

Dear teachers, please do not teach this page.

亲爱的小朋友们，此页是为老师准备的教学目标页。

You are going to learn:

Topic: Our School Life – Timmy's Homework Is Gone!

Key words: believe, truth, lying, excuse

Grammar: Subject complement (III)

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Look at me.

TIMMY'S HOMEWORK IS GONE!

Classic English Junior Level 4 - Unit 2 - Lesson 7

CONVERSATION

WARM-UP

When do you usually do your homework?

• LET'S PREPARE! •

VOCABULARY

be·lieve

To think that something is true,
or that what someone says is true.

The girl believes that there is life
on other planets.

The girl thinks it's ... that there
is life on other planets.

- ☐ true
- ☐ not true

Do you also believe that there is life on other planets?

VOCABULARY

truth

The real facts about a situation, event, or person.

Mark didn't tell his mom the truth about his last test.

Circle the correct answer.

We should always tell our parents _____.

- a. the truth
- b. lies

How can you tell if someone is telling you the truth?

VOCABULARY

ly·ing

Saying or writing something that isn't true.

Peter is lying to Sam.

What Peter said is ...
what he means.

- ☐ different from
- ☐ the same as

Why is it not OK to tell a lie?

VOCABULARY

ex·cuse

A reason given to make someone's bad behavior seem less bad.

Timmy wants to play and not go to school.
As an excuse, he said he was sick.

Draw a line under the excuse.

Cindy did not clean her room. She said she worked on her school project.

Why is it not good to give excuses?

GRAMMAR

Subject complements describe or give more information about the subject of a sentence.

Subject + linking verb + subject complement

Jerry

is

my friend.

The subject complement "friend" gives more information about the subject "Jerry."

Only linking verbs connect the subjects to their subject complements.

Subject + linking verb + subject complement

Jane

looks

happy.

Complete the sentences with a subject complement.

My clothes are ...
Chocolates taste ...

• LET'S TALK! •

CONVERSATION

Timmy didn't turn in his homework. Miss Jill asks Timmy why.

Timmy, did you forget
your homework?

I'm sorry, Miss Jill. I finished
my homework yesterday,
but it is gone!

It's gone? What happened?

I left my homework on my desk and then went out. After I came back, it was gone!

I don't believe you are telling me the truth.

It is true, Miss Jill!
I am not lying!

But how did your homework just go by itself?

Um ... Well ... I think it was my dog, Fuzzy. I saw him chewing my stuff several times.

OK. But it's still just an excuse.

I know, sorry. I will do the homework on my lunch break.

• LET'S PRACTICE! •

ACTIVITY

Complete the passage with the correct words.

Mom asked Dina to go to the supermarket with her. Dina said that she needed to finish her homework. That was her excuse. Mom _____ Dina. She went to the supermarket by herself. Mom didn't know that Dina was _____. The _____ is, Dina didn't need to finish her homework. Dina stayed home because she wanted to play video games.

HINTS

lying excuse truth believed

Why do you think it isn't good to make excuses?

ACTIVITY

Which sentences have subject complements?

1. Ice cream tastes great.
2. Joe borrowed Jenny's favorite book.
3. My new dress is pink.
4. She looks very tired after work.
5. Timmy likes his English teacher a lot.
6. Tom takes the bus to school.

ACTIVITY

Look at the pictures. Tell a story using the words below.

HINTS

library

believe

lying playing

ACTIVITY

Look at the pictures. Continue to tell the story using the words below.

HINTS
truth excuse sad

Today I learned:

KEY WORDS

believe

truth

lying

excuse

GRAMMAR

Subject complement (III)

It is true, Miss Jill!

SEE YOU SOON!

51Talk