

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Eyes on me.

New York City

You are going to learn:

Topic: My home — New York City

Words: fantastic, drop, famous, jealous

Grammar: Simple future tense

Warm-up

How will you celebrate the New Year?

I will see a dragon
dance.

Let's prepare!

Vocabulary

She looks fantastic in that dress.

fan · tas · tic

Which picture shows a fantastic time?

Vocabulary

She dropped her book.

drop

Which picture shows drop?

Vocabulary

The Eiffel Tower is a famous landmark.

fa · mous

Which picture shows a famous singer?

Vocabulary

He has always been very jealous of his brother's success.

jeal · ous

Which picture shows
jealous?

Grammar

Match the pictures with the sentences.

We are going to have a barbecue.

They are going to watch a movie together.

The hippo is going to jump.

Attention: Both “will” and “going to” can be used to talk about a future event.

Let's talk!

Introduction

New Year is coming.
Timmy asks Pedro about
his New Year's Eve plan.

What's your plan for New Year's Eve, Pedro?

I will go to New York City with my family. It's going to be fantastic!

Wow, that will be fun! So, which part of the city will you go to?

We are going to the famous Times Square. I hear there will be about a million people there.

Grammar

Simple future tense

We use "going to" to talk about future plans and predictions.

e.g. It is going to be great!

Oh great! You will see the “ball drop” then. I think it drops about 40 meters in 60 seconds just before midnight.

Yes, I can't wait — it's going to be so exciting!

I'm so jealous! You will see all the latest music groups too, plus the fireworks...

Pedro

I know! I just hope I don't get lost in the crowd!

Let's practice!

Activity

Make sentences using the words.

jealous,
good looking

He is jealous because his brother is good looking.

drop,
keys

famous,
ballet dancer

fantastic,
trip

Activity

Complete the sentences using "... going to..."

1. He is going to call a doctor.

2. They are _____ a bunch of flowers.

3. It's _____ cats and dogs.

4. He _____ an accident.

Hints: have rain eat buy

Activity

Talk to the teacher.

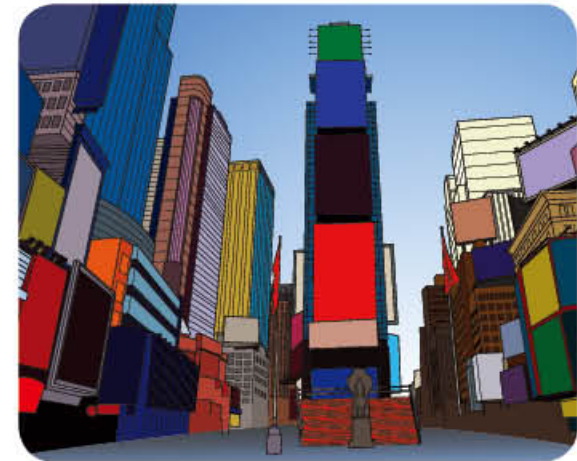

What's your plan for New Year's Eve?

Empty response box for the student's answer.

Great! Which part of the city will you go to?

Empty response box for the student's answer.

Activity

Talk to the teacher.

What are you going to do in Times Square?

Empty response box for the student.

Oh, fantastic! And what else will you see?

Empty response box for the student.

Today I learned:

Topic

My home —
New York City

Words

fantastic

drop

famous

jealous

Grammar

Simple future tense

e.g. We are going to the famous Times Square.

SEE YOU SOON!

51

TALK