Let's talk!

Introduction

Timmy is with Grandpa in the back garden. It's too cold!

It's too cold today! Look, the garden pond has frozen over! The frogs look like they need our help!

Hey! Slow down there, Timmy. The frogs are safe under the ice.

But how can
they survive
without air?

They get air from the icy water. They actually breathe through their skins.

Whoa – that's cool!
But how do they not
freeze?

Well, they sometimes
do freeze, and they will look like they're dead.

No way. So they come back to life
when they defrost,
right?

That's right, smart
kid. But don't try this yourself, Timmy!

Let's practice!
