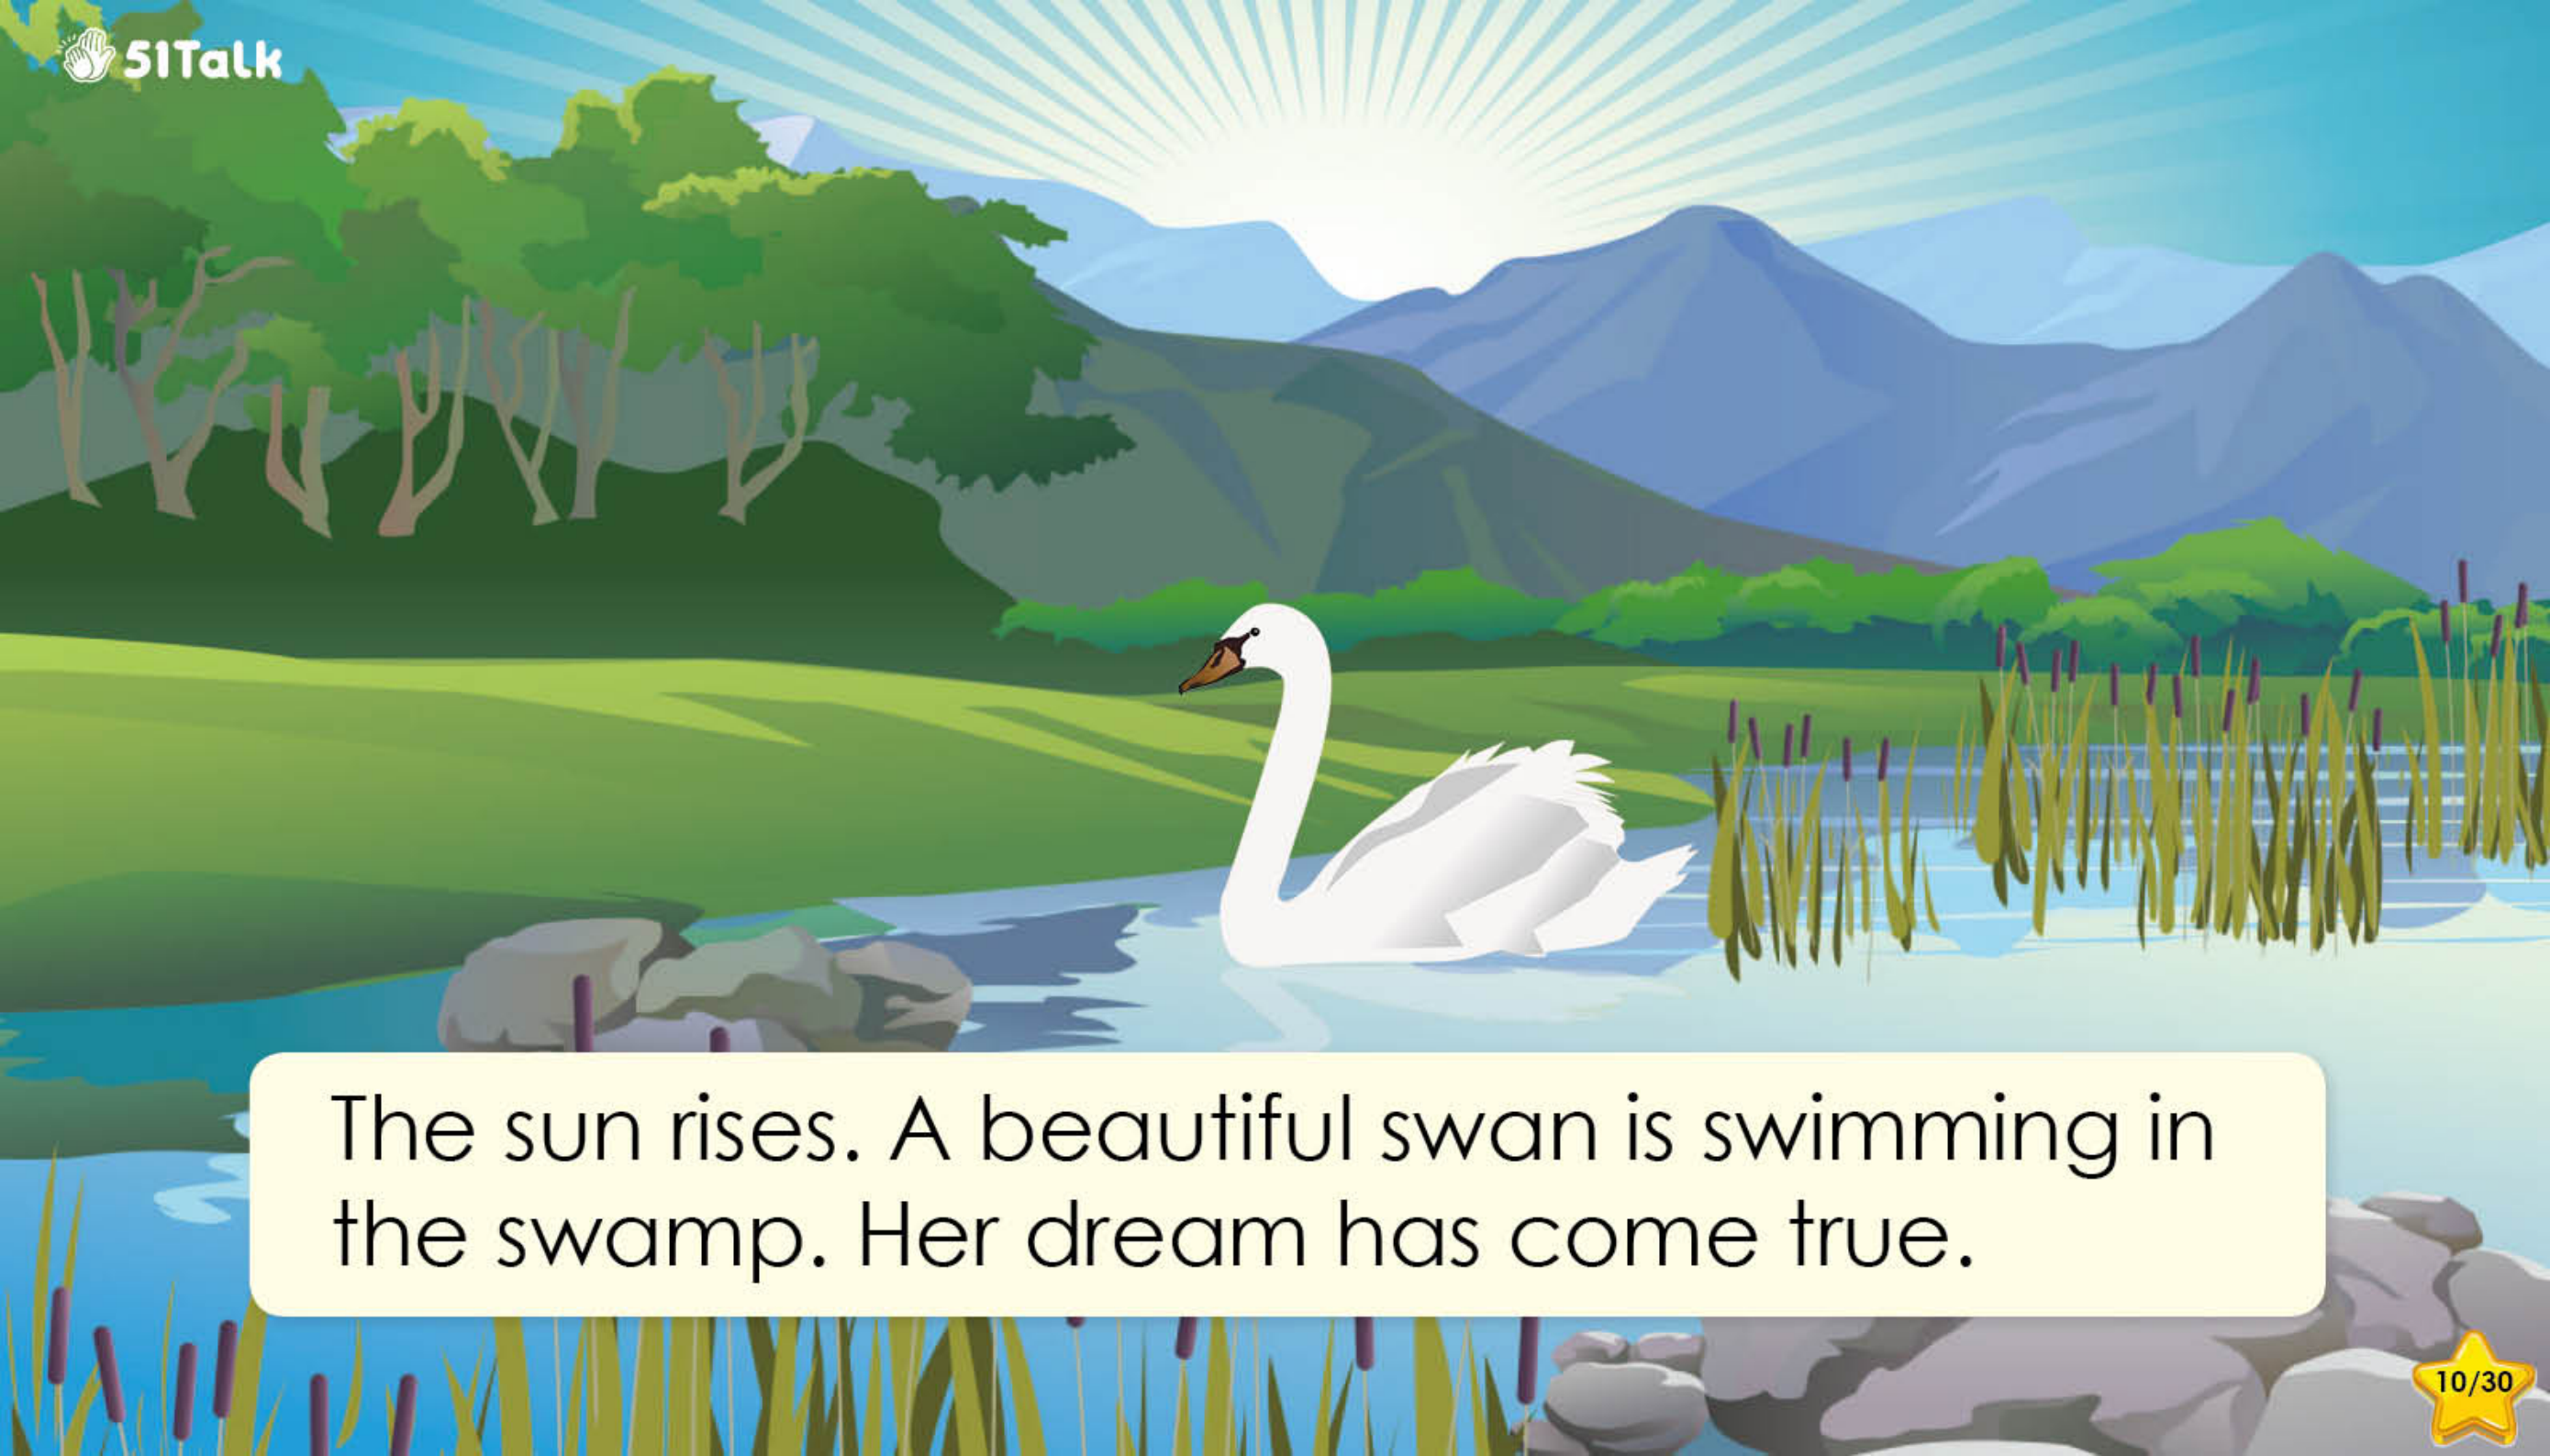

Sweetie swallows a fish. “Tonight a shooting star will streak across the sky!” says Stella.

A cartoon yellow duckling with an orange beak and feet stands on a grey rock in the middle of a pond. The duckling is looking up towards the sky. The background features a dark blue night sky with a shooting star, several small white stars, and a range of dark blue mountains. In the foreground, there are dark blue reeds and grasses. The scene is set at night.

“I want to be a swan, please!” Sweetie stands on a slippery stone and makes a wish.

The sun rises. A beautiful swan is swimming in the swamp. Her dream has come true.
