Main Idea

Main idea is what the story or article is mainly about. It could be the “big idea” of a whole work or a single paragraph.

When Tony was a teenager, he was into computer games. When it came time to choose a college, he chose one where he could learn computer science. After studying all about computer hardware and software, he began a career as a computer game tester.

Sometimes the author states the main idea directly. More often, we have to make inferences or reasonable guesses about it.

Main Idea: Tony turned his hobby into a career.

Intensive Reading-Comprehension

Read and choose the correct picture for the key word.

How much do you know about uncommon jobs? Today, I will introduce three people and what they do for a living.

Susie

As human beings, we need to eat every day to obtain energy, but it is very hard to imagine that someone gets to eat for a living.

food critic

someone whose job is to make judgments about the food

Intensive Reading-Comprehension

03:00

Read the passage and answer the question.

Susie is just one of these lucky individuals, because she is a food critic. Telling people about different aspects of food at restaurants is her work.

First, she takes pictures of everything she eats. Then, she tries the food to see if it tastes good. Finally, she writes a review about the restaurant, which includes the environment and service.

One thing Susie loves about her job is that she can eat lots of delicious food.

What is the main idea of these paragraphs?

- 1 Susie tries the food to see if it tastes good.
- 2 As a food critic, Susie tells people some different aspects of food at restaurants.
- 3 Susie takes pictures of everything she eats.

Read the passage and answer the question.

Tony works with a team of testers. All they need to do is to play computer games together and write bug reports. They have to find and fix all the bugs in the games before the games can be sold.

Tony loves his job, because he can play all the new games before anyone else!

What is the main idea of the first paragraph?
