Woman: Excuse me. I work here at the supermarket. Would you mind telling me what you've bought here today?

Man: No, that's fine.

Woman: Thanks. Can you tell me your name?

Man: It's Mr Jones. I'll tell you about Betty first. She's my daughter.

Woman: OK.

Man: She bought some nice scarves and gloves. She'll wear them a lot this winter.

Role-play

Man: Matt, my older son, came with us today as well.

Woman: Did he buy something, too?

Man: Yes. He chose a new pair of trainers. He bought them for his soccer match.

Woman: That's nice. What else did your family buy here today?

Man: Danny, my younger son, has a bike but it isn't big enough for him now. He never stops eating cookies!

Role-play

Woman: Me too!

Man: Well, we found him a new one and he thinks it's really cool!

Woman: And who's that older lady?

Man: Oh, Grandma Jones. She didn't want to buy anything today ...

Woman: Oh! She just likes to visit the store then?

Man: That's right. But then someone gave her your newest coffee to try.

Woman: It's good, isn't it?

Role-play

Man: Yes. So She bought some to take home.

Man: And my wife, Mrs Jones, came here to buy some fruits, but she thought they were quite expensive.

Woman: I'm sorry she thought that.

Man: It's OK. But she did find some cakes that she tried before and really liked ...

Woman: Was that all she bought, then?

Man: Yes.

Role-play

Woman: And what about you, Mr Jones? Did you buy anything?

Man: Well, I don't need an umbrella but I am looking at those. I decided to get one because I'm afraid it'll rain today.

Woman: Good. Well, thank you and I hope your family enjoys all their new things.
