

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Eyes on me.

Thumbs Up

You are going to learn:

Topic: Communication —
Thumbs up

Words: thumbs up, autograph,
thumbs down, offer

Sentence patterns: ... give... a thumbs up/down.

Warm-up

Out of all the birthday presents you have received, which one did you like the most? Why?

Let's prepare!

Vocabulary

He gives a big thumbs up to this idea.

thumbs up

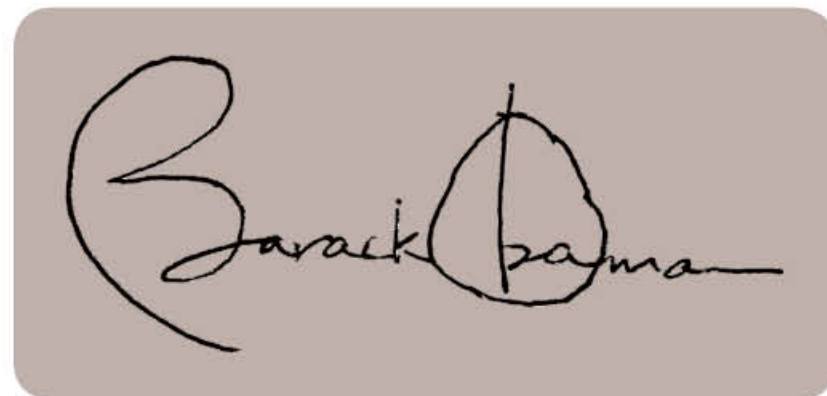

Which picture shows a thumbs up?

Vocabulary

This is Barack
Obama's autograph.

au·to·graph

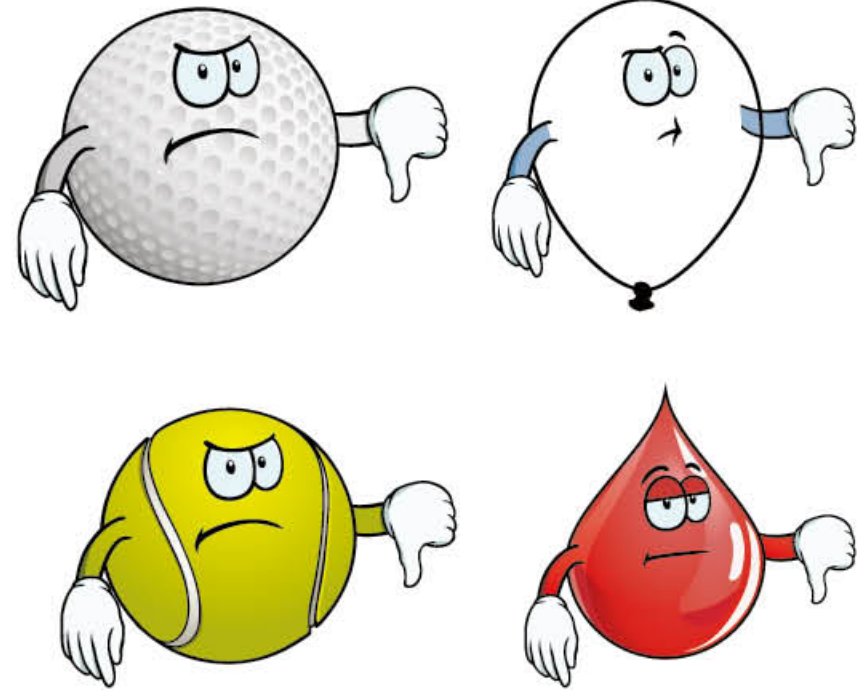

Which famous person's autograph
would you like to have?

Vocabulary

They all give a thumbs down to that player.

thumbs down

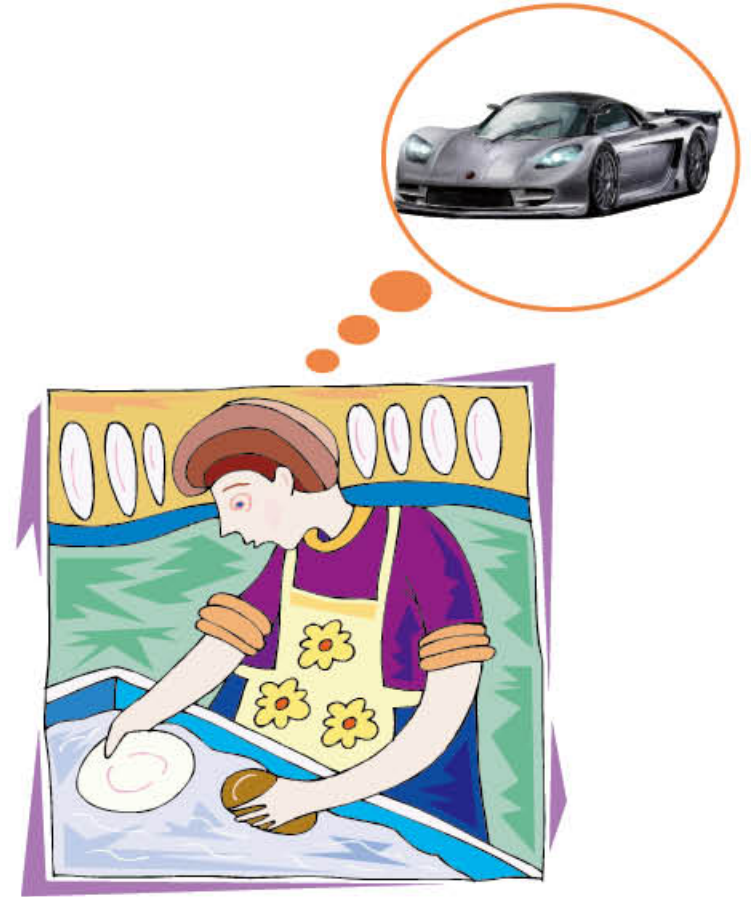

Which picture shows a thumbs down?

Vocabulary

Dad says he would do all the chores if Mom agrees to buy a new car. That's an offer Mom can't refuse.

of·fer

What's Dad's offer?

Let's read !

Sam's birthday is coming. Timmy, Cindy, Jack and Anna are chatting about the presents they want to give Sam at his birthday party.

What are they chatting about?

Cindy and Anna will bake a cake by themselves. They just learned it in their baking class.

“The cake will look just like a soccer ball and taste really good!” says Anna.

That sounds like a good idea to everyone, so they all give it a thumbs up.

What do the other children think of Cindy and Anna's present?

Jack has got something really special to give to Sam – a photo of Messi with his autograph on it!

“I’m not a big fan of soccer, you know. So I think it’s best to give it to Sam. He would love it!”

Sure he would! Everybody gives Jack’s idea a double thumbs up.

What present will Jack give to Sam?

Timmy feels a little bit upset, because now he doesn't like his old plan of buying Sam a sports watch. Timmy says to himself: "A sports watch is not special enough. Now I give that idea a thumbs down!"

"What's on your mind, Timmy? Why are you being so quiet?" asks Cindy.

Why does Timmy give his old plan a thumbs down?

“Aha! I’ll ask Jimmy and his band to give a performance at Sam’s birthday party.” says Timmy.

“Cool!” everybody shouts. They all give it a big thumbs up.

What present will Timmy give to Sam?

“But how are you going to persuade Jimmy?” Cindy asks.

“Well, I will make him an offer he can't refuse. Believe me. I'll make Jimmy say yes!”

Timmy seems really confident and the others give him a double thumbs up.

What do you think Timmy's offer is?

Let's practice!

Activity

Match the pictures with the words and make sentences.

thumbs down

thumbs up

offer

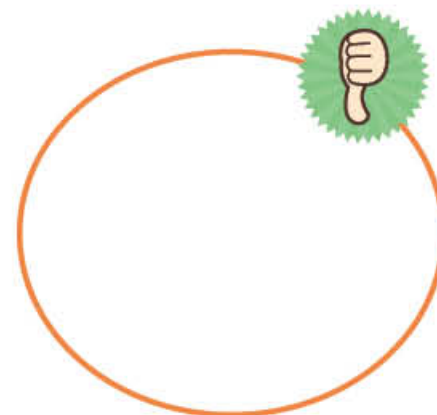

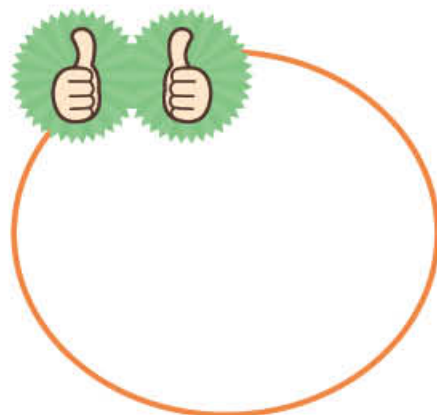

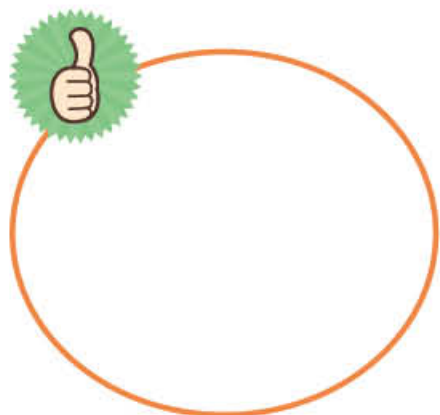

autograph

Timmy gives Cindy and Anna's idea a thumbs up.

Activity

Put the ideas into the correct circles.

Which idea would you give a double thumbs up?

Activity

Talk to the teacher.

What presents will Sam get at his birthday party? What do you think of his friends' ideas?

Empty speech bubble for student response.

Hints:

soccer ball cake autograph
performance thumbs up/down

Writing Preparation

Prepare for your writing by answering the questions.

What present does Jack want to give Sam at his birthday party?
What do you think of his idea?

Blank area for writing the answer.

Hints:

autograph give a thumbs up

Writing Project

Write a passage about what you think of Jack's present.

Hints:

autograph give a thumbs up

Today I learned:

Topic

Communication —
Thumbs up

Words

-  thumbs up
-  autograph
-  thumbs down
-  offer

Sentence Patterns

 Everybody gives Jack's idea a
double thumbs up.

 Now I give that idea a thumbs
down!

SEE YOU SOON!

51

TALK

