GENRE

Fiction refers to literature and stories about imaginary people and events. Its purpose is to entertain, educate, and provoke ideas in readers.

Example:

Lily's friend had a new pencil case. "It's so pretty," Lily said. Once she came home from school, Lily asked Dad to buy her a new pencil case, too. "Lily, your pencil case is still nice," Dad said. "You don't need to replace it."

The next day at school, Lily helped carry Mrs. Lee's books. "Thank you, Lily!" Mrs. Lee said. "I have something for you." The teacher gave her stickers. Lily put them on her pencil case. Now she has a colorful pencil case! Lily liked it a lot.

Answer the following questions.

1. Why is the story a work of fiction?
2. What does the story do?

MY SAVINGS GOAL

Cindy and Anna are good friends. They are in the same class at school and like to spend a lot of time together.

Cindy and Anna both do chores. They both make a $20 allowance every week for their work. Cindy has very good saving habits. She likes to save money. Anna does not.

How are Cindy and Anna similar? How are they different?

When Cindy and Anna go to the movies, Anna spends a lot of money. She buys a ticket, popcorn, soda, and lots of toys. Cindy only buys a ticket and a lollipop.

Anna thinks Cindy should spend more, but Cindy disagrees. Cindy just likes watching movies with Anna. Cindy's saving money so that she can buy her mother a present.

What do Cindy and Anna disagree about?

Cindy wants to buy her mother a beautiful necklace. It will cost her $50. This is her savings goal.

It's not a cheap present, but Cindy doesn't care. She likes to give her mother nice presents. Anna never saves money. When Cindy and Anna go to the mall, Anna likes to shop at all the stores. She'd rather spend money than save it.

What is Cindy saving for?

Soon, Cindy reaches her savings goal. She goes with Anna to a jewelry store to buy the necklace. Cindy buys her mother a beautiful necklace with her money. Suddenly, Anna wants to buy her mother a necklace too, but she doesn't have enough money. She regrets not saving money to buy her mother a present. She asks Cindy if she can borrow some money, but Cindy shakes her head.
