Transcript

Girl: Dad, I've found a great website with all the information I need to write about a special person!

Man: So who are you going to write about?

Girl: Someone I'm really interested in. Her name's Tamae Watanabe - the Japanese woman who climbed to the top of Everest!

Man: You mean the mountain?

Girl: Yes Dad! E-V-E-R-E-S-T -the highest mountain in the world!

Transcript

Man: Wow! That's a brave, dangerous and difficult thing to do!

Girl: That's right! She's amazing. And you know, she didn't only do that once she climbed it twice!

Man: Really?

Girl: Yes. She was 63 years old the first time!

Man: How wonderful!

Transcript

Girl: Then, she climbed it again on May 19th, 2012.

Man: And how old was she the second time?

Girl: She was 73! She's the oldest woman to ever climb that mountain!

Man: How did she feel when she arrived at the top?

Girl: I don't know. Very pleased perhaps!

Transcript

Man: Do you think her back, arms and legs were sore?

Girl: Of course! For the last part of the trip, she and the other people in the group were climbing all night!

Man: So, what time did they arrive at the top?

Girl: At seven o'clock in the morning.

Transcript

Man: And how high is the mountain?

Girl: It's 8,850 meters high!

Man: That's a long way to climb and carry all the things they needed to get to the top!

Girl: I know!
