GENRE*Realistic fiction

Realistic fiction is a kind of fiction that has events that could happen in real life. Its details do not have magic or fantastical elements.

Jenny woke up late and had to hurry for school. She got to school on time, but she forgot many things.

First was her lunch. Jenny forgot to pick up her lunch because she was in a hurry to catch the bus. Second was her science homework. Fortunately, her teacher gave her time to submit her homework. Lastly, she forgot to bring her math book.

Jenny felt so bad. She slept early that night because she wanted to be more prepared for school the next day. Jenny knew that if she forgot something, she would waste time again.

MOM'S FANCY BIRTHDAY

One summer night, Timmy's mom was very nervous. It was her birthday night and she wanted everything to be perfect. Mom's plan was to go to a fancy restaurant in the center of town with her family. It was her favorite Italian restaurant. She put on her black dress, high heels, a red scarf, and a red hat.

Where did Timmy's mom want to go to have dinner on her birthday?

Mom went to the restaurant early to speak with the waiter about her dinner and to look at the menu. Slowly, her family started to come into the restaurant.

Timmy showed up late in his shorts and a dirty soccer jersey. He had come directly from soccer practice.

Mom was furious at Timmy. "At fancy restaurants, you need to wear nice clothes," said Mom.

Why was Mom furious at Timmy?

Jimmy showed up late with his little sister, Emma. Jimmy wore his bright green racing jacket, and Emma wore her school uniform.

Mom gasped. She was very upset.

“At fancy restaurants, you need to wear nice clothes,” she repeated. Mom was too upset to talk with anyone. She felt like her birthday night was ruined.

What was Emma wearing when they came to the restaurant?

Dad was the last one to show up. He wore a navy blue suit and looked very formal. He gave a large bouquet of tulips to his wife.

Mom decided that she was happy her family had come, even if they didn't wear the proper clothing. The most important thing to Mom was to be with her family on her birthday. They left the restaurant and decided to go for pizza.

What did Dad give Mom for her birthday?
