

Are You Ready?

Listen to me. → → Eyes on me. ← ←

Fore!

You are going to learn:

Topic: Sports and leisure — Fore!

Words: course, golf club, difficult, beginner

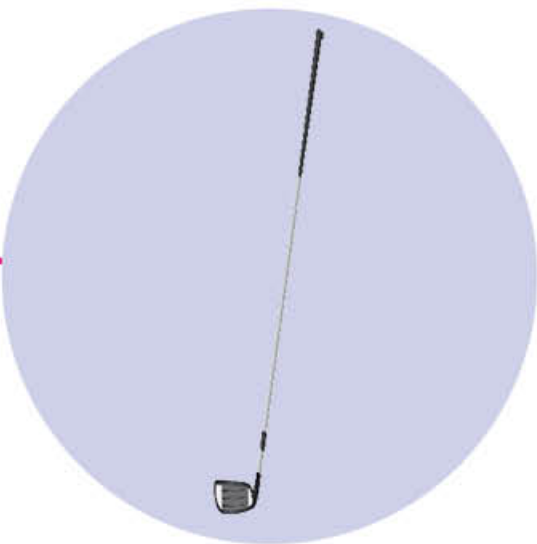

Sentence pattern: The (few)er..., the (low)er...

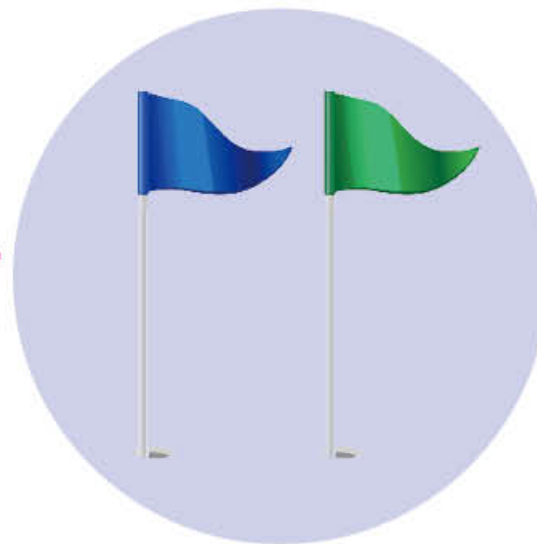

What is the sport?

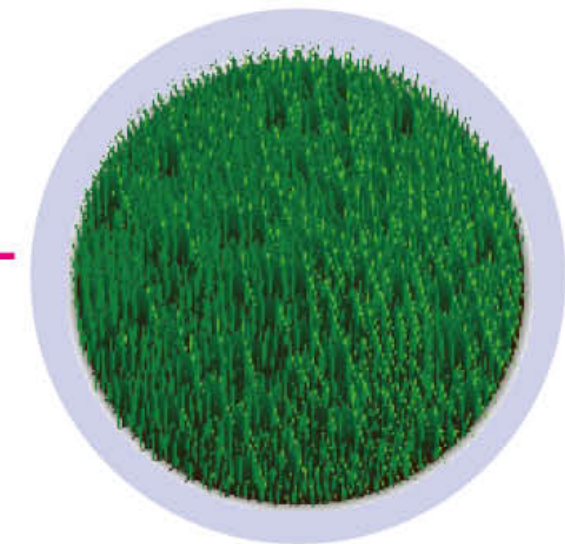

+

+

+

Let's prepare!

Golf is played on a golf course.

course

Which is a golf course?

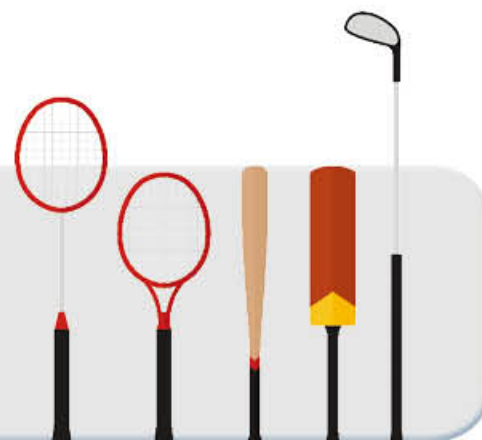

The goal of golf is to hit the ball into the holes with a golf club.

golf club

Circle the golf club.

This golf course is difficult to play on. The golf ball can fall into the sandpit or the lake.

dif·fi·cult

Which golf course is difficult to play on?

The boy has just begun to learn to play golf. He is a golf beginner.

be·gin·ner

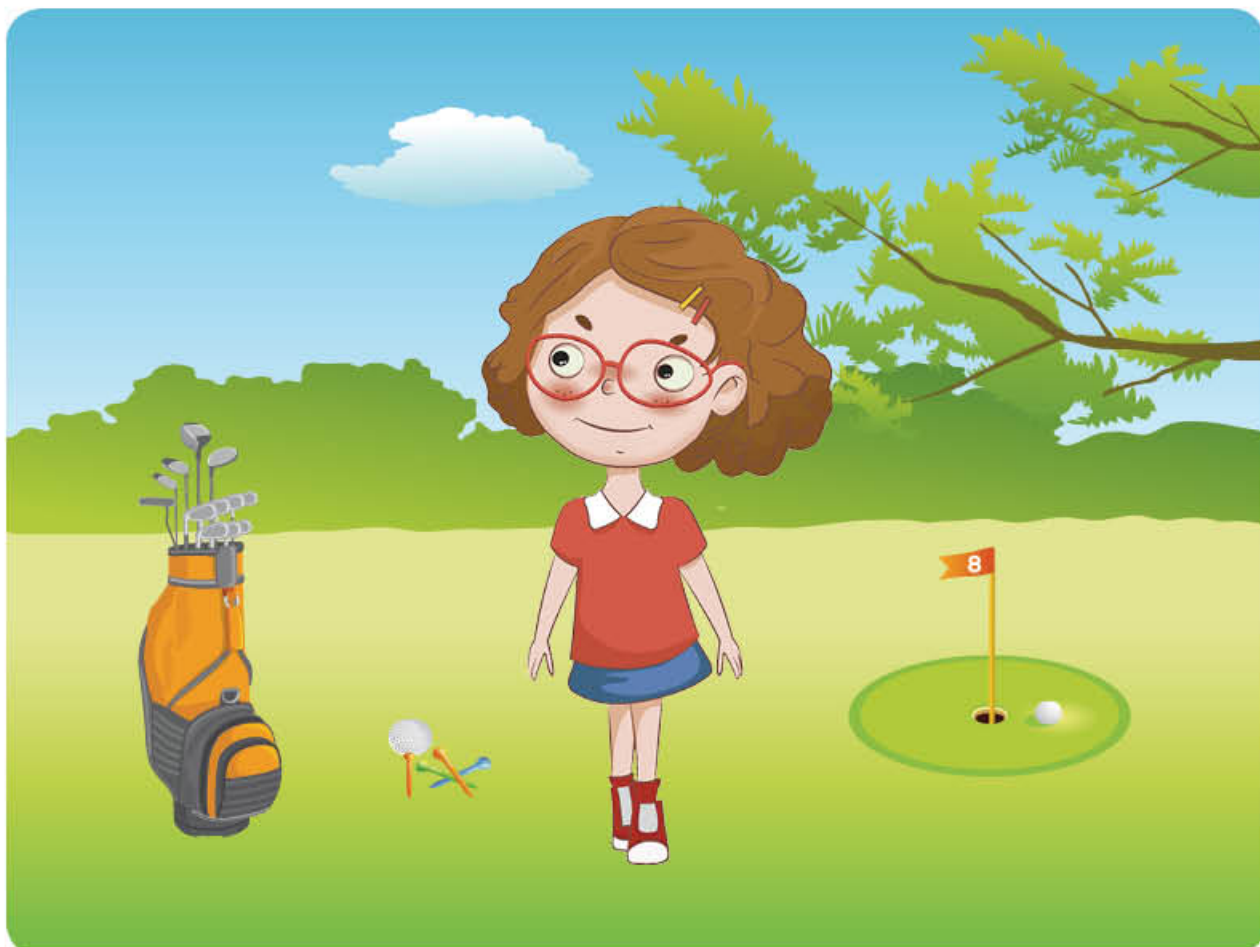

Who is a golf beginner, the boy or the man?

Let's read!

One day, Cindy decided that she would like to learn how to play golf. Cindy chose golf for two reasons. The first reason was that she liked to play individual sports. The second reason was that she liked being outside.

Why did Cindy decide to learn how to play golf?

Golf is played on a golf course. Every golf course has eighteen holes.

The goal of golf is to hit the ball into each of the 18 holes by using a golf club. The fewer times a player hits the ball, the lower his or her score will be. In golf, the lowest score wins!

How do you win a game of golf?

Some golf courses are difficult. Sometimes the golf ball can fall into sandpits or lakes. Other golf courses are easier and quicker to play on — perfect for beginners.

People that like golf like to play on different courses. Sometimes they will travel very far just to play on a new course.

Are all golf courses the same?

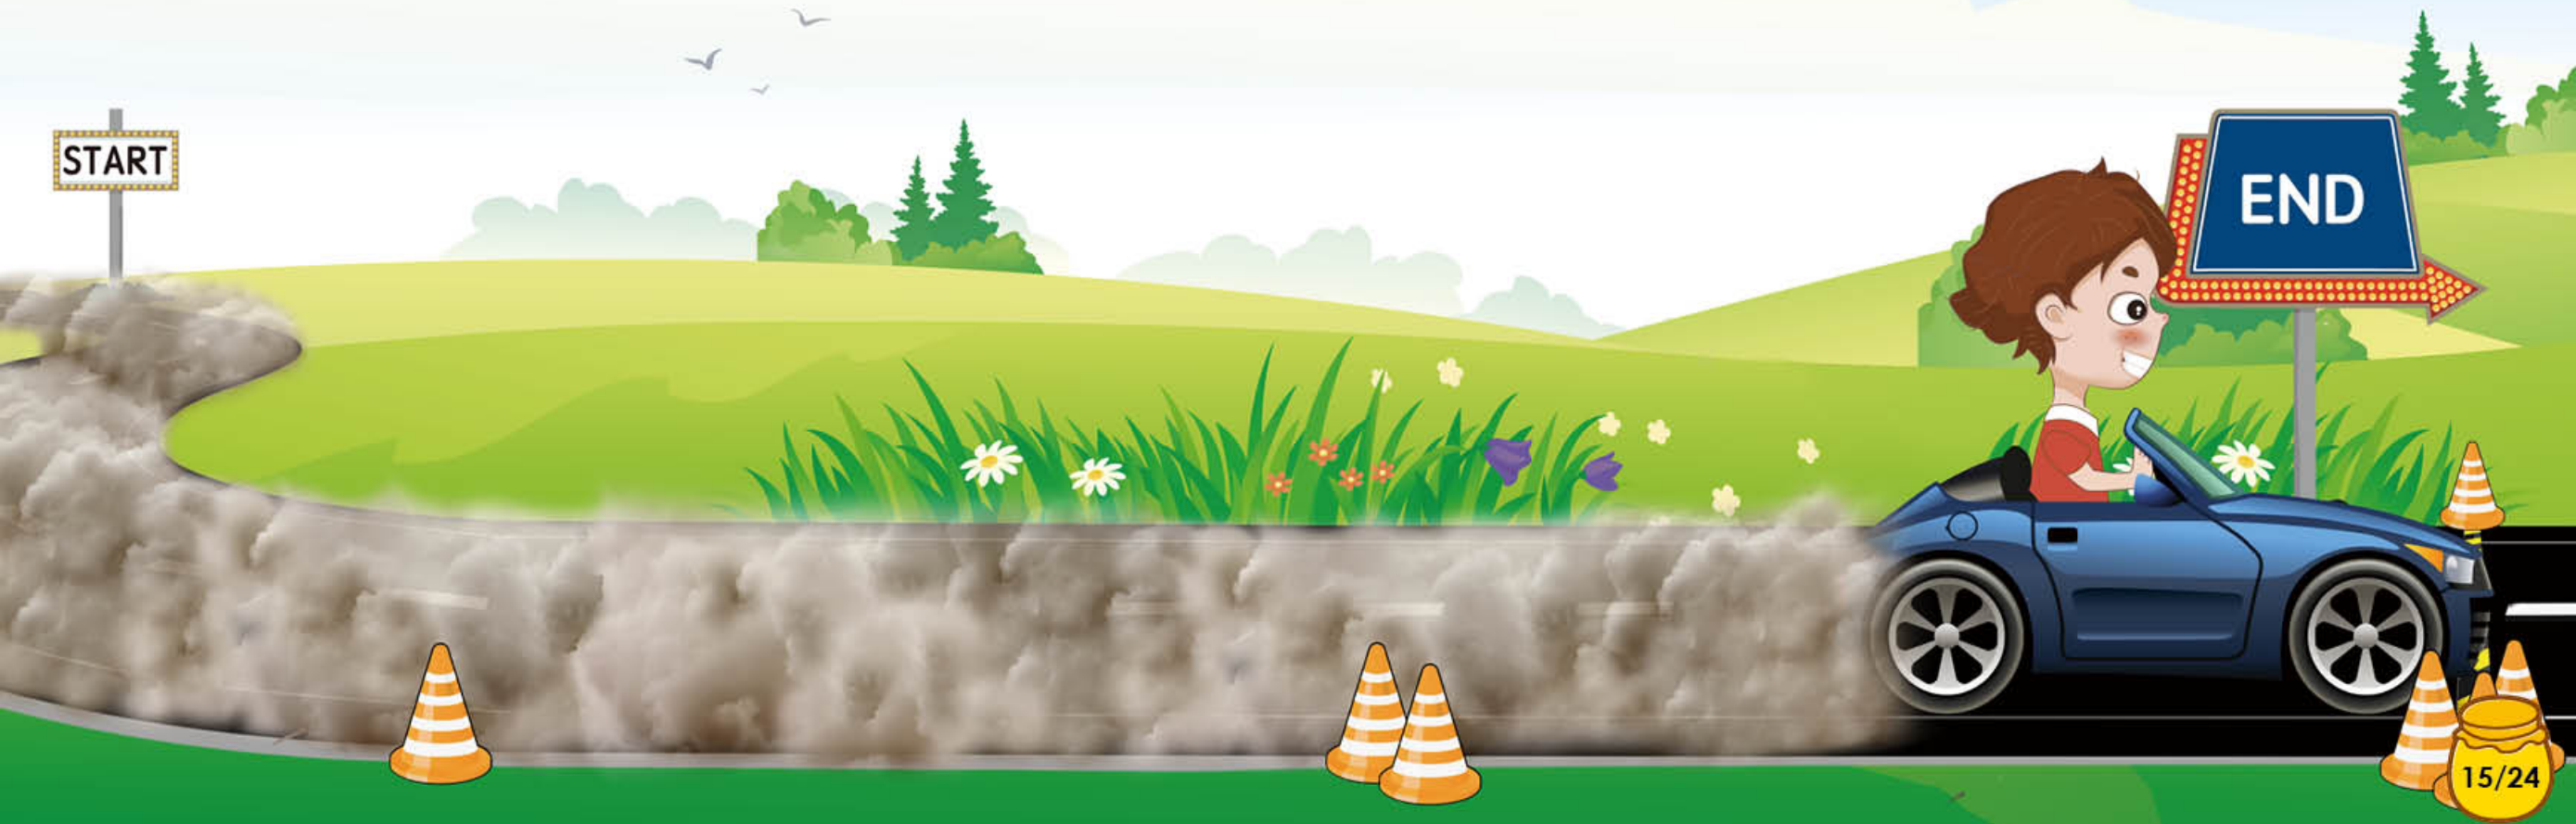

Cindy thought that golf was hard but her teacher told her not to give up. The harder she practiced, the better she became. Soon she was getting very low scores and beating the other golfers!

How did Cindy improve her golf skill?

Let's practice!

Look and say.

Golf is played on a golf course.

Hints

course

difficult

golf club

beginners

Match and say.

1. Cindy chose golf.

2. Cindy was getting very low scores and beating the other golfers!

Why and how

A. She liked to play individual sports.

B. Cindy didn't give up.

C. She liked being outside.

D. The harder she practiced, the better she became.

Fill in the blanks.

Golf
Where	 Golf is played on a _____. Every golf course has _____ holes.
How	 The goal of golf is to hit the ball into each of the 18 _____ by using a _____. The fewer times a player hits the ball, the lower his or her score will be. In golf, _____ score wins!

Word Bank

holes
golf club
eighteen
the lowest
golf course

Fill in the blanks.

Golf courses
Difficult courses	Easier courses
 The golf ball can fall into _____.	 Easier and quicker to play on — perfect for _____.

Hints

Tick the right answer(s).

Which is mentioned in the passage?

Cindy decided to learn how to play golf.

Different kinds of golf courses.

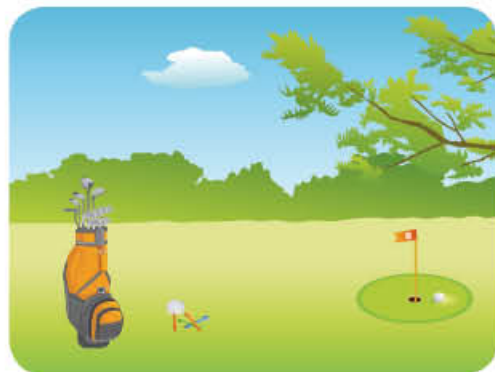

Different kinds of golf clubs.

Writing Preparation.

Step 1

You've learned about playing golf. Can you tell me what the goal of golf is and how people win a game?

Hints:

ball
holes
the fewer
the lower
the lowest

Writing Project.

Step 2

Golf is played on a golf course. Every golf course has eighteen holes.

The goal of golf is to _____.
_____. The fewer
times a player hits the ball, _____.
_____. In golf,
_____ wins!

Hints:

ball
holes
the lower
the lowest

Today I learned:

Topic

Sports and leisure —
Fore!

Words

-  course
-  golf club
-  difficult
-  beginner

Sentences

 The fewer times a player hits the ball, the lower his or her score will be.

 The harder she practiced, the better she became.

GOODBYE!

51 TALK

