

Lesson 39

Swans

Warm-up

What are your favorite animals? Why do you like them?

01

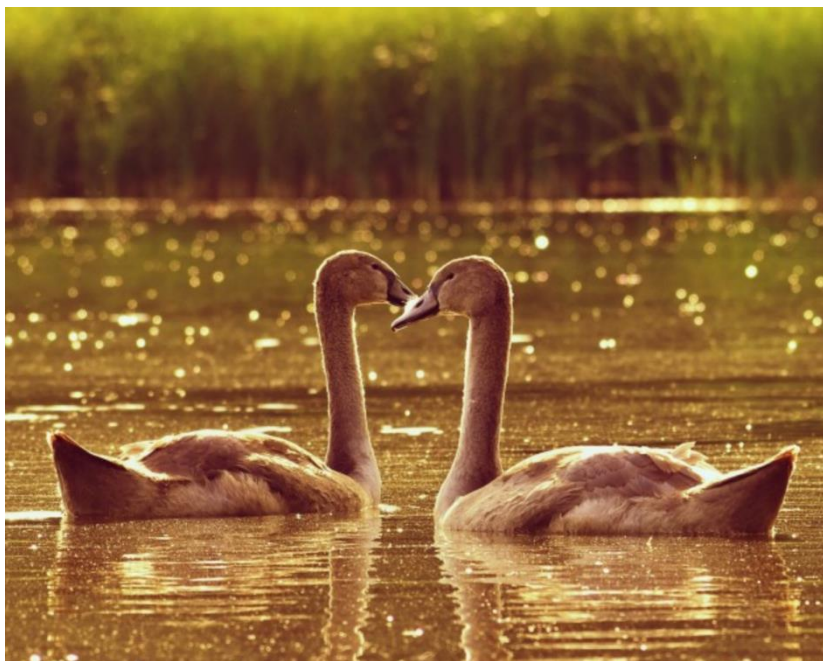

Knowledge Learning

Look and say

What do you know about swans?

Read and choose

Swans

Swans are the largest water birds _____ the world. You often see wild swans on lakes or rivers. Most swans are white, but you can 1 _____ see black swans in some countries.

in of on

1 also next too

Swans look lovely but be careful if one 2 _____ really near to you. If a swan suddenly 3 _____ frightened, it will try to fly away and might hurt you. Swans have really strong wings!

2 comes coming came

3 feel feeling feels

Read and choose

Swans

Swans are the largest water birds in the world. You often see wild swans on lakes or rivers. Most swans are white, but you can 1 also see black swans in some countries.

Swans look lovely but be careful if one 2 comes really near to you. If a swan suddenly 3 feels frightened, it will try to fly away and might hurt you. Swans have really strong wings!

in of on

1 also next too

2 comes coming came

3 feel feeling feels

Read and choose

Their necks are 4 _____ than any other birds' necks because they use them to help find food in the water. In a river 5 _____ are lots of plants and insects for swans to eat!

Swans live together in pairs or families. Young swans don't usually leave their parents 6 _____ the next new babies join the family.

4 longest longer long

5 here then there

6 during before by

Read and choose

Their necks are 4 longer than any other birds' necks because they use them to help find food in the water. In a river 5 there are lots of plants and insects for swans to eat!

Swans live together in pairs or families. Young swans don't usually leave their parents 6 before the next new babies join the family.

4 longest longer long

5 here then there

6 during before by

Read and choose

Some swans don't like winter weather so when it starts getting colder, 7 _____ wonderful birds begin the long journey 8 _____ warmer environments.

Wild swans usually live for about twenty years but swans 9 _____ live in places like zoos 10 _____ live for fifty years!

7 this all these

8 on to at

9 which what who

10 can would must

Read and choose

Some swans don't like winter weather so when it starts getting colder, 7 these wonderful birds begin the long journey 8 to warmer environments.

Wild swans usually live for about twenty years but swans 9 which live in places like zoos 10 can live for fifty years!

7 this all these
8 on to at

9 which what who
10 can would must

02

Practice

Read and say

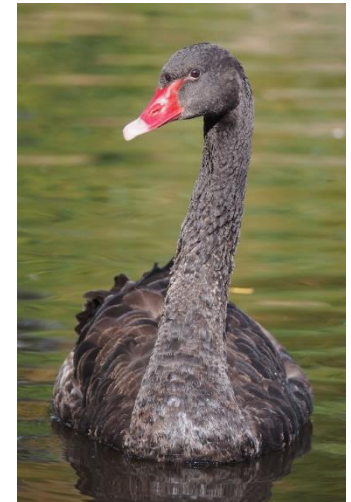

Swans

Swans are the largest water birds in the world. You often see wild swans on lakes or rivers. Most swans are white, but you can also see black swans in some countries.

Swans look lovely but be careful if one comes really near to you. If a swan suddenly feels frightened, it will try to fly away and might hurt you. Swans have really strong wings!

Their necks are longer than any other birds' necks because they use them to help find food in the water. In a river there are lots of plants and insects for swans to eat!

Read and say

Swans live together in pairs or families. Young swans don't usually leave their parents before the next new babies join the family.

Some swans don't like winter weather so when it starts getting colder, these wonderful birds begin the long journey to warmer environments.

Wild swans usually live from about twenty years but swans which live in places like zoos can live for fifty years!

Grammar time

too and also

Most swans are white, but you can also see black swans in some countries. ✓

Most swans are white, but you can too see black swans in some countries. ✗

Grammar time

Sharks eat fish. Sharks too eat plants.

Bats eat insects. Bats eat fruit too.

03

Conclusion

Conclusion

In this lesson, you've learnt

Words

suddenly, frightened, fly away, hurt, environment
journey

Sentences

Swans look lovely but be careful if one comes really near to you. If a swan suddenly feels frightened, it will try to fly away and might hurt you.

Grammar

prepositions

See you next class!

