Let's talk!

Introduction

Pedro and Timmy are talking about
St. Patrick's Day.

Sam invited me to his St. Patrick's Day party tomorrow.
Will you go too?

Of course.
It's going to be great fun!

It seems like it. I saw on a poster lots of people wearing shamrocks and lots of green.

Yes. The shamrock is the national symbol of Ireland and it means good luck.

So, is St. Patrick's Day about celebrating the culture of Ireland?

Yes, but everyone
can celebrate it.
You don't need to be Irish.

I also saw on the poster lots of people had dressed up in fun costumes and were dancing in the street.

That's part of the celebration. Tomorrow you'll see many people parade up the avenue, dancing to traditional Irish music.

Grammar

Phrasal verb: dress up

"Dress up" means "to wear special clothes for fun".

e.g. Little girls usually love dressing up in their mothers' clothes.

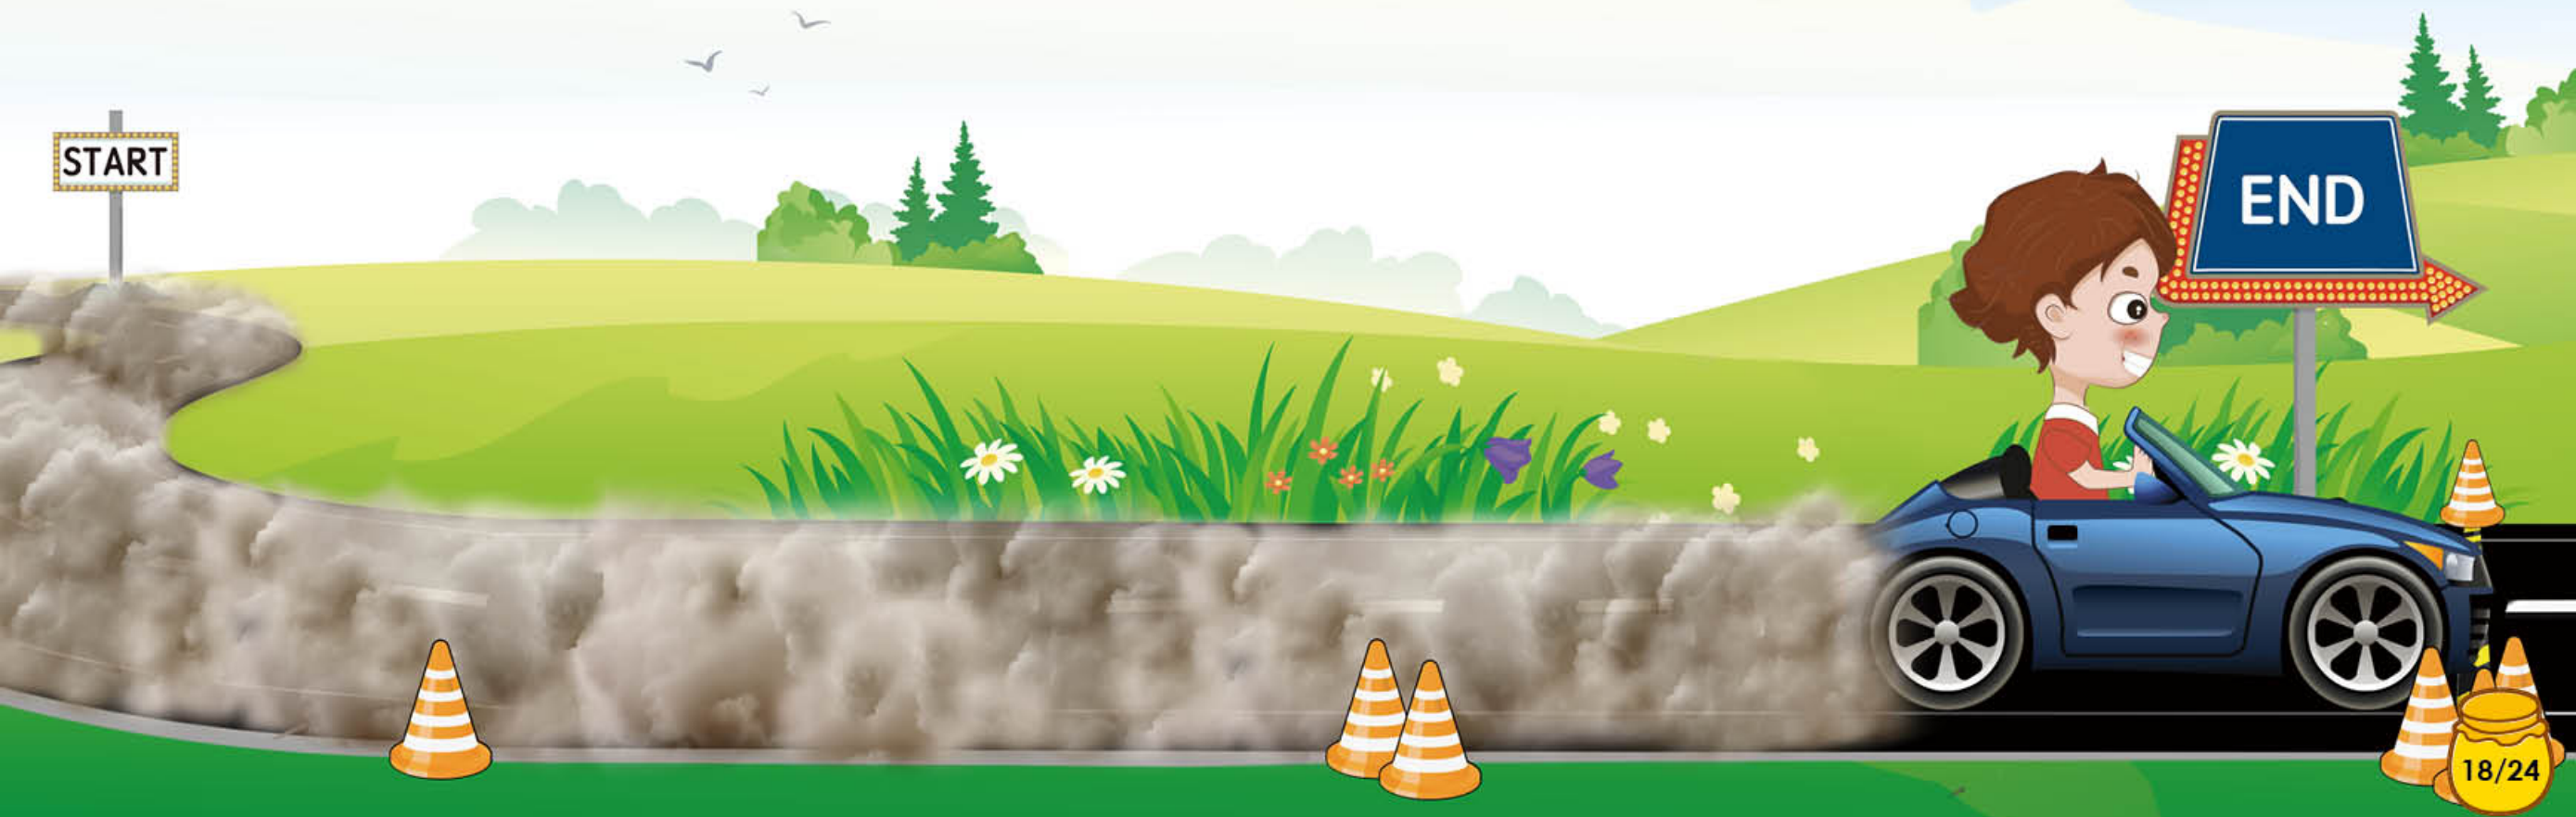

Wow. Sounds very fun! Should we also dress up in funny clothes tomorrow?

Sure! I'm going to dress up in my mom's green dress!
