Differences

"A few" and "few"

- Using a few instead of few in a sentence changes a sentence's meaning.
- Whereas "a few" implies a small number of some that is greater than two, "few" implies only a small number.

"A few of us plan to visit our friend in the hospital later today."
= [Some of us plan to visit our friend in the hospital later today.]

"Few of us would rather be sick with a cold than go to work."
= [Only a small number of us would rather be sick with a cold than go to work.]
