

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Eyes on me.

Sick at School

You are going to learn:

Topic: Feelings and health —
Sick at school

Words: sore, catch a cold, normal, muscle

Sentence pattern: Let me check...

Sing a Song

SHAKE YOUR HANDS

Shake, shake, shake your hands

As slowly as you can.

Shake, shake, shake your hands

As quickly as you can.

Let's prepare!

Vocabulary

I have a sore knee.

sore

Who has a sore throat?

Vocabulary

You'll catch a cold if you don't put a sweater on.

catch a cold

Which picture shows
"catch a cold"?

Vocabulary

My sister's temperature came down and returned to normal.

nor·mal

Whose temperature isn't normal?

Vocabulary

Regular exercise will help to strengthen your muscles.

mus·cle

Which one shows muscle?

Sentence Pattern

You might have caught a cold.
Let me check your temperature.

sore throat

ticket

Let's talk!

Introduction

Timmy feels sick at school and goes to see the school nurse.

Come in, please.
Have a seat. What's bothering you?

I have a sore throat, and I also have a headache.

You might have caught a cold. Let me check your temperature.

OK. Thank you,
nurse.

Your temperature
is a little bit higher than normal.

Let me see it, please. Is it really bad?

No, it's just a mild fever. How about your muscles? Do they hurt?

No. They're fine. I just feel a little tired.

I see. You need to go home and have a good rest. I will call your mom and tell her to pick you up.

OK. Thank you, nurse.

Let's practice!

Activity

Look at the pictures and definitions, say the words and make sentences.

Hurting or painful.

s _ _ _

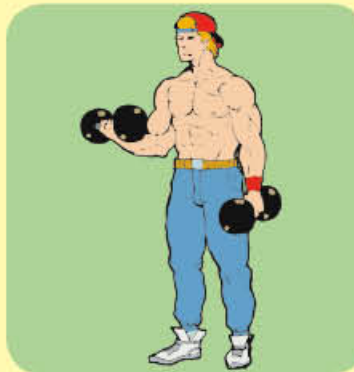

Something regular or usual.

n _ _ _ _

To contract a cold.

c _ t _ h a c _ _ _

The flesh parts of your body that help it to move.

m _ _ _ _

Activity

Make sentences with “Let me check...”.

Let me check...

stomach

driver's license

presents list

Activity

Complete and role-play.

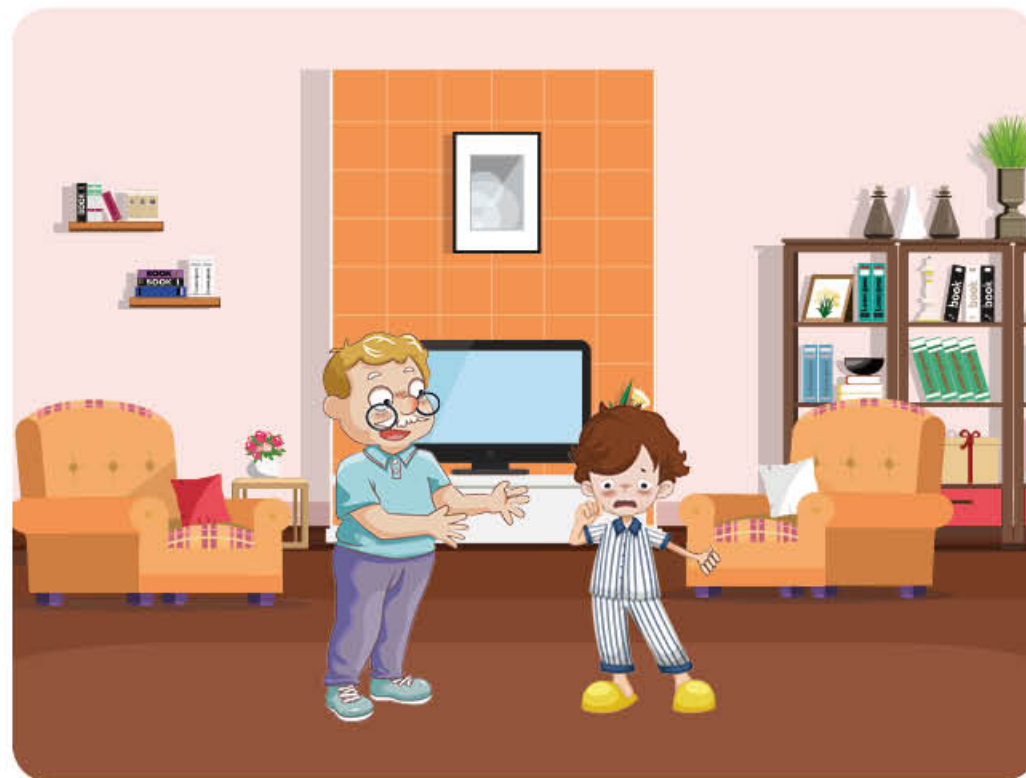

Put a sweater on, or you'll...

I have a... throat and I feel sick!

What? ... your temperature.

OK. Let me put on my sweater first!

Hints: sore catch a cold
let me check

Today I learned:

Topic

Feelings and health —
Sick at school

Words

sore

catch a cold

normal

muscle

Sentence Pattern

You might have caught a cold.
Let me check
your temperature.

SEE YOU SOON!

51

TALK