

Dear teachers, please do not teach this page.

亲爱的小朋友们，此页是为老师准备的教学目标页。

You are going to learn:

Topic: Our School Life - Timmy's Math Test

Key words: score, directions, turn in, stare

Grammar: Subject complement (I)

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Look at me.

TIMMY'S MATH TEST

Classic English Junior Level 4 - Unit 2 - Lesson 5

CONVERSATION

WARM-UP

Say this rhyme with your teacher.

One plus one.
Math is fun.
Two minus two.
It's useful, too.

Three times three.
Please count with me.
Four divided by four.
Let's learn some more!

• LET'S PREPARE! •

VOCABULARY

score

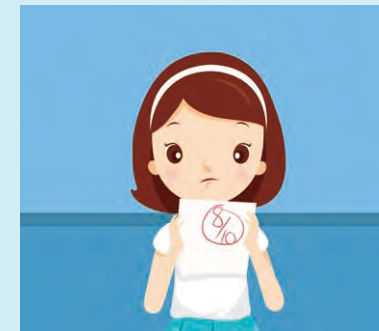

The number of points someone gets in a game or test.

Amy's test score was high. She answered almost all of the questions correctly.

This test has ten questions.
Amy answered two questions incorrectly.

What is Amy's score?

What do your parents do when you get a high score on a test?

VOCABULARY

di·rec·tions

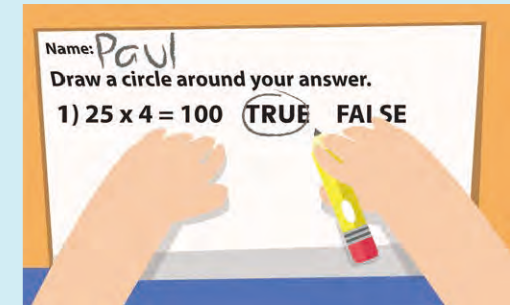

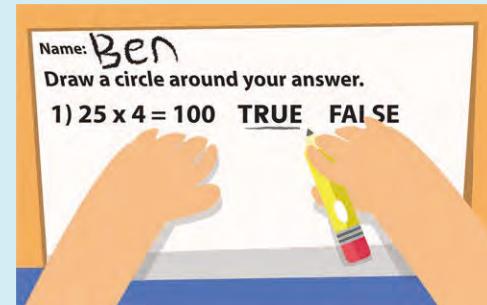

Tells you how to get to a particular place or how to do something.

You should read the directions carefully before you begin the test.

The directions say that you should draw a circle around your answer.

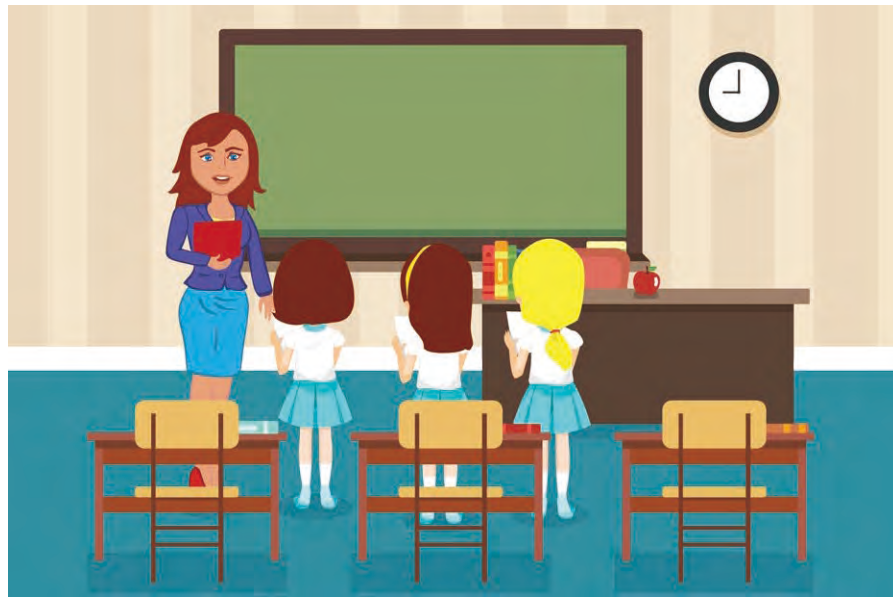

Which of these students is following the directions?

What happens if you don't follow the directions on a test?

VOCABULARY

turn in

To give something to a person who will review or accept it.

The students must turn in their homework by 9:00 a.m.

Timmy has to turn in his test paper to his ...

- ☐ best friend
- ☐ younger sister
- ☐ teacher

What other things do you turn in to your teacher?

VOCABULARY

stare

To look at someone or something for a long time and not move your eyes.

They stared at the sleeping lions.

The _____ is staring at the _____.

What things do you like to stare at?

GRAMMAR

Words or phrases that follow the link verb are called subject complements.

Some subject complements are nouns.

She

S is

+

Link verb

+

my teacher.

Noun as subject complement

GRAMMAR

Some subject complements are adjectives.

The cookie

S

tastes

+ Link verb good.

+ Adjective as subject complement

Use subject complements to talk about yourself.

I am a good student.

I feel ...

Circle the subject complements in these sentences.

Dad sounds angry.

My shoes are new.

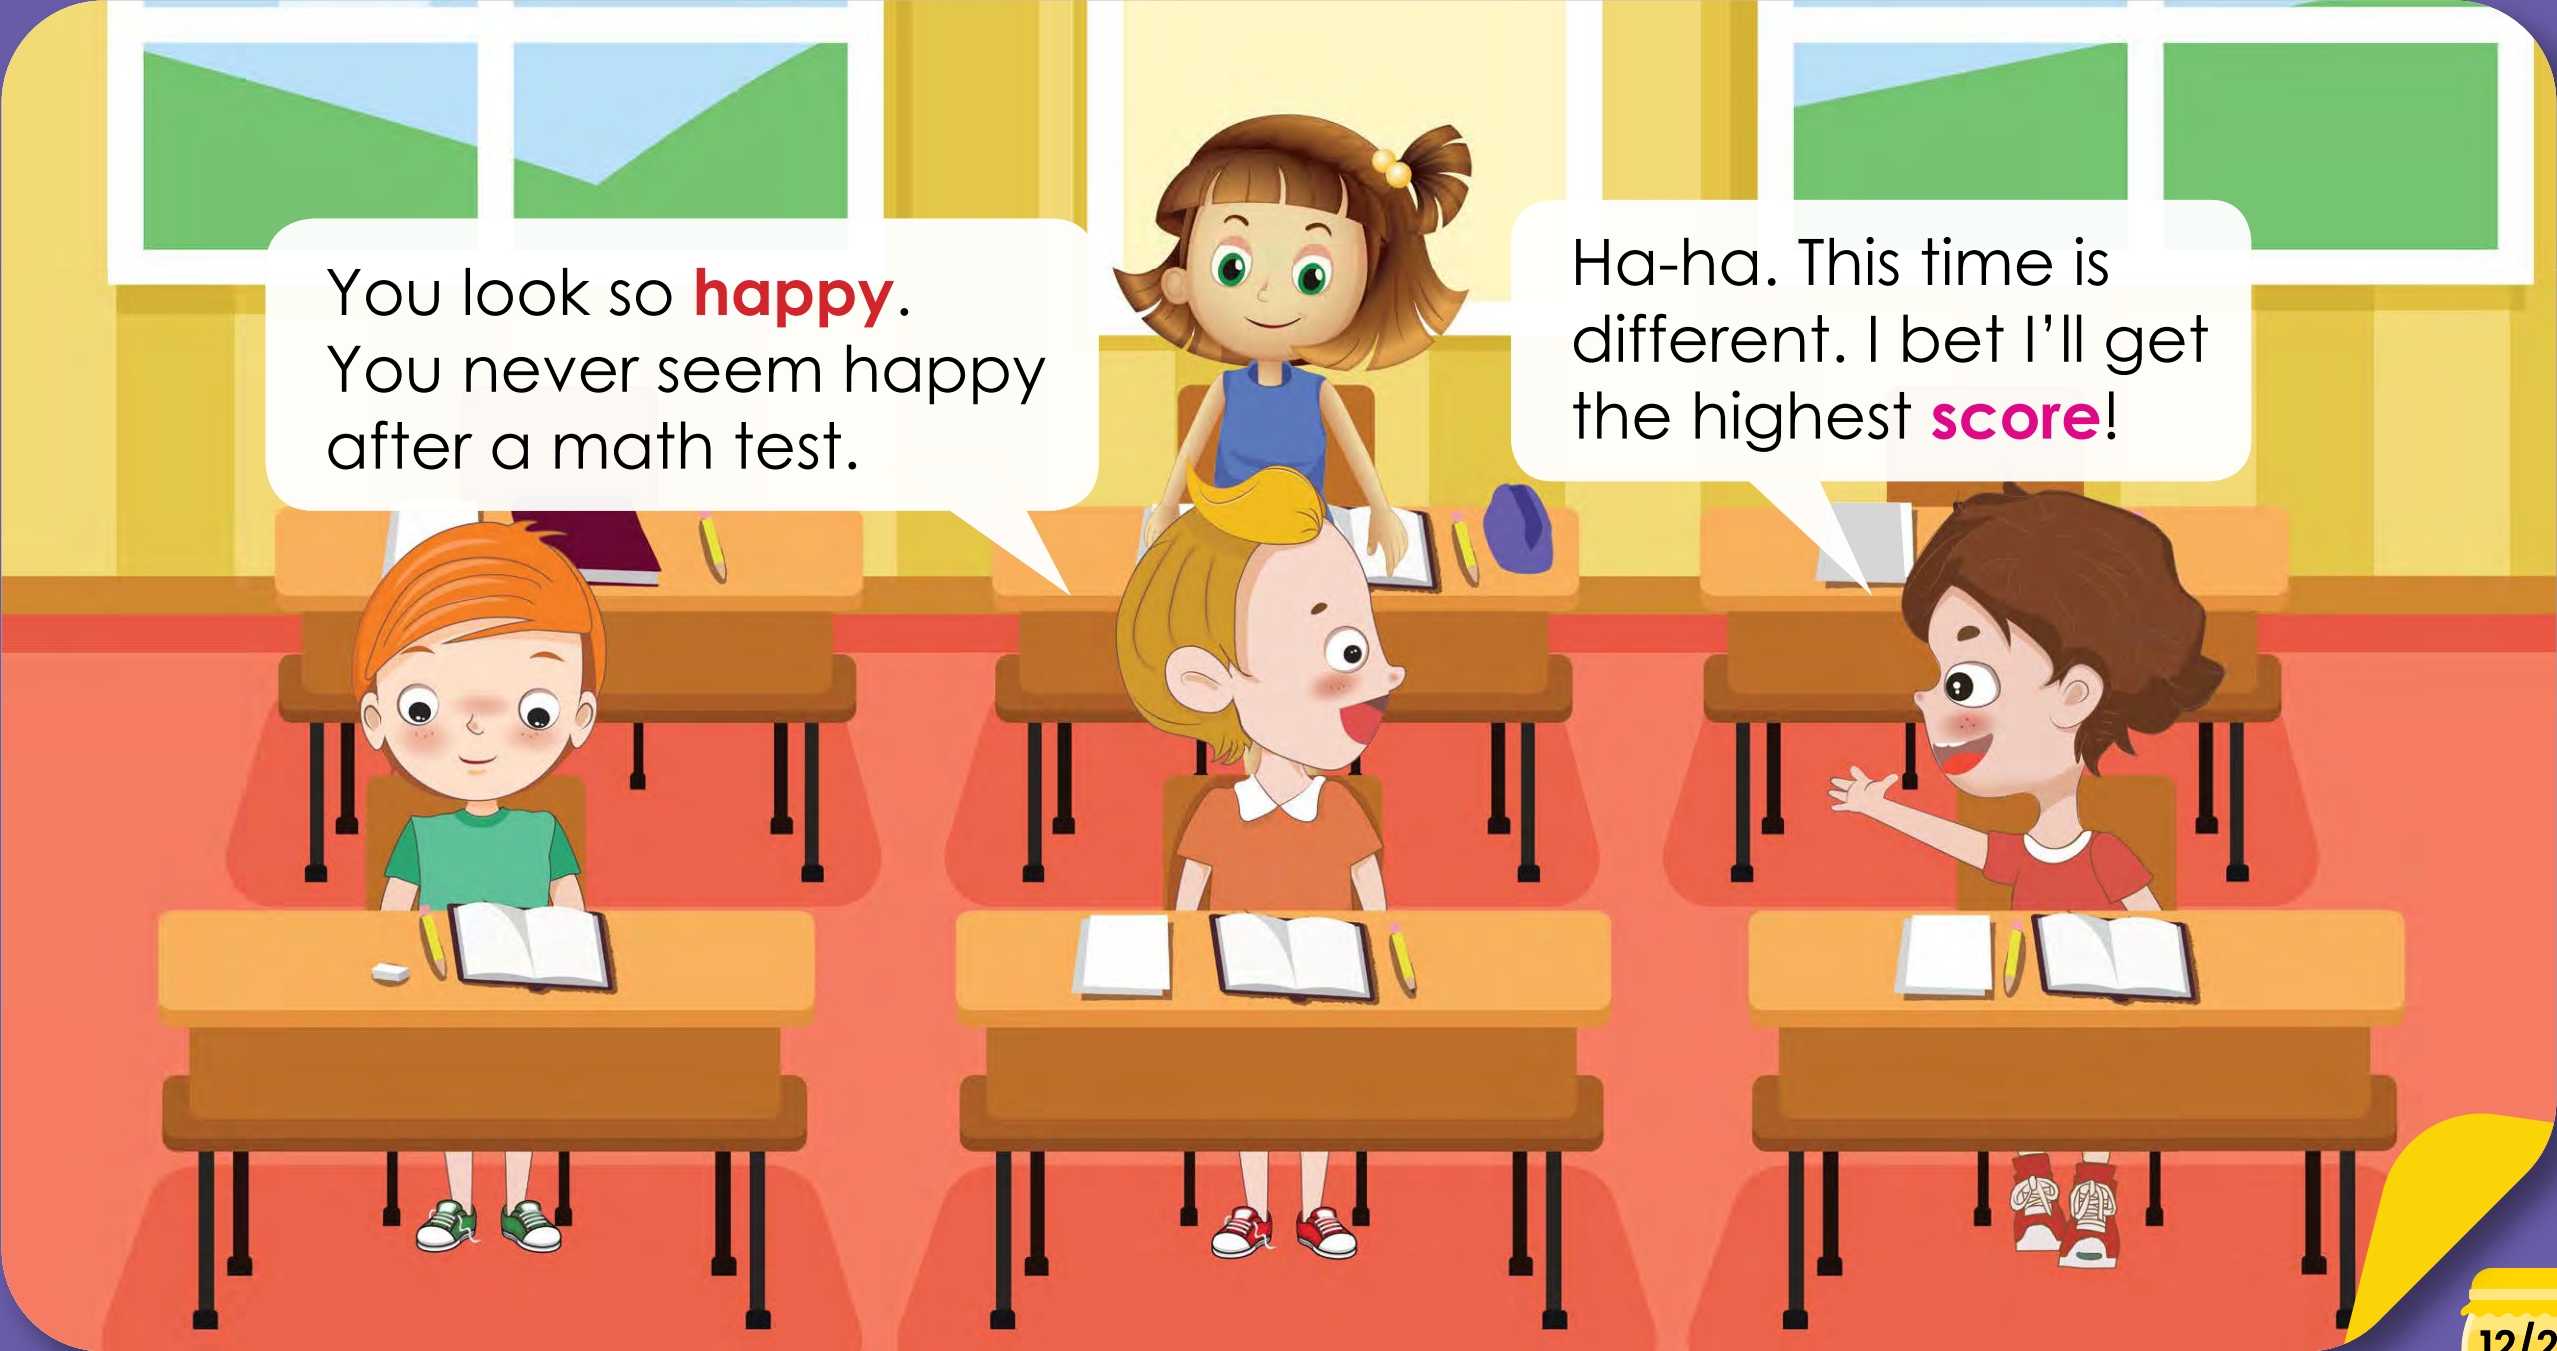

• LET'S TALK! •

CONVERSATION

Timmy and Sam are talking after a math test.

You look so happy.
You never seem happy
after a math test.

Ha-ha. This time is different. I bet I'll get the highest score!

How come? I just saw you staring at the test paper for a long time.

It was because I was so surprised! I dreamed about the same test paper last night!

What? So you already answered all the questions in your dream last night?

Yep! So I didn't even read the directions on the paper. I just wrote down the answers.

No wonder this time you were the first to turn in the test paper!

I wish I could have more dreams like last night!

• LET'S PRACTICE! •

ACTIVITY

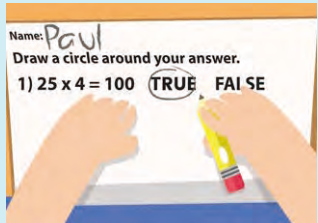

Complete the words below then read each sentence.

1. Our teacher told us to turn in our homework tomorrow.

2. The little boy st__ed at the new toys in the store.

3. The di__tions say that we need to put a circle around the right answer.

4. I got a high _ _ _re on my English test.

ACTIVITY

Give the subject complement to complete each sentence.

1. Timmy looks _____.

a. colorful

2. They are _____.

b. empty

3. The seat is _____.

c. classmates

4. Flowers are _____.

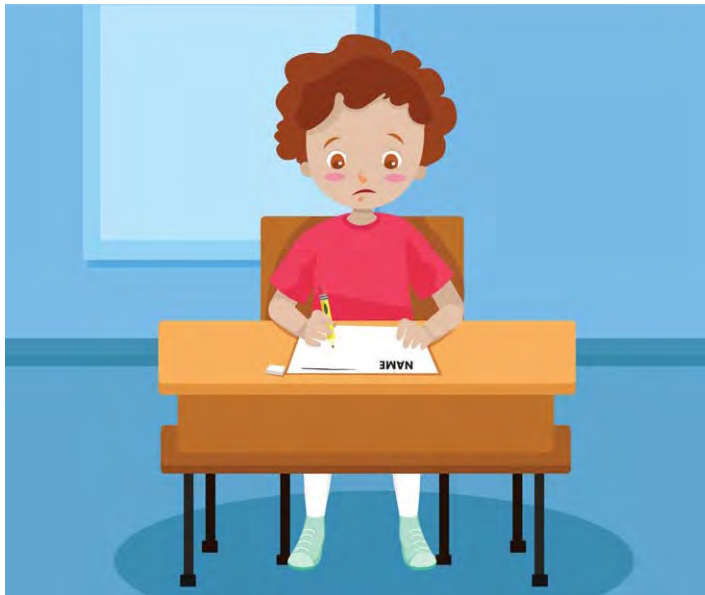

d. tired

ACTIVITY

Complete and role-play.

HINTS

a few test paper turn in stare

What did you think of our English test this morning?

I thought it was hard. I ...

Really? I thought it was easy.

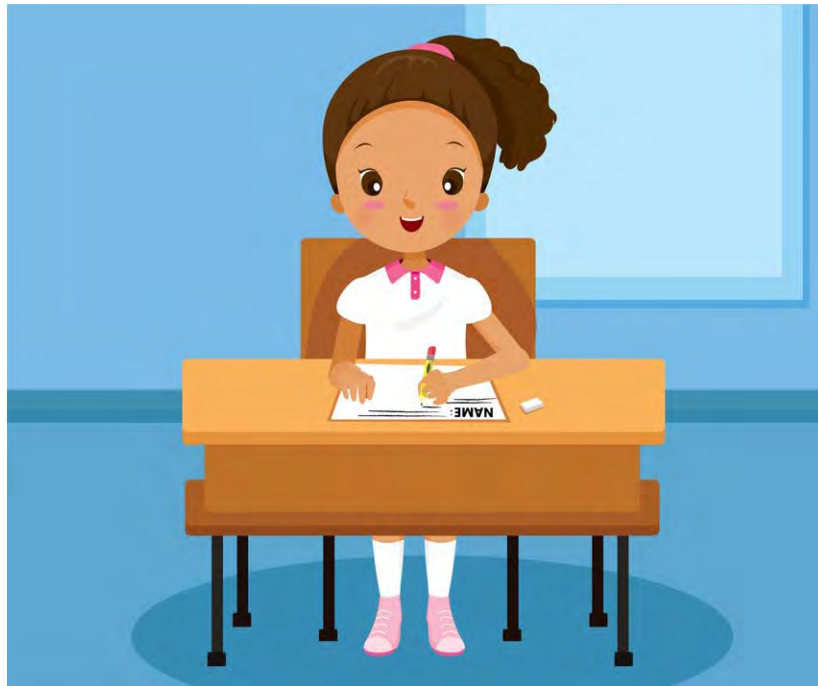

Yes, I noticed ...

ACTIVITY

HINTS

directions score follow

That's true, but there were also others who finished before me.

They're the smartest in our class. I'm sure ...

I just hope I ...

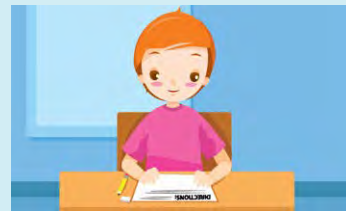

You always study hard. I'm sure you'll get a high score, too!

Today I learned:

KEY WORDS

score

directions

turn in stare

GRAMMAR

Subject complement (I)

You look so happy.

SEE YOU SOON!

51Talk