Read the story.

Hoard's Ship

It was four in the afternoon when Hoard went aboard. "Goodbye!" he yelled to Taylor, as the ship left from the shore.

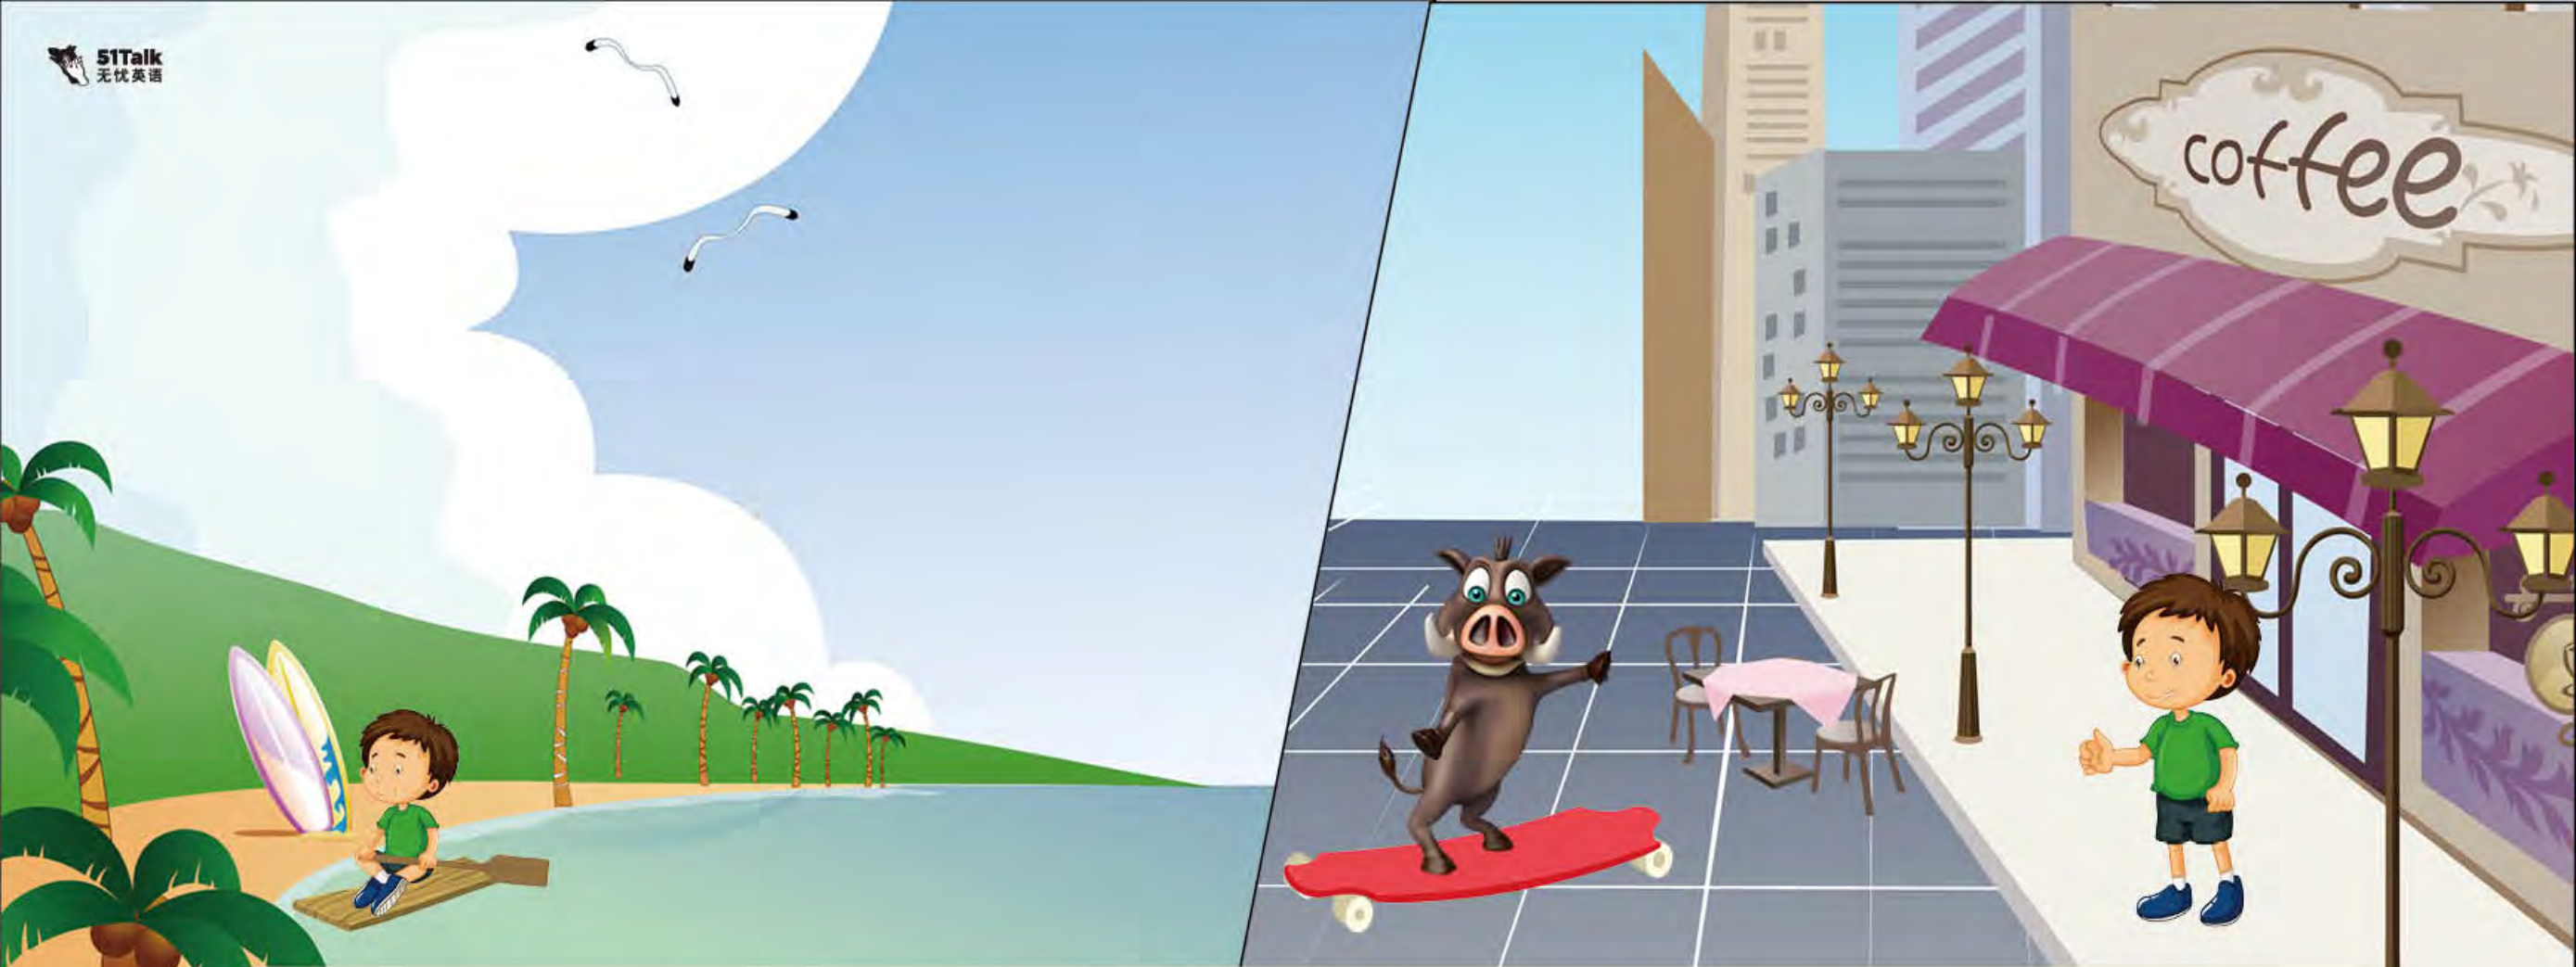

In the morning mist a storm began to form. Above Hoard's head black clouds began to soar and the wind began to roar.

Hoard's ship sank in the storm. He survived by floating on a board. In the afternoon he rowed with a wooden oar atop the board.

Soon he came ashore. There he saw surfboards.
On the street was a boar riding a skateboard.
“What a strange place!” said Hoard.
