

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Eyes on me.

Review

You are going to:

review what you have learned in Lesson 1, 2 and 3.

What do you know about these sports?

soccer

basketball

swimming surfing

Lesson 1

Review

Look and say.

1

The World Cup is the biggest soccer competition in the world.

2

3

4

Hints

rules

World Cup

goalkeeper

championship

Role-play.

Cindy

What are you doing,
Sam?

Cindy

World Cup? The soccer competition?

I am _____.
(World Cup)

Sam

Yes. _____
(biggest). _____ countries

(championship, cup).

Sam

Role-play.

Cindy

Oh, look! That player nearly scored! He (kicked, flew, net).

Yes, that goalkeeper saved the day! It was very hard to save that ball.

Sam

Cindy

(The goalkeeper), isn't he?

Yes, Cindy. It sounds like you really know something about the rules to soccer. We should play together sometime.

Sam

Talk to the teacher.

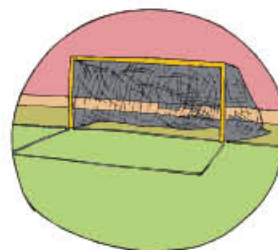

1

What do you know about the World Cup?

The World Cup is _____.
_____ countries _____.

2

What do you know about the rules to the soccer?

Lesson 2

Review

Look and say.

1

The Olympics is the most famous sporting event.

2

3

4

Hints team athletes Olympics individual

Look and answer.

1

What is the most famous sporting event?

2

Why do most sports have goals and rules?

3

There are two kinds of sports people play. What are they? Can you give me some examples?

Hints

Tick the right answer.

What is the main idea of the passage?

☐ People love sports and different types of sports.

☐ The Olympics is the most famous sporting event.

Writing Project.

Hints:

Step 1 Speaking

You've learned a lot about sports and games. Can you tell me what the most famous sporting event is, and also the two kinds of sports people play?

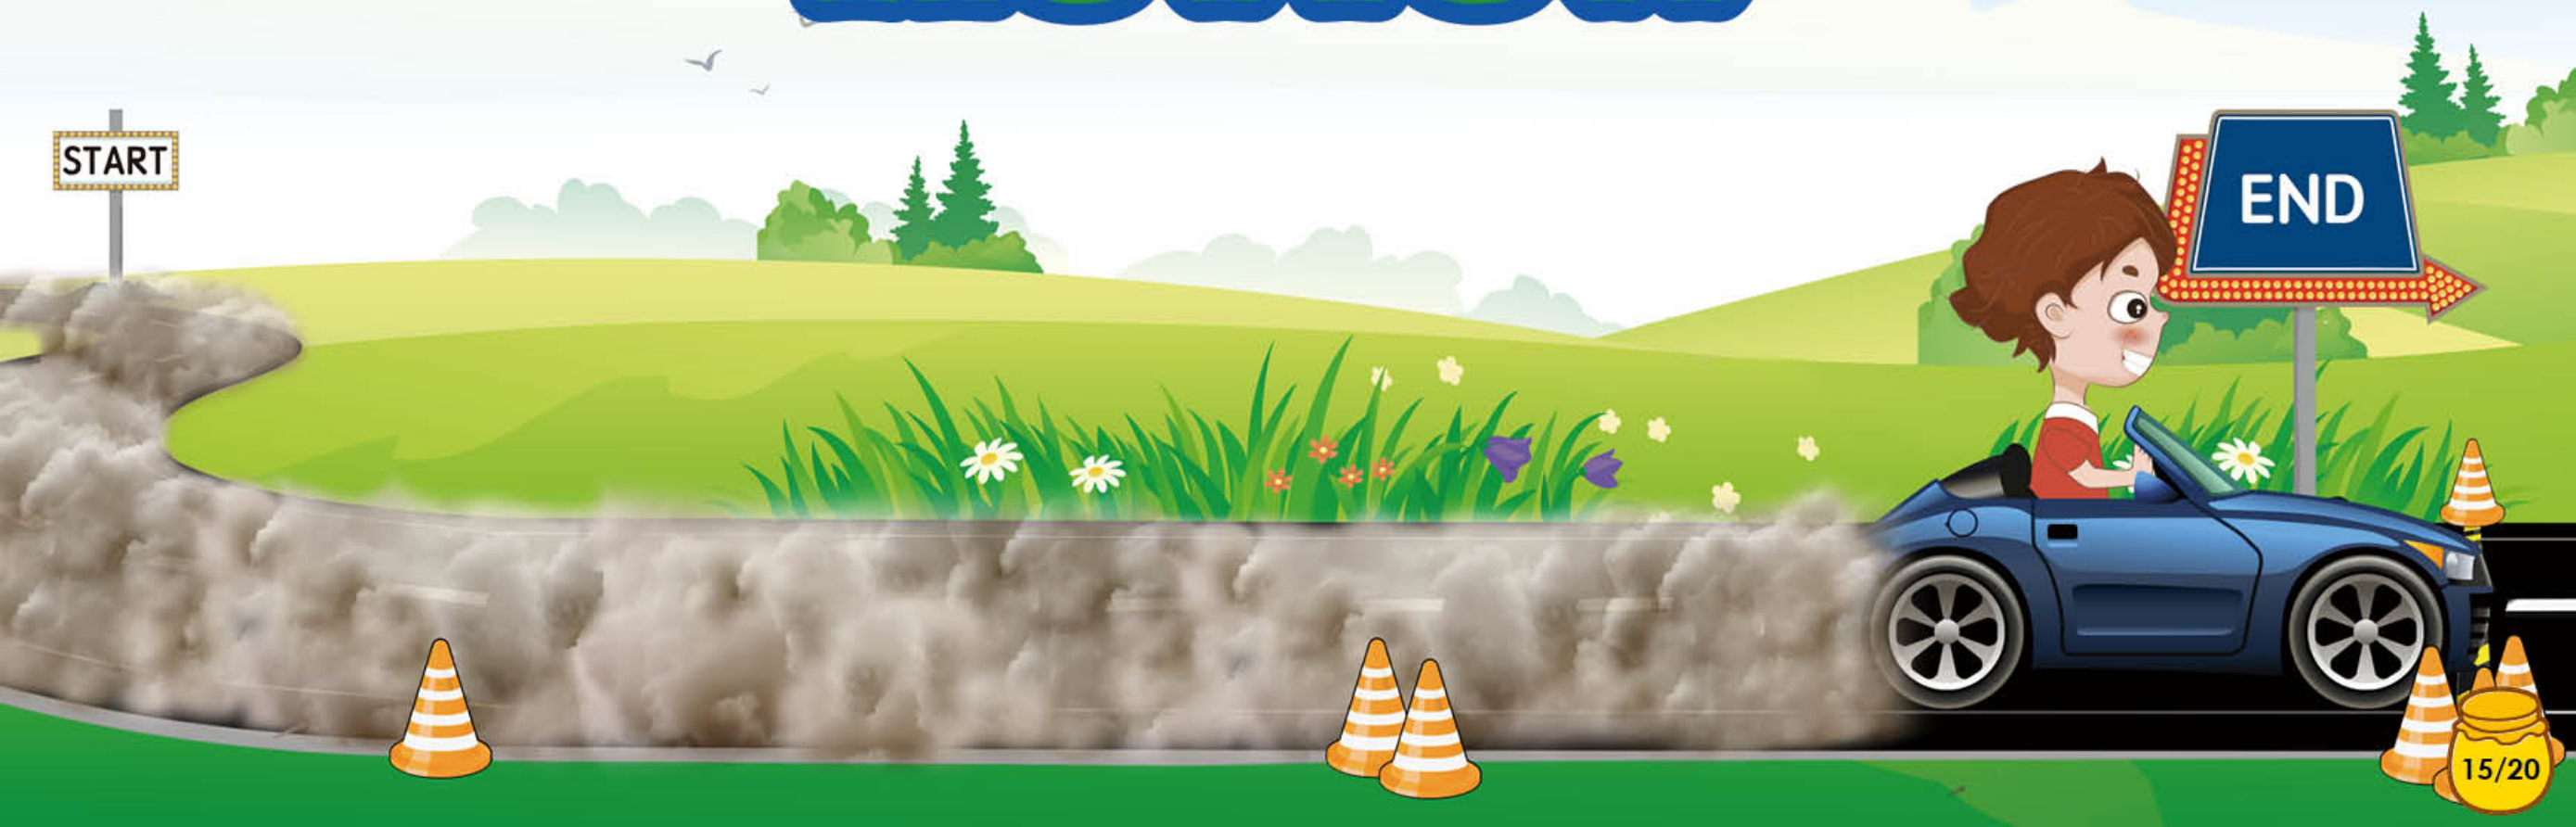

Step 2 Writing

The most famous sporting event is _____.
Some of the games are _____. In these games, _____.
Many people also play
_____. In these games, _____.
_____.

Lesson 3

Review

Look and say.

1

Learning to surf is really cool.

2

3

4

Hints

surf

practice

balance

surfboard

Match and act.

Dad: Timmy, it is really cool at this beach. I want to teach you how to surf.

Timmy: _____

Timmy: Dad, I am afraid of the big waves.

Dad: _____

Timmy: Can you tell me the most difficult thing in learning to surf?

Dad: _____

A

Well... Riding a wave is difficult because the wave is always moving and you need to have good balance.

B

Surf? Really? Am I finally old enough to learn surfing?

C

Don't be afraid, Son. Learning to surf needs a lot of practice. But if you are brave, you can learn to do anything, even things you are afraid of!

Talk to the teacher.

1

What is surfing?

Surfing is when people use a _____ to ride _____.

2

What is the most difficult thing in learning to surf?

Riding a wave is difficult because _____.

3

What do you need to learn surfing?

Learning to surf takes _____. You should be _____ to do the things you are afraid of.

Hints

brave waves moving practice balance
surfboard

Today I reviewed:

Topics

Sports and leisure —

- World Cup Party
- We love games!
- Surf's Up!

Words

-  World Cup, rule, goalkeeper, championship
-  Olympics, athlete, team, individual
-  surf, surfboard, practice, balance

Sentences

-  It is the biggest soccer competition in the world.
-  The goalkeeper is the only player allowed to use his hands.
-  Playing games well takes a lot of skill.
-  Learning to surf needs a lot of practice.

GOODBYE!

51 TALK

