Let's talk!

Introduction

Timmy and Jimmy are camping in the nearby woods.

Look, the moon is so bright tonight! It's like the sun of the night sky...

But you know the light is not actually from the moon, right? The moon just reflects light from the sun.

Ah, so the light from the moon is just the light from the sun.

Exactly! The sun is shining onto the moon, which makes it look bright.

OK. So why can we sometimes only see part of the moon, or nothing at all?

The moon revolves around Earth, right? So sometimes it is hidden from the sun. Get it?

OK, so I think we need two moons, so we always have moonlight! Then we can get away with playing all night!

Ha-ha! Careful! Maybe there'll be school at night too!

Grammar

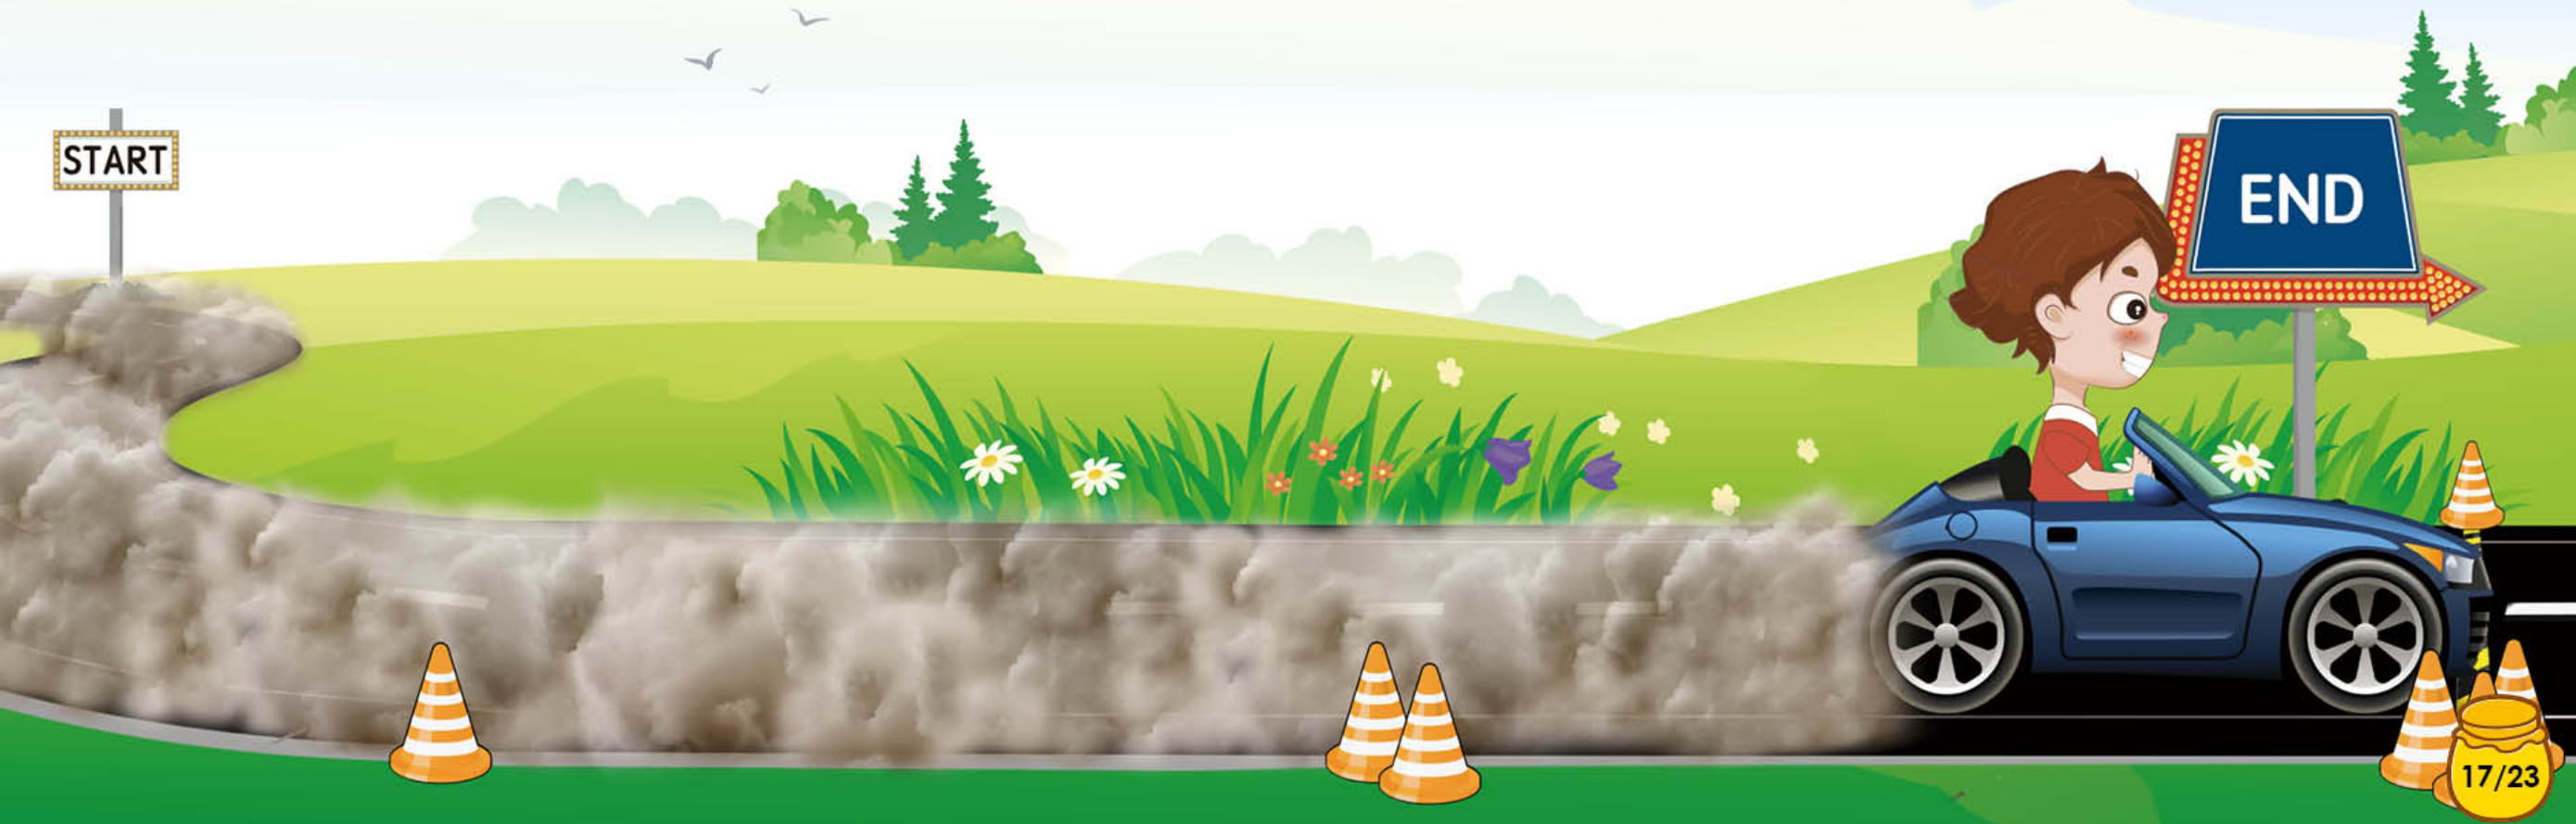

Phrasal verb: get away with

"Get away with" means not to get caught or punished for doing something wrong.
