Let's read!

Hello, Michael.

Let me tell you about my trip to the car museum.

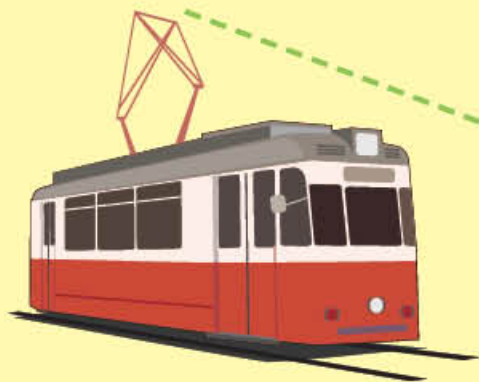

I saw the world's smallest car. It's only 138 centimeters long, about three times smaller than a normal car! It's also only 120 centimeters in height, which is even shorter than us!

What's the length and height of the world's smallest car?

I also saw some really tiny electric cars. They are cheaper than normal cars.

electric

This is an electric bus.

What are the advantages of tiny electric cars?

Then I saw some of the biggest cars – like the limousine. They are longer than three cars put together! You could run around inside them!

What's the length of the limousine? What can you do in it?

And the big monster trucks! Wow! They are really huge! They are much larger than my parents' car! The wheels are the biggest that I have ever seen – even taller than us! Imagine that!

wheel

Why are they called “monster trucks”?

Hey, maybe we can go
and see a monster truck
race when you next visit.

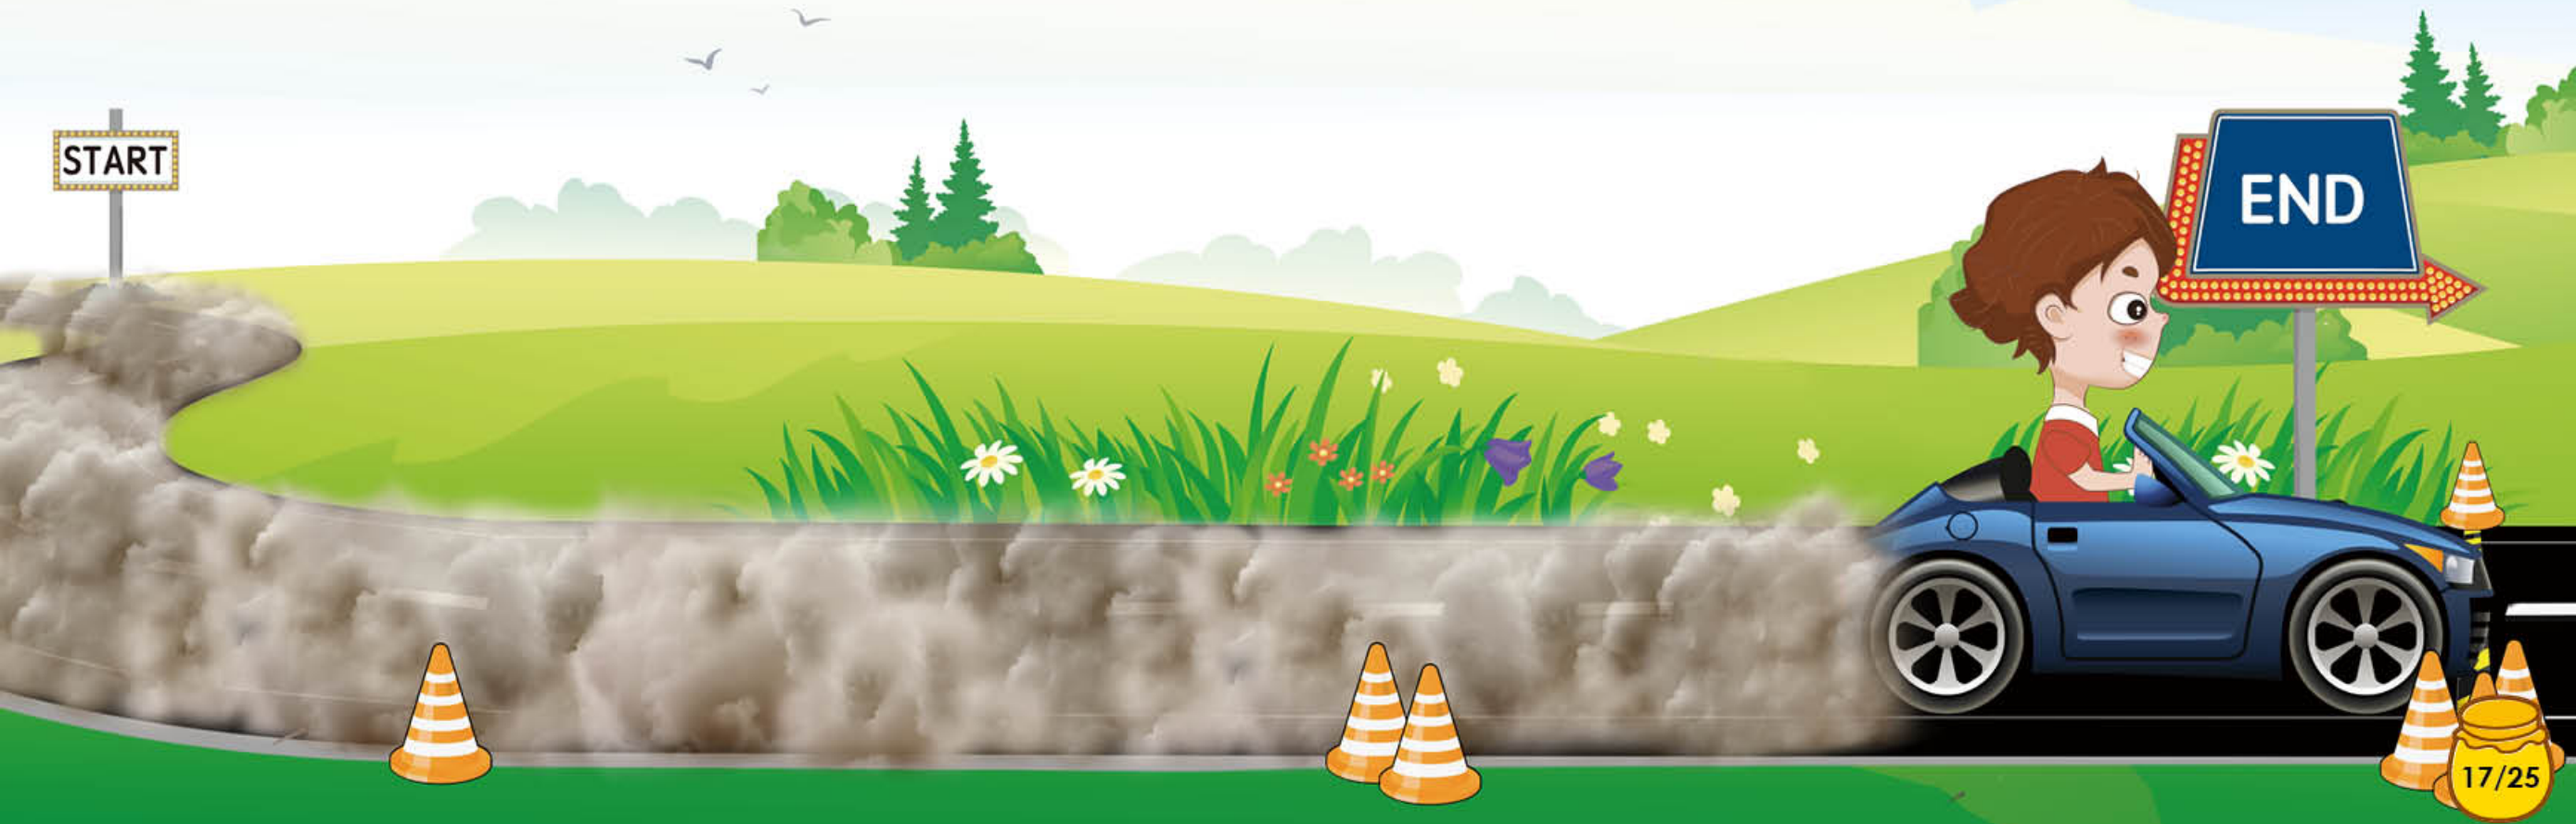

Speak to you soon.

Best wishes!
Timmy.
