Let's learn
some words.

A colorful illustration of four mariachi musicians in a town square. They are wearing red jackets, white shirts, and large red sombreros. The first man on the left plays a violin, the second plays a guitar, the third plays a trumpet, and the fourth plays a guitar. They are all smiling and have prominent mustaches. The background shows a town square with buildings, a street lamp, and colorful triangular flags hanging from a pole. There are also some flowers in the foreground.
