

Lesson 100

My secret thing

Warm-up

Do you have a secret thing at home?

2

Teaching notes: Say: I've got a secret diary at home. It's very old and I don't show it to anyone. I hide it on the top of my cupboard in my bedroom. Ask: Do you have a secret thing at home? Well, I'm not going to ask you where your secret things are. But later we are going to find out someone else's secret thing.

Listen and color

Look at the picture and talk about what you can see.

10

Listen and color

Listen to the dialogue between a girl and a man and then color the picture.

Questions:

What's the octopus made of?

What's the swan made of?

What's the large box behind?

Let's read

Girl: This room is untidy!

Man: Yes, but Tommy and his mother are going to tidy it up. No one usually goes in there.

Girl: Oh! Can I color the umbrella? The closed one.

Man: That's a great idea! Make it blue, please.

Girl: Shall I color that TV next?

Man: The one on the floor? Yes!

Girl: Can I use red for that?

Man: Yes, you can.

Girl: Great! Thanks. That's my favorite color.

Let's read

Man: Would you like to color the suitcase, too?

Girl: The square one?

Man: No, they never use that. Color the round one. Color it green.

Girl: What's the octopus made of? That old toy that Tommy is holding?

Man: Plastic, I think.

Girl: Can I color it purple?

Man: Yes. And color the swan under the castle.

Girl: All right. Can I make that red?

Man: No, you've already used that color. Make it pink, instead.

Let's read

Girl: Ok, I'm done.

Man: Excellent!

Girl: There are so many toys. Where will Tommy and his mother put them?

Man: Can you see the large box behind Tommy's mother?

Girl: Yes, the one made of paper?

Man: Yes, that's right. Write the word 'toys' on it - they will use that.

Girl: All right.
