SAM'S TRIP TO ANCHORAGE

Sam just came back from a vacation in Anchorage. Anchorage is the largest city in the state of Alaska in the United States, famous for its extremely cold winters. Sam and his family visited the city in the summer to take advantage of the long days and the moderate temperature there during that time of the year.

Why did Sam and his family visit Anchorage?

Sam and his family did a variety of activities while they were there. They went to the Anchorage Zoo and saw different animals such as moose, snow leopards, and polar bears. They also went skiing at the Hilltop Ski Area and Arctic Valley Ski Area.

What activities did they do in Anchorage?

Sam and his family also went on a cruise to see the huge glaciers of Prince William Sound. After admiring the glaciers, they watched in awe as whales, seals and sea lions, were all around them.

What did they see when they went on a cruise?

The next day, Sam and his family also made sure not to miss the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race, an event which happens on the first Saturday of March each year. Participants in the race should have a team of 16 dogs that will pull their sleds in the almost 1000-mile trail for days. A week before the race, Sam and his family had so much fun touring the dog's kennels and trying to ride the sleds themselves!

What happens during the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race?

Everyone in the family really enjoyed their vacation, from going to the zoo, having a day cruise at the Prince William Sound, to watching the race, and all the other fun activities they did. All these activities made their vacation an unforgettable experience!

Why was their family trip to Anchorage unforgettable?
