Timmy is at a ski resort with his family and he wants to snowboard.

Conversation

03:00

Role play the conversation.

Good morning, do you know where I can rent a snowboard and ski suit?

You can do it here. Have you ever been snowboarding?

Um, no. Can I practice with a trainer first?

Of course, you can take lessons for beginners. Here you'll learn the basics.

What can Timmy learn from the beginners' lessons?

Conversation

03:00

Role play the conversation.

Awesome. When is the lesson?

We have 2 lessons in the morning, but neither of them is for beginners. However, we do have one at 1:00 p.m. that is suitable for you. If you want to sign up, you can complete the form here.

All right. Is there anything else that I need to know?

Grammar

“Neither of” is used before people, things or places. You should use a singular verb (e.g. does, goes, wants) after it.

e.g.

1. Neither of us has a snowboard.
2. Neither of the helmets fits me.
3. Neither of the ski resorts opens on Mondays.

When can Timmy take the lesson?

Conversation

03:00

Role play the conversation.

After your lesson, you need to first stay in the beginners' section. It's safer for you as well as for the other snowboarders.

OK. Is that all?

Well, you must wear a helmet to keep you safe. And you should wear sunscreen and lip balm. The sun can be very strong.

Great, I will make sure to do everything you have said. Thank you for your help!

What does Timmy need to do after his lesson?
And why?
