The monkey trainer

Warm-up

Answer questions.

1. Have you ever been to a zoo?
2. If yes, when did you go there?
What animals have you seen?

If no, do you want to go to the zoo?
What animals do you want to see?

02

Practice

Read and answer

Read Jack's email to Alice, then answer questions.

Alice has a team of journalists who find interesting people to go on the program. Peter is one of them. He's sent Alice an email.

Hi Alice ,

I went to the World Zoo today. I met the new monkey trainer who came here last week. His name is David. He's not famous like other people on your program, but he's very interesting and clever and so are the monkeys at the zoo. But there's a problem. David can come to our studio, but the monkeys can't. So we'll have to take all our cameras and lights to the zoo and film him, the monkeys and the interview there. Do you agree with that?

Peter

Read and answer

Answer questions according to the above email.

1. Peter went to see David at the (World) zoo today.
2. David looks after (the) monkeys there.
3. Peter thinks David and his animals are interesting and clever too.
4. Peter says they'll have to film the interview at the zoo.
5. Peter's team from the program must take their cameras and lights.

Listen and answer

Listen to Alice's reply (回复) to Peter and answer questions.

1. What does Alice think of Peter's email?
2. What will the weather be like this Saturday?
3. What time will they meet?

Listen and answer

Let's read the Alice's reply (回复) to Peter.

Hi Peter

I've read your email. It sounds interesting. I think it is a good way to film the interview. It will be sunny this Saturday. How about eleven o'clock in the morning? There will be many people too. People will like this interview.
