

The FOX and the ROOSTER

We are going to learn a moral story about the wise rooster.

Warm-up

2 min

Who do you think is the smartest? Why?

Reading 3 min

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

One night, a cunning fox was looking for food when he came upon a farm. He noticed a rooster, who was high up in a tree. The fox shouted up to the rooster and told him to come down because he had some good news to share.

Word Focus

- The cunning fox wants to trick the rooster.
- What cunning idea did the fox have?

To be continued... >>

Reading 3 min

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

The rooster looked at the fox but did not reply. The fox told the rooster it was safe to come down from his tree, as the king of the woods has called for a truce. No beast may hurt another and all animals shall be friends.

Word Focus

- Both sides didn't want to lose, so they called for a truce.
- Why is a truce a good thing?

To be continued... >>

Reading 4 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

The rooster replied to the fox and told him that he should also tell his best friend the good news. So the rooster craned his neck forward and made the call but the fox got scared and asked the rooster who was coming.

Who do you think was the rooster's friend?

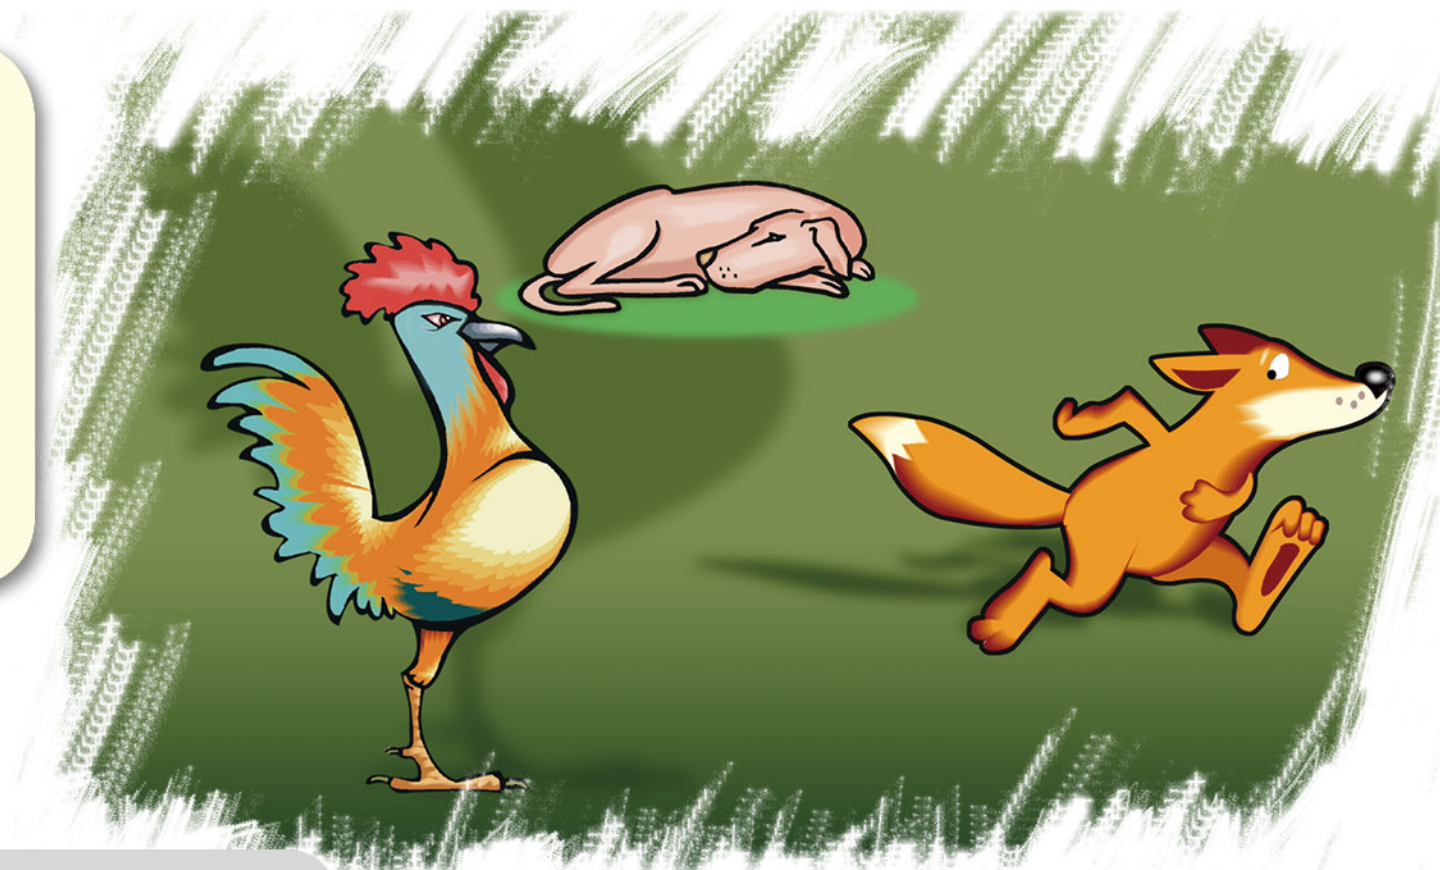

To be continued... >>

Reading*4

min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

The rooster told the fox that he would gladly tell the farmer's dog the good news. The fox got nervous and quickly ran away, as he was worried that he would be eaten. The rooster came down from his tree and congratulated himself.

Why did the rooster congratulate himself?

Let's practice. >>

Task*4

min

Fill in the blanks to complete the sentences.

Word Bank

craned, gladly, cunning, congratulate, truce, beasts

1. The _____ fox was looking for food when he found a farm.
2. The fox told the rooster about a _____ between _____ and birds.
3. The rooster _____ his neck and shouted for his friend to come.
4. The rooster told the fox he would _____ tell the farmer's dog the good news.
5. The rooster came down from the tree and started to _____ himself.

More challenges! >>

Leadership

4 min

Discuss with the teacher.

Q1. Which animal is the most cunning in this story? Why?
I think the ... is the most cunning because ...

Q2. Who is the most cunning person that you know?
The most cunning person I know is ... because ...

Q3. Do you always trust people? Why?

...

Wrap-up

1 min

In this lesson, we...

learned a moral story about the wise rooster.

learned new words.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> cunning | <input type="checkbox"/> crane |
| <input type="checkbox"/> truce | <input type="checkbox"/> beast |
| <input type="checkbox"/> gladly | <input type="checkbox"/> congratulate |

