

Lesson 134

Storybook

Warm-up

What is your favorite story?

Do you know the name of the story?

What does the story talk about?

01

Knowledge Learning

Read the answer

Mary invites her friend Jane to her home. They read a storybook together. Read the passage and answer the questions.

Mary: Jane, do you know the story: Here comes a wolf?

Jane: No, I don't. Could you tell me the story?

Read the answer

Mary: Once upon a time, there was a naughty boy who was looking after a flock of sheep on a hill that was near his home. He felt bored sometimes but he didn't know what to do.

Read the answer

One day, he went to the hill and let his sheep eat and run as usual.

He wanted to find something to do. Suddenly he got an idea. He planned to make a joke on people.

So he cried loudly: "here comes a wolf, help! Help!".

Read the answer

After hearing it, his neighbors all ran up to save him. They only found that there was nothing but the laughing boy.

The same thing happened again the next few days, and the villagers got angry with him.

Read the answer

Mary: A few days later, a wolf did come. This time, the boy shouted and shouted, but nobody came to help because they thought the boy was joking them again. In the end, all the sheep were eaten by wolves. The story tells us never tell lies.

Jane: The story is so interesting. Which book is it from?

Read the answer

Mary: This book is called Chinese Fairy Tales.

Jane: I will buy it next time when I go to the book shop. There must be many interesting stories in the book!

Answer the question

1. What can you learn from the story?

2. Could you retell the story to the teacher with the help of the following words?

(Make fun of, lonely, sheep, wolf, cry, help, trust.)

Answer the question

1. What can you learn from the story?

Suggestion: We should not lie if we want people to trust us.

2. Could you retell the story to the teacher with the help of the following words?

(Make fun of, lonely, sheep, wolf, cry, help, trust.)

02

Practice

Learn new expression

These expressions can be used in telling stories. Try to remember them!

1. Make fun of = make joke on
2. Come up
3. Once upon a time
4. Tell a lie
5. Only to find something
6. A flock of sheep
7. Flock
8. There was nothing but
9. A wolf did come one day.
10. A few days after
11. In the end

Free talk

Read the story. What can you learn from the story?

Once upon a time, there was a dog. The dog had some meat that he wanted at home.

On his way home, he passed by a river. As he looked down, he saw his shadow in the water.

Free talk

"Just look!" he said to himself.

"That dog down here has some meat, too. If I could get it away from him, I would really eat well tonight!"

With this thought, he made a snap at the other dog's meat. And as he did, his own meat fell into the water. So, he had nothing at all.

Free talk

Then he saw that the other dog had lost his meat, too.

"That is as it should be!" he thought.
"Because I saw him trying to take my meat away from me."

Free talk

Suggestion: By wanting to have everything, he lost everything!

03

Conclusion

Conclusion

In this lesson, you've learnt

Words

A flock of, boring, as usual, suddenly, neighbors, villagers, shout, come up, fairy tale, serious,

Sentences

There was nothing but...

Grammar

make a joke with...

See you next class!