

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Eyes on me.

Animals' Homes

You are going to learn:

Topic: Animals — Animals' Homes

Key Words: nest, anthill, lodge, burrow

Warm-up

Which animal do you think lives here?

Let's prepare!

Vocabulary

There are some eggs in the nest.

nest

Where is the bird?

Vocabulary

Ants' homes are called anthills.

ant·hill

What are the ants building?

Vocabulary

The beaver is building his lodge.

lodge

Where does the beaver live?
The beaver _____.

Vocabulary

The rabbit is hiding food in his burrow.

bur·row

Which animal lives in a burrow?

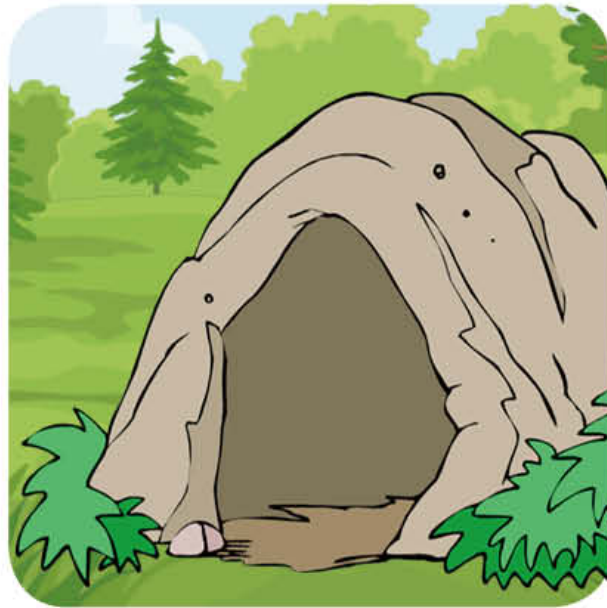

Let's read!

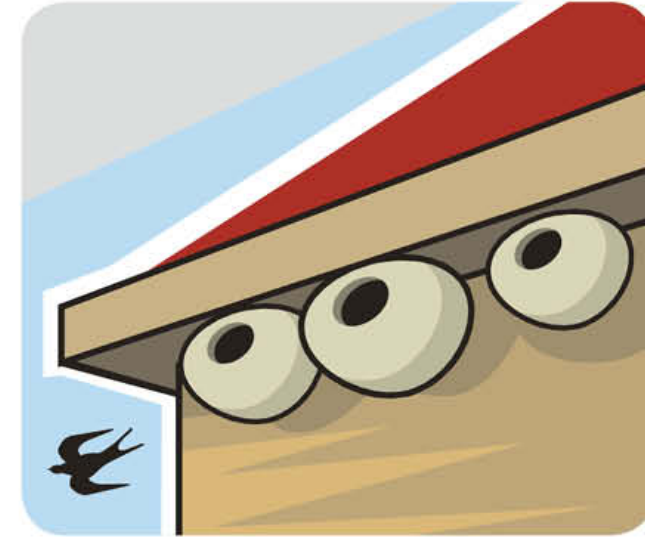

People make use of tools and machines to build their homes. Just like people, animals can build homes too. Different animals build different types of homes.

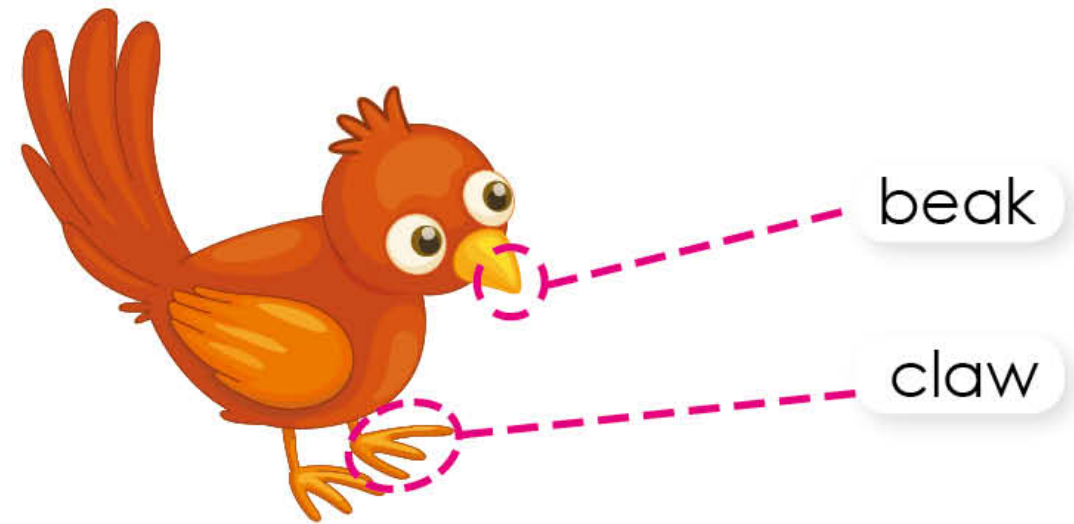

Can animals build homes?

Birds make use of their beaks and claws to build homes called nests. Birds usually build nests in high places, such as in trees or on houses.

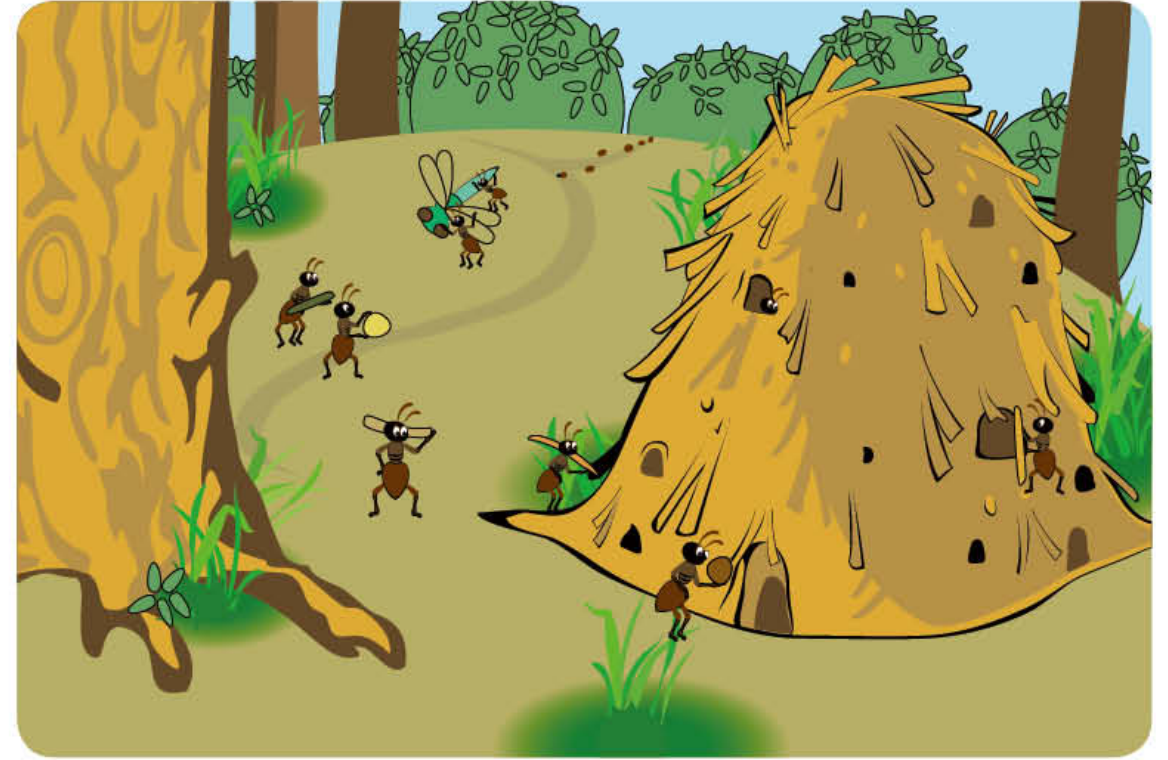

How do birds build their nests?

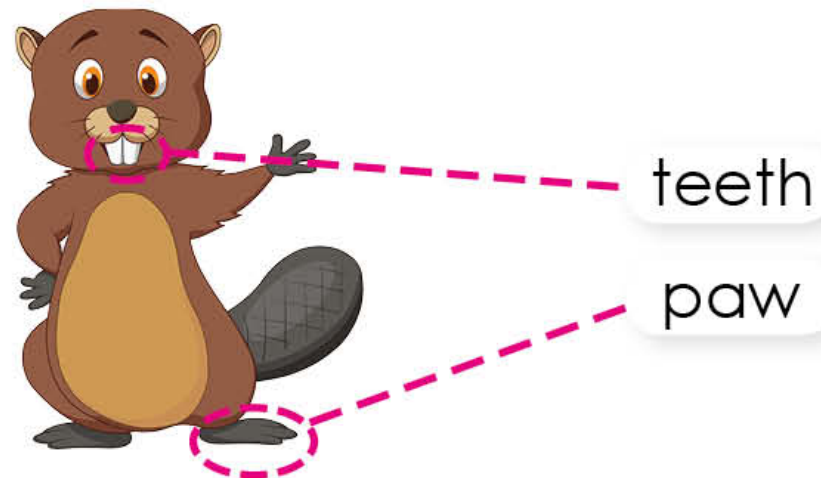

Some ants make use of dirt to build homes called anthills. They often build their homes near rocks or fallen trees.

How do ants build their anthills?

Beavers make use of their teeth and paws to build homes called lodges. They usually build lodges in rivers or streams.

How do beavers build their lodges?

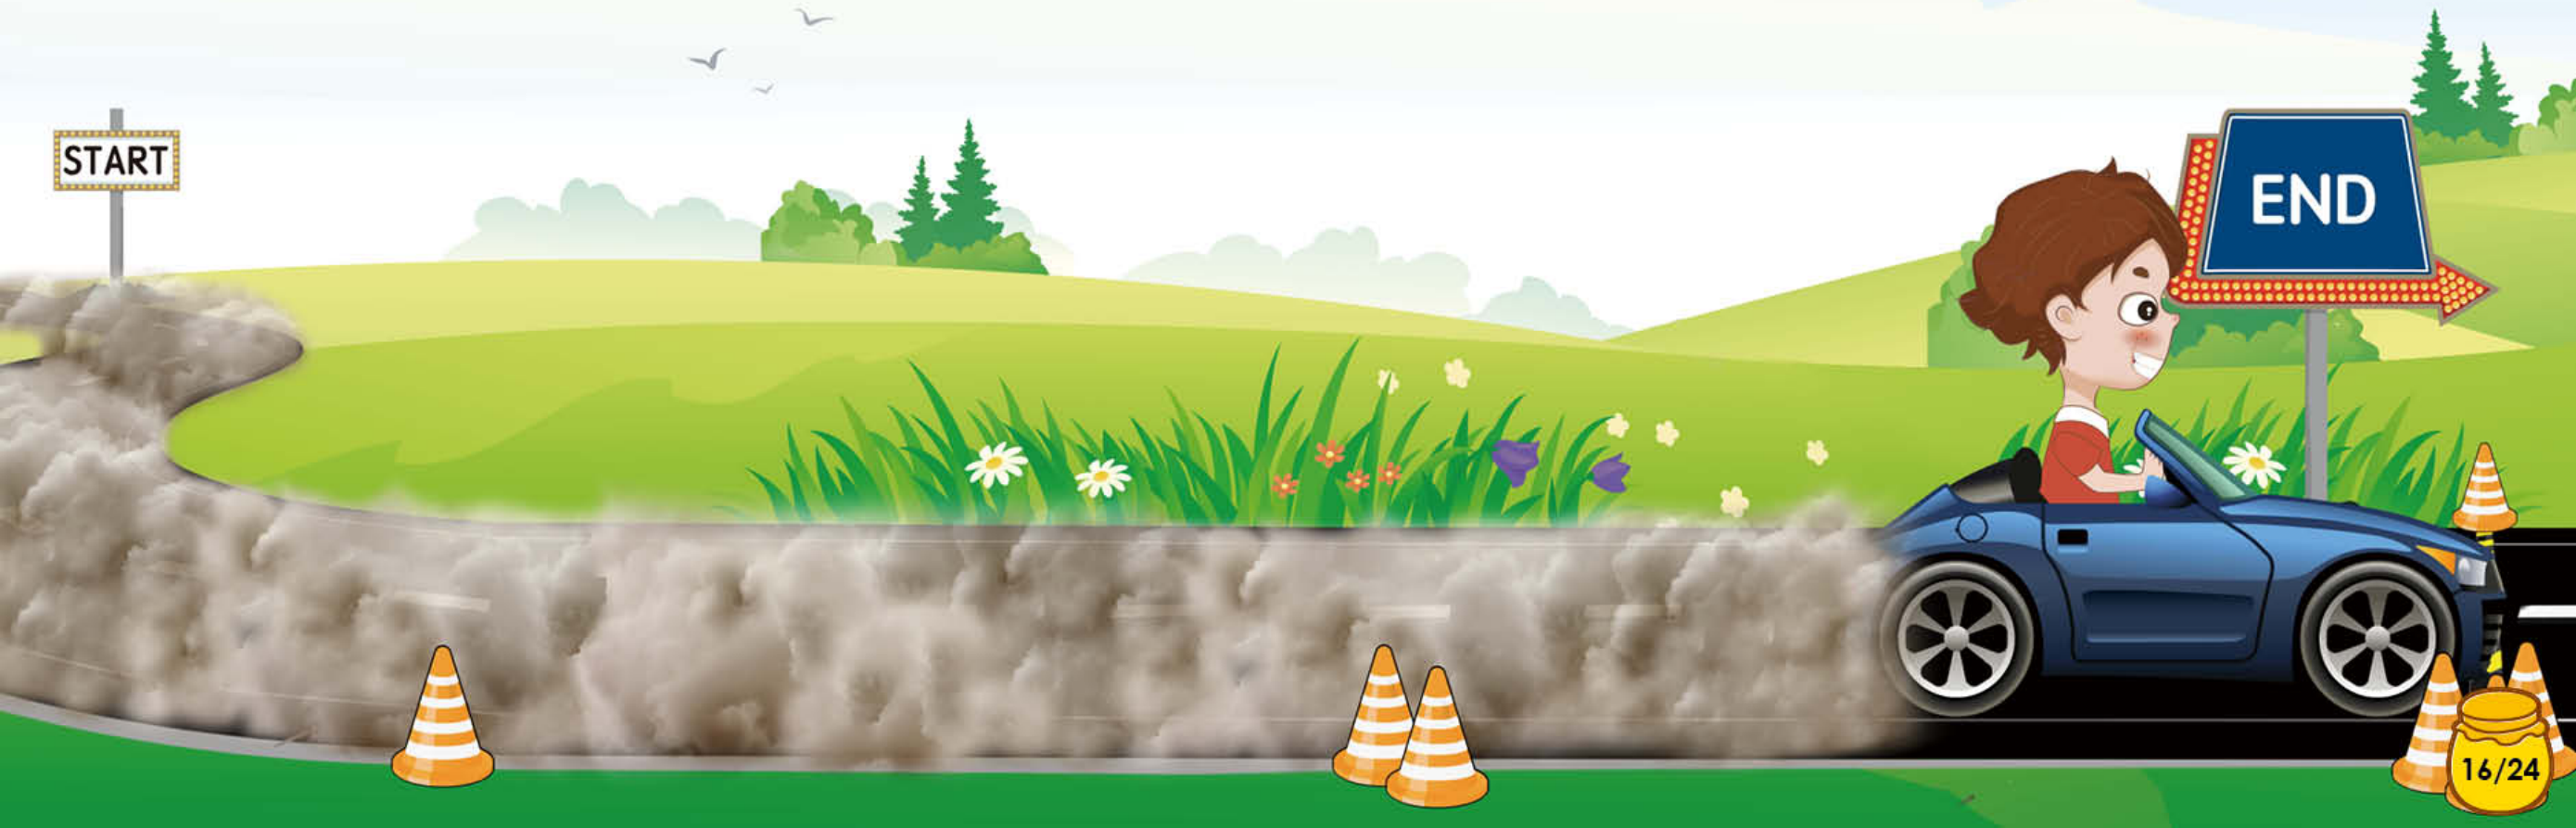

Rabbits make use of their paws to dig under the ground and build homes called burrows. There are several rooms for sleeping and storing food.

How do rabbits build their burrows?

Let's practice!

Activity

Match and say.

anthill

burrow

nest

lodge

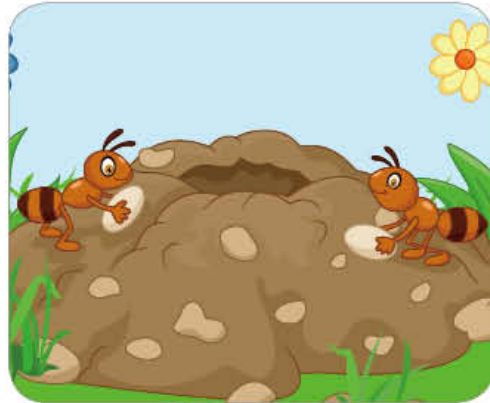

Activity

Complete the sentences with the words in the Word Bank.

Beavers usually build _____ in rivers and streams.

Ants make use of dirt to build homes called
_____.

Birds build _____
in high places,
such as in trees
or on houses.

Rabbits make use of their paws
to dig under the ground and build homes called
_____.

Word Bank: nests, burrows, lodges, anthills

Activity

Match the pictures with the words, and complete the sentences.

lodge

anthill

nest

burrow

- 1 Birds make use of their beaks and claws to build homes called ____.
- 2 Rabbits make use of their paws to dig under the ground and build homes called ____.
- 3 Ants make use of dirt to build homes called ____.
- 4 Beavers make use of their teeth and paws to build homes called ____.

Activity

Sort the facts.

1

Rabbits build homes called burrows.

2

Ants make use of dirt to build lodges.

3

Birds usually build nests in trees or on houses.

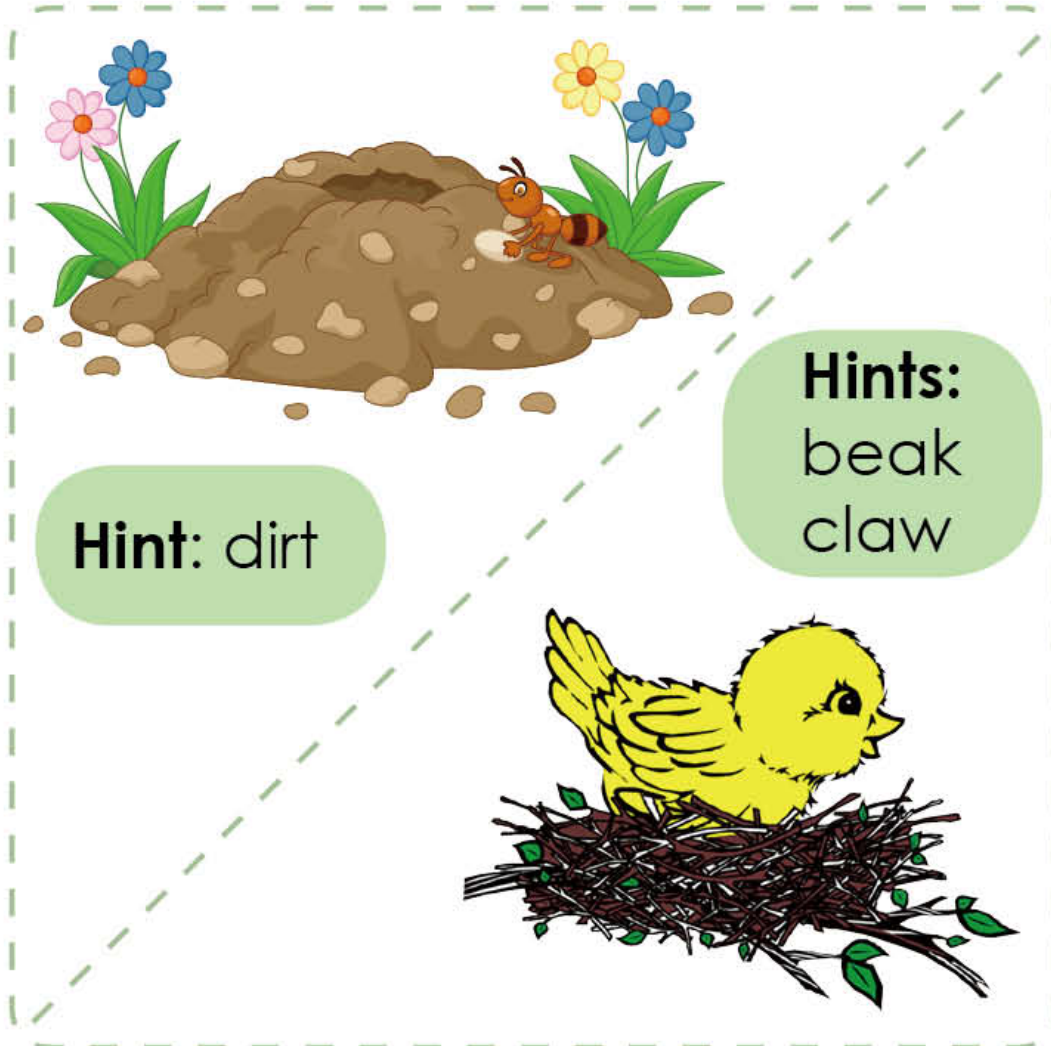

4

Beavers make use of their teeth and paws to build nests.

Writing Preparation

Prepare for your writing by answering the questions.

Step 1: Let's choose!

Which animal do you like?

Step 2: Let's talk!

What is this animal's home called?
How does it build its home?

1. I like...
2. The... home is called...
3. It uses...

Writing Project

Write a passage about an animal's home.

Hints: make use of, dirt, anthill
beak, claw, nest

The ant/bird makes use of... to build its home called...

Today I learned:

Topic

Animals —
Animals' Homes

Key Words

nest

anthill

lodge

burrow

SEE YOU SOON!

51 TALK

