Who can you see?

Where is he?

What is he doing?

Why is he in hospital?

How did he break his leg?

Read and talk

Read the story and write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use no more than 4 words.

Last January, it didn't stop snowing. One day, Paul and his friends went sledging on a high hill. When Paul's sledge hit some stones, he fell and hurt his elbow and broke his leg! His friends were very worried and called Paul's parents. His father came to help and an ambulance took Paul to the hospital.

1. Snow fell last January.
2. Oliver hurt his elbow and leg when he was sledging on a high hill with his friends.

Read and talk

Paul had to stay in hospital for a few days. He didn't have to go to school or do any homework. He just laid in bed in his pajamas, and listened to rock music, played chess on his phone and watched his favorite basketball team on TV. But after two days, Paul began to feel quite bored and a little unhappy.

3. Paul was sent to the hospital in an ambulance.

4. Paul had his phone in the hospital, so he could play chess on it.

Read and talk

But, on the third morning, Paul's two best friends came and one gave Paul a present - a pair of really cool basketball boots! 'You can borrow my laptop while you're here,' the other friend said.

That afternoon, Paul had another surprise. His teacher appeared! She brought something for Paul as well, but it was some math homework! 'I'm sorry about your poor leg, Paul,' she said, 'but make sure you do this before you come back to school in February!'

5. One of the best friend gave Paul basketball boots and the other brought Paul a laptop as well.

6. On the same day, Paul's teacher gave him some math homework to do as well!
