Let's read!

Rabbit was going to the park to play games with Mouse when he spied something shiny by his steps. It was a big silver coin. "I'm so lucky!" said Rabbit as he picked up the treasure. Where could he hide it?

What did Rabbit find by his steps?

His garden was the perfect place. In a flash, Rabbit dug a hole next to his tomato plant. Rabbit carefully placed the coin in the hole and covered it again.

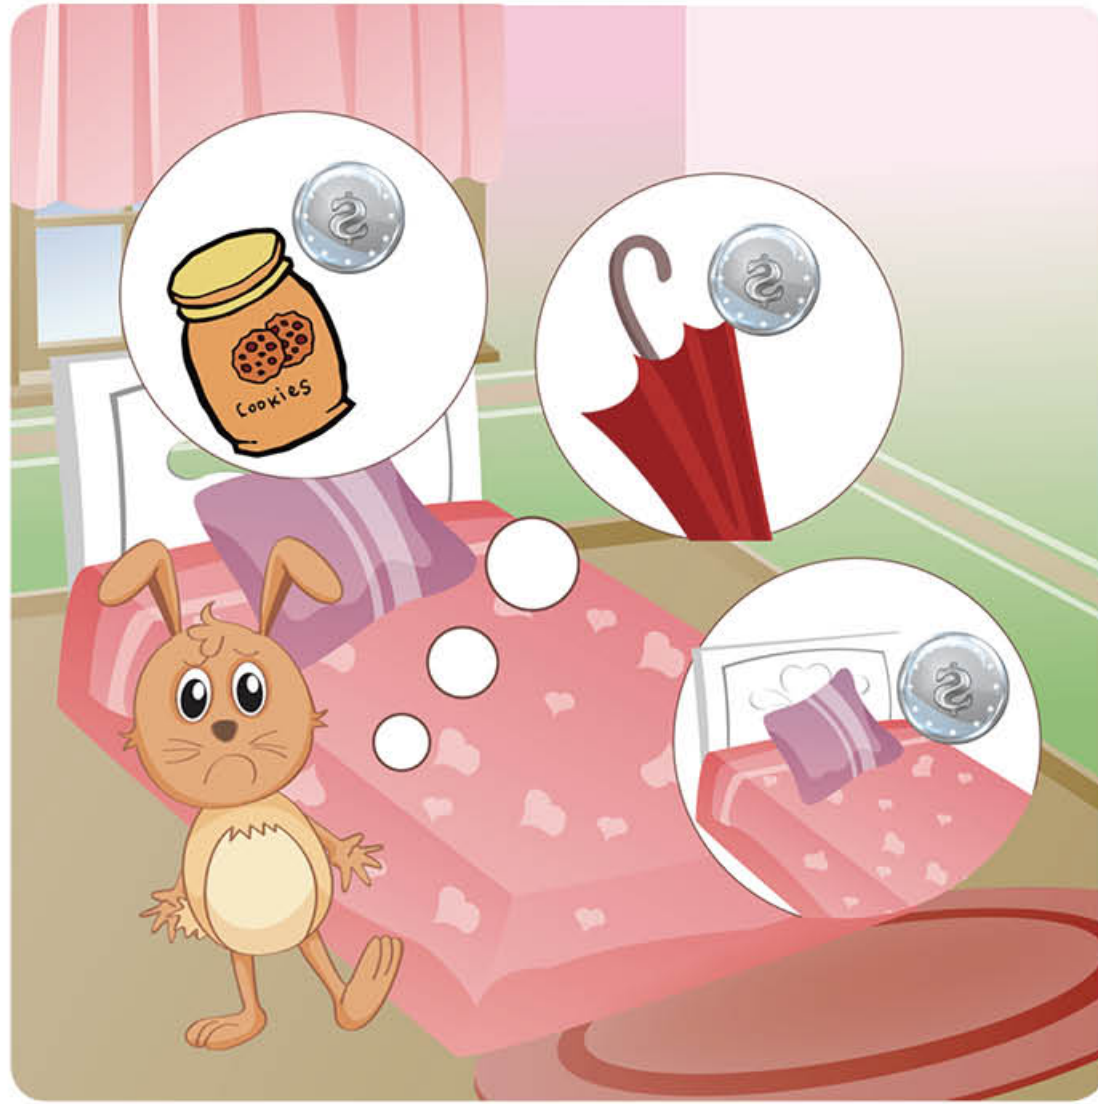

Where did Rabbit hide the coin?

Rabbit went inside to wash up. All at once, Rabbit's forehead wrinkled with worry. What if Mole dug a tunnel under his garden? Rabbit had to hide his treasure inside his house. Rabbit dashed outside to rescue his coin.

What did Rabbit worry about?

He hurried back inside and put the coin
in his cookie jar... inside his umbrella...
under his pillow...
No matter where Rabbit hid the coin, it didn't seem safe.

Where did Rabbit try to hide
the coin?

Then an idea popped into his head. Rabbit grabbed his coin and skipped down the path to the park.

If you were Rabbit, where would you hide the coin?

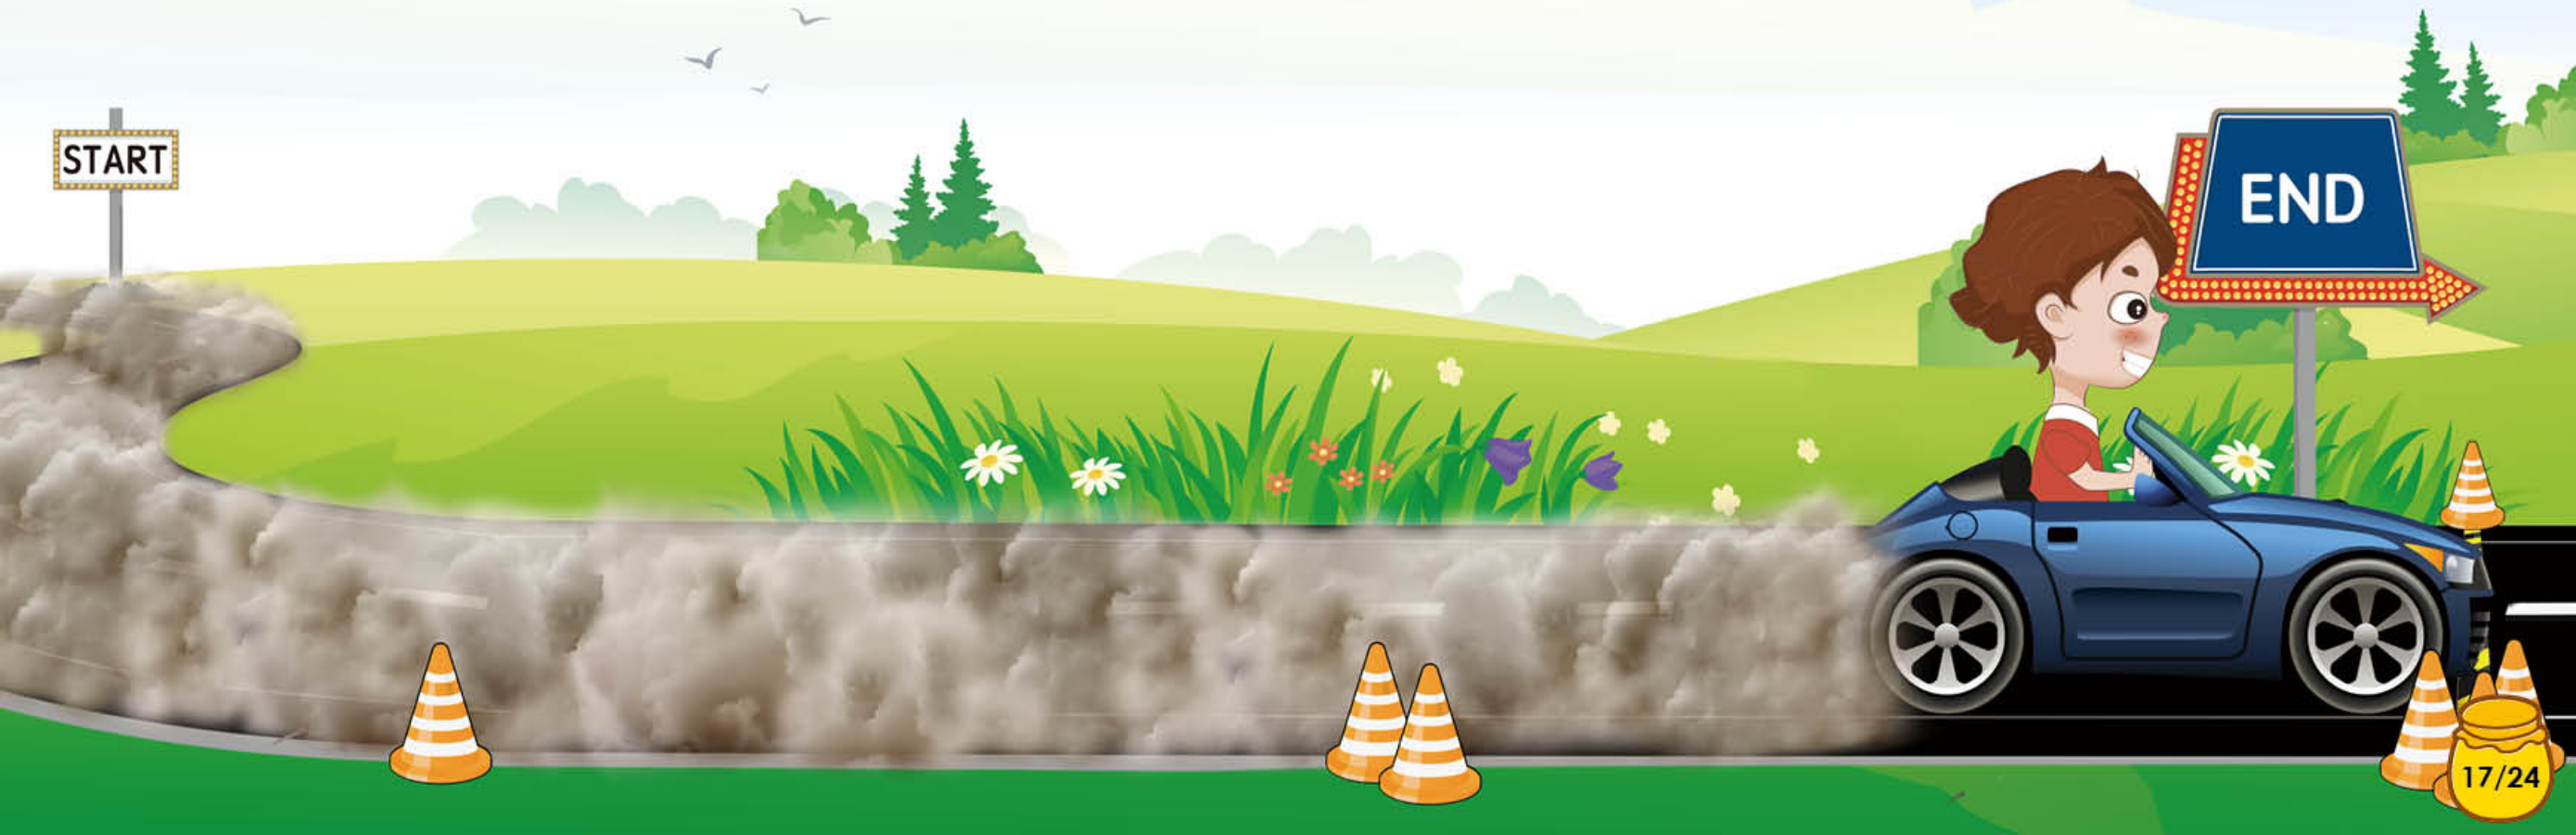

Clink! Rabbit put his coin into a slot in the machine. Click! He pushed a button. Plunk! A fat bag fell down. It was full of peanuts. Then Rabbit opened the bag and shared the snack with his friend.

What did Rabbit do with the coin?
