VOCABULARY STRATEGY

A prefix is a set of letters placed at the beginning of a word to change its meaning. The prefix re- means again.

WORD	MEANING
reuse	to use again
rewrite	to write again
refill	to fill again

Look at the underlined words. Rewrite the sentences using the prefix re-.

1. I have to write my essay again.
2. Please fill my cup with coffee again.
3. It's good to use plastic bags we get from supermarkets again.

ACTIVITY

Which one is a persuasive text? Explain your answer.

- A. Being part of our school's theater club is fun. Members of the theater club are very nice. They support members who are having a hard time. They always help each other so that they could always give their best performance. If you are creative and talented, you should join our theater club.
- B. As a student volunteer, I always help people during school events. I also talk to people about the benefits of being a volunteer. Sometimes, I give lessons on how to help the community.

ACTIVITY

Read and answer the questions.

The members of our school's theater club are busy all year. At the start of the school year, they hold meetings and tryouts for the annual school play. Then they practice for the play for months. Some practice their lines and actions. Some make props and decide how they will control the lights and sounds. Then, they end the school year by giving us a great show.
