Word Bank

correct cave tunnel cozy

Activity

Read the passage and correct the ideas on the right.

Last, the little bear speaks. “My family lives in a forest. We often have to move homes. Sometimes we live in small caves. Sometimes we live under big trees. But I know now that changing to a new home is not the most important thing. It is not important where my home is, or even how big my home is. It is only important that I will always be with my family.”

- The bear doesn't need to move home very often.
- The bear thinks it is very important where you live, because he doesn't want to move.

Writing Project
