

Are You Ready?

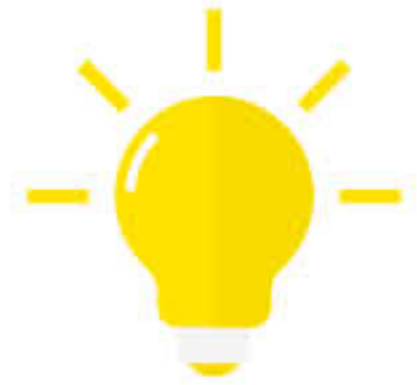

Listen to me.

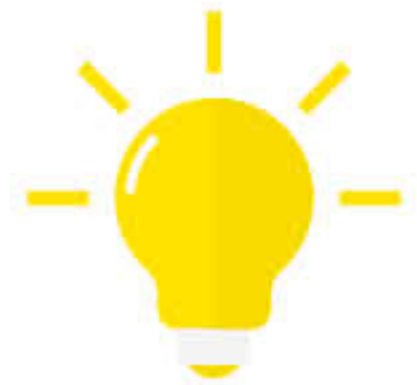

Eyes on me.

Yes, You Can!

You are going to learn:

Topic: School — Yes, You Can!

Key Words and Phrase: dream, boss, vet, come true

Grammar: Plural noun form (-es)

Warm-up

When you grow up, what would you like to be? Why?

Let's prepare!

Vocabulary

My dream is to become a singer.

dream

What's your dream?

Vocabulary

The boss is a robot.

boss

Can you circle the boss in the picture?

Vocabulary

I took my sick cat
to the vet.

vet

If your dog was sick, who would you take it to see?

☐ A teacher.

☐ A vet.

Vocabulary

20 years ago

Now

Timmy's mom wanted to be a teacher. Now it has come true.

come true

What was your mom's dream? Did it come true?

Grammar

four foxes

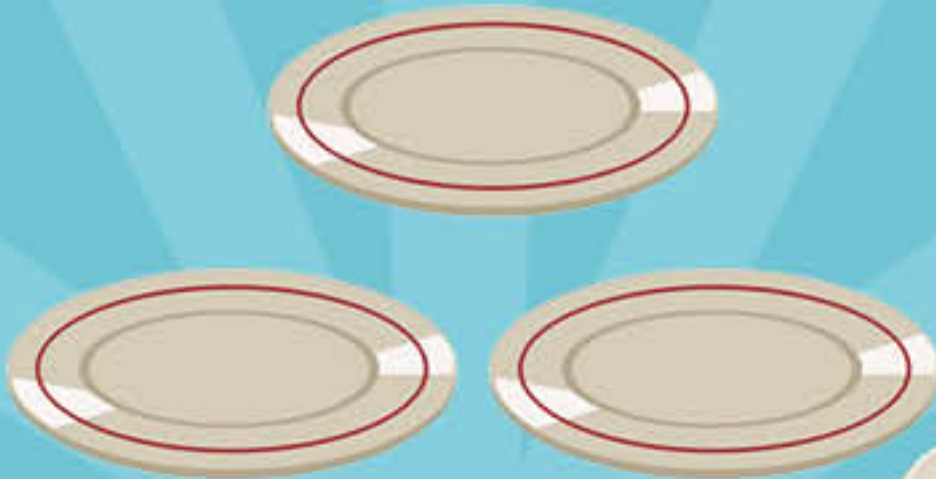

two buses

two witches

three dishes

two boxes

two watches

Let's read!

One day, Mrs. Brown asked her students to talk about their dreams for the future. All of the students were very excited about their dreams — except for one student.

What did Mrs. Brown ask her students to talk about?

Some students said they wanted to be bosses, and other students said they wanted to be vets. When it was Timmy's turn, he put his head down and didn't say a word.

Grammar

Plural noun form (-es)

Add the suffix "-es" to nouns that end in s, x, ch, sh to make the plural form.

e.g. boss - bosses watch - watches
dish - dishes

What did Timmy do when it was his turn?

Mrs. Brown walked over to Timmy's desk and asked him what the problem was. "I don't want to say my dream. I'm afraid that everyone will laugh," said Timmy.

What was Timmy afraid of?

“Everyone has different dreams.
No one will laugh at you,” said Mrs.
Brown.

Mrs. Brown’s words made Timmy feel better. “I want to be a cook,” said Timmy.

What did Timmy want to be?

“Good!” said Mrs. Brown. “Why do you want to be a cook?”
“I like delicious food! I want to make delicious food for my friends,” said Timmy.

Why did Timmy want to be a cook?

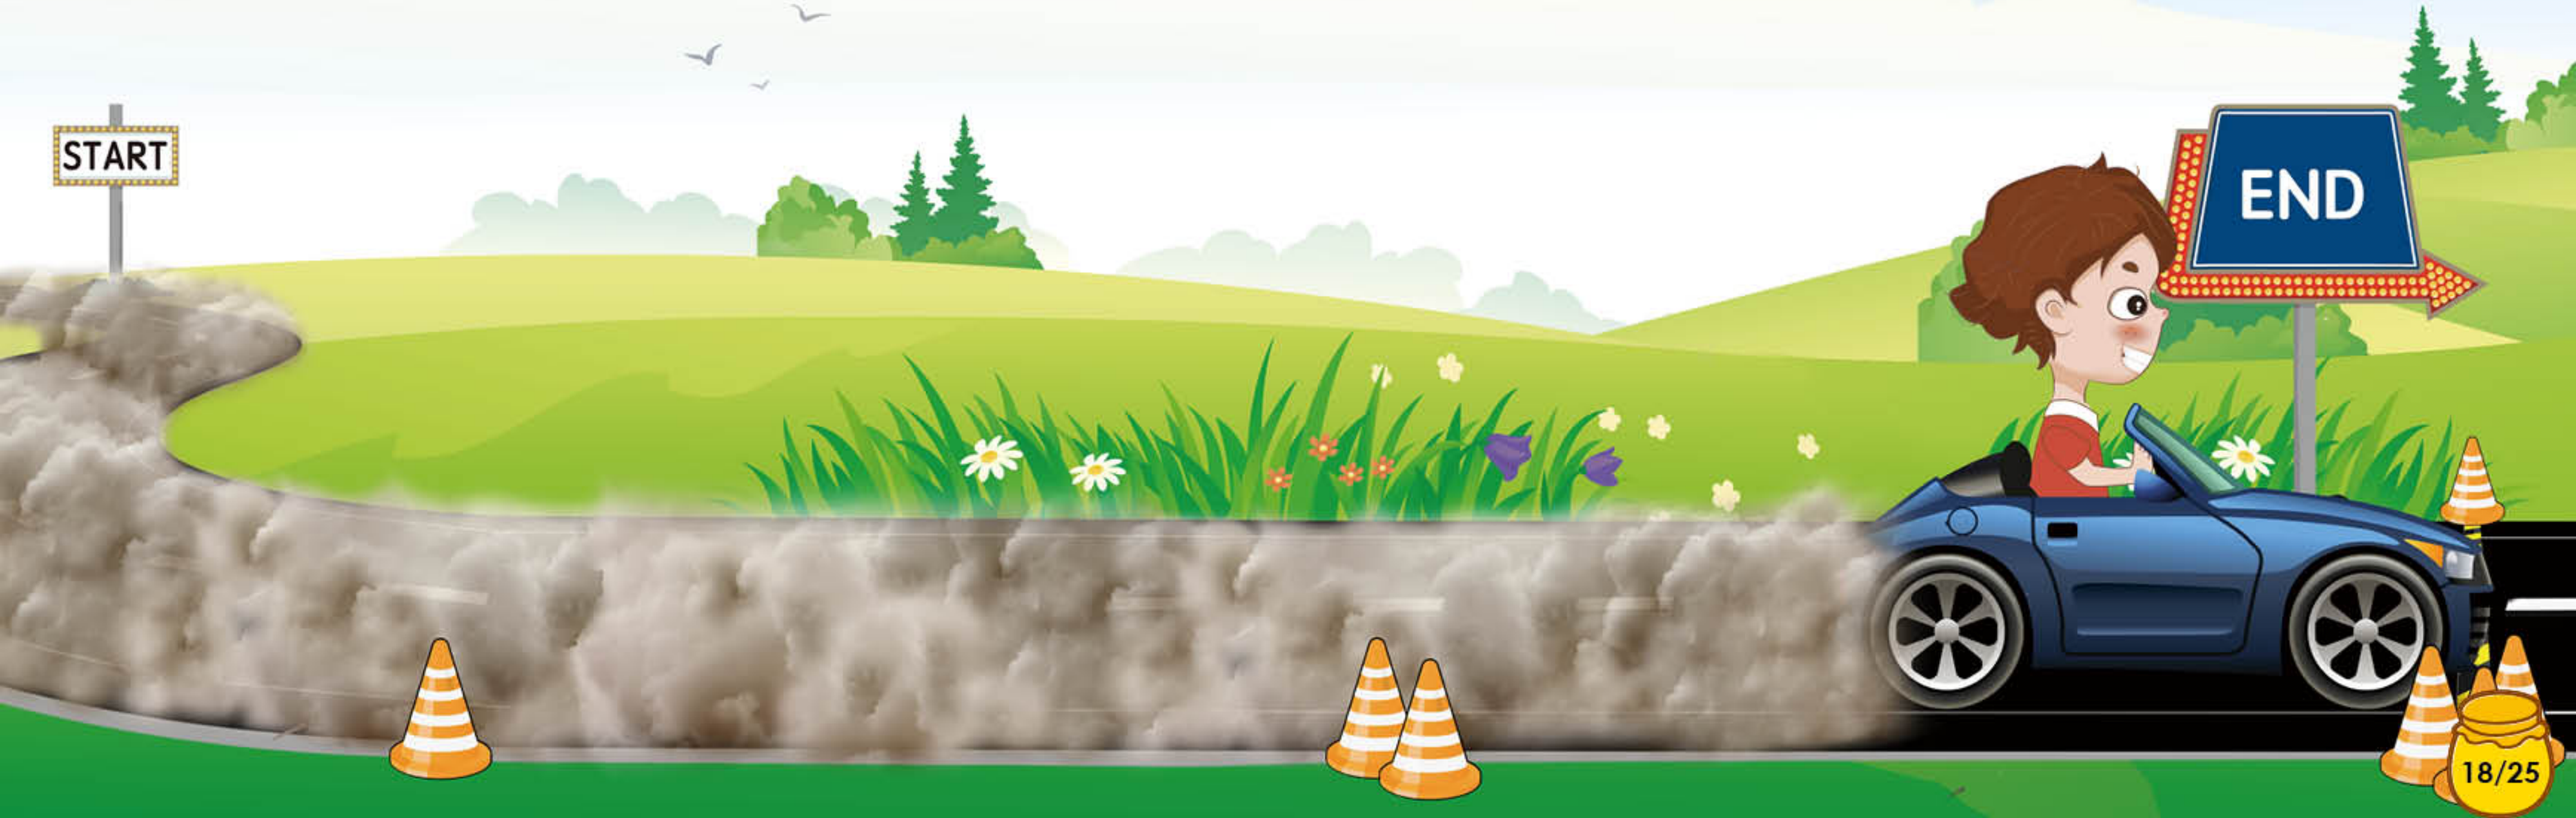

“That’s really nice! I believe that if you work hard, then your dreams will come true,” said Mrs. Brown.
Timmy felt much better.
“Thank you, Mrs. Brown! I believe it too!” said Timmy.

What did Mrs. Brown say to make Timmy feel much better?

Let's practice !

Activity

Complete the sentences and match them with the pictures.

Word Bank: vet come true boss dream

Her dad's dream has _____. Now he is a policeman.

His _____ is to have many dogs.

When my cat is sick, I take it to the _____.

My _____ looks very angry.

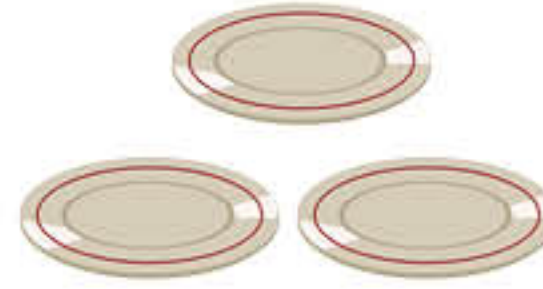

Activity

Complete the sentences with plural nouns.

bus

The ____ are yellow.

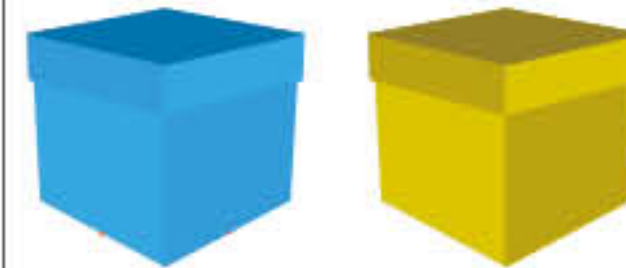

dish

The ____ are empty now.

witch

The two ____ are flying brooms.

box

There are two ____.

Activity

Answer the questions.

What was Timmy's dream?

Why did Timmy want to be a cook?

He wanted to be a...

Because he...

1

2

3

4

Writing Preparation

Prepare to write by answering the questions.

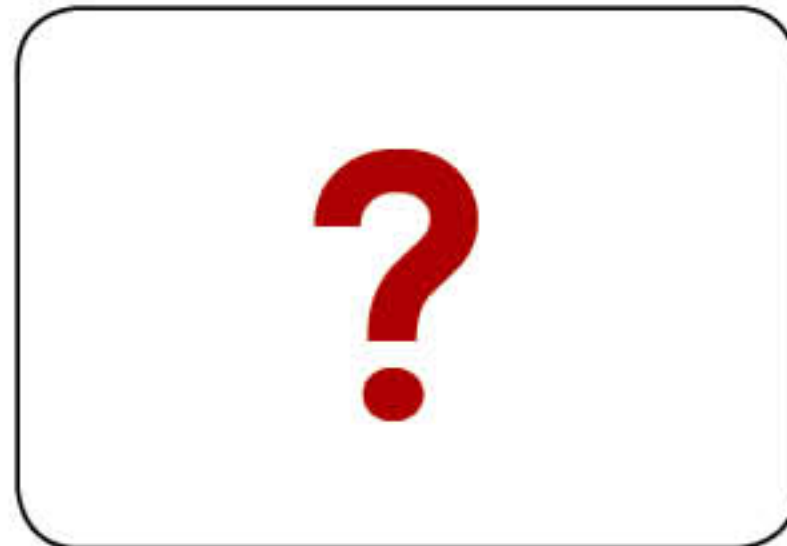

teacher

cook

vet

Let's talk!

What's your dream for the future? Why?

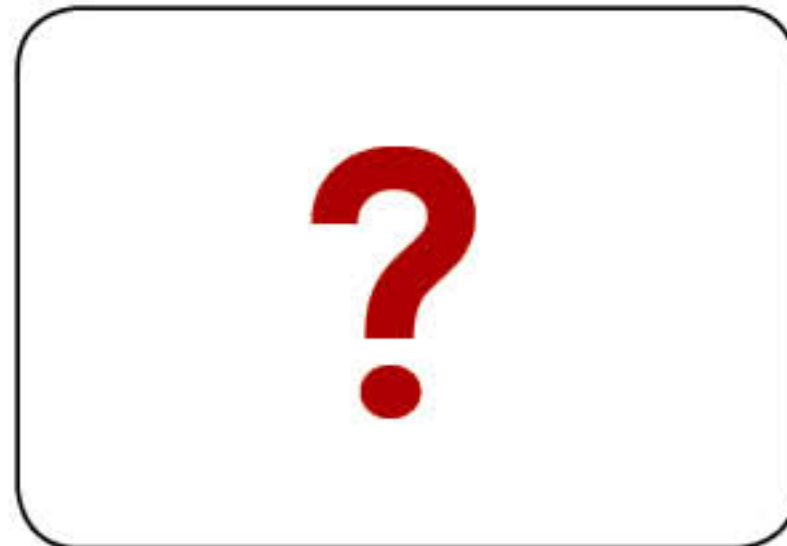

I want to be a/an... because...

Writing Project

Write a passage about your dream.

Hints: teaching cooking taking care of

I want to be a/an... because...

Today I learned:

Topic

School —
Yes, You Can!

Key Words and Phrase

dream

boss

vet

come true

Grammar

Plural noun form (-es)

e.g. Some students said they wanted to be bosses.

SEE YOU SOON!

51 TALK

