You are going to learn about the library.

Let's sing!

This Old Man

This old man, he played one,
He played knick knack on my thumb;
With a knick knack paddy wack,
Give a dog a bone,
This old man came rolling home.

This old man, he played two,
He played knick knack on my shoe;
With a knick knack paddy wack,
Give a dog a bone,
This old man came rolling home.

Let's learn
some words.

A colorful illustration of a library. In the background, there are tall wooden bookshelves filled with books of various colors. A large window with orange curtains is in the center. Three children are in the room: a girl with red hair sits at a wooden table, writing in a notebook; a boy with curly hair lies on the floor on the left, reading a green book; and a girl with brown hair lies on the floor on the right, reading a book. A pink flower-shaped object is near her. The word 'library' is written in large pink letters in a white box in the upper right.
