CONVERSATION

Sam sees an advertisement on TV about a special sale at the local department store. He tells Timmy about it.

Timmy! Have you seen the new advertisement on TV? They have a special sale at the department store. I want to check what items are on sale.

I haven't seen it, but I want to check what's on sale, too! Why don't we go to the department store together?

What do Timmy and Sam want to do?

An illustration of two young boys standing on a sidewalk in front of a house. The boy on the left has blonde hair and is wearing an orange shirt and dark shorts. The boy on the right has brown hair and is wearing a red shirt and dark shorts. They are both smiling and looking at each other. In the background, there is a house with a red roof and yellow walls, a green bush, a green lawn, and a grey trash can.

Let's go! I hope the sale includes our favorite soccer team's shirts.

Me, too. Jimmy bought one last month, and he said soccer shirts are a bit expensive.

What did Timmy say about Jimmy?

SALE

Look, Timmy, they're on sale!
We can get two shirts for only fifteen dollars!

That's great! Let's get one each and divide
the price between us.

2 for $15

How much are the shirts Timmy and Sam want?

That sounds good! What do you think about buying caps, too? I think we have enough money for them since caps are also on sale.

That's a good idea! But let's try the shirts on first and see if they fit.

What did Sam suggest they do with their extra money?
