

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Eyes on me.

Building Bridges

You are going to learn:

Topic: Work and jobs — Building bridges

Words: bridge, rope, split, glass

Grammar: Phrasal verb (base on)

Warm-up

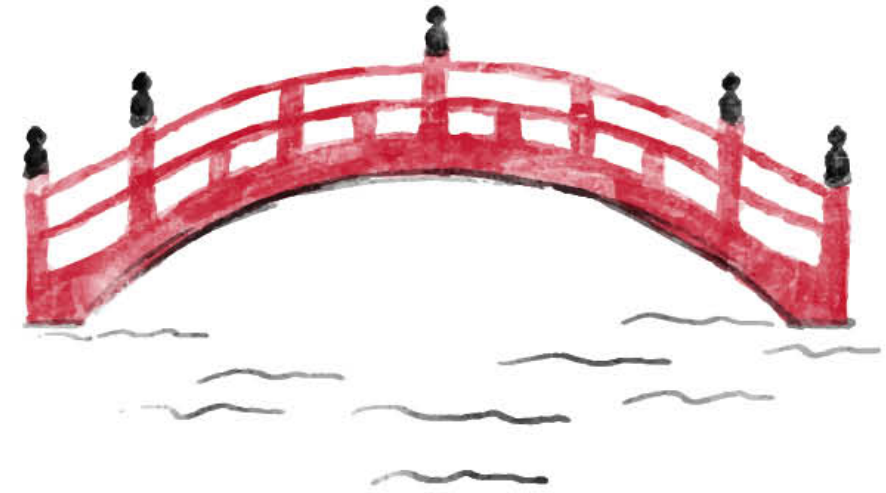

This is the Golden Gate Bridge in America.
What other famous bridges do you know?

Let's prepare!

A new bridge was built over the river.

bridge

Which one is a bridge?

This rope is very strong.

rope

Cindy uses a _____ to hang all the clothes.

They split into two groups to play soccer.

split

Which shows “split”?

This is a glass bottle.

glass

Which one is a glass door?

Grammar

His speech is based on his own story.

book a real person

Let's talk!

Introduction

Timmy and Sam are discussing a homework presentation “building bridges”.

OK. So, the first bridges were based on things like tree wood and bamboo poles.

Yep. And then the Romans started using stone to build arch bridges.

Grammar

Phrasal verb: base on “Base on” means to be developed from or using another thing.
e.g. His speech is based on his own life.

Yes, and the Chinese invented the suspension bridge,
based on using
bamboo ropes.

Plus the Chinese Zhaozhou Bridge is one of the oldest in the world.

Around 1,400 years old
– and people still use it today!

Yes. And finally, the British started making really strong bridges
using iron.

So what are you going to say is your favorite bridge, Sam?

The Tower Bridge in London. It can split in two and let big ships pass by!

I like the Zhangjiajie Glass
Bridge in China.

Yeah. It must be so scary. Let's ask Xiao
Wang to take a video!

Let's practice!

Activity

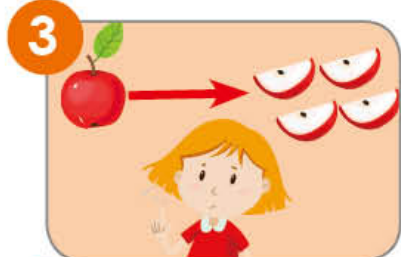

Complete the sentences using the words in the Word Bank.

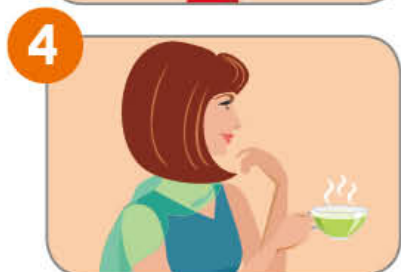

He wants to go across the river.
So he's going to build a .

Timmy wants to use a to climb up the hill.

She wants to the apple into pieces.

She is using a cup.

Word Bank

rope
split glass
bridge

Activity

Make sentences using the phrasal verb “base on”.

movie a real person

newspaper facts

Activity

Talk to the teacher.

Do you know who invented the suspension bridge?

Do you know any famous Chinese bridges?

What does it look like?

Today I learned:

Topic

Work and jobs —
Building bridges

Words

bridge

rope

split

glass

Grammar

Phrasal verb (base on) e.g. The first bridges were based on things like tree wood and bamboo poles.

SEE YOU SOON!

51

TALK

