Practice

Look and say

Read the dialogues between the brother and the sister.

This is a happy family: father, mother, Bob (brother) and Mary (sister).

Mary: Bob, Do you know what we are planning to do at the weekend?

Bob: No, I don't. I haven't heard mom and dad mention it.

Mary: Do you want to stay at home or go outside?

Bob: I would like to go outside. Why not play volleyball in the park this weekend? There is a new park near our home and we haven't gone there before.

Look and say

Mary: It is a good idea. What about flying kites in the park?
It has been a year since we flew kites.

Bob: We will take our lunch to the park and eat it on the grass.

Mary: Why not tell them our plan right now?

Bob: Let's go!

Look and say

Answer questions according to the dialogues you read.

1. Choose a picture: what will the family do at the weekend?

Tell stories

Look at the pictures and try to tell a story. Mary and Bob's father fell ill at the weekend so they choose to stay at home. Using these structures, try to tell a story.

"Would you like?

Why don't we?

Shall we?

Let's... We could...

What about?

How about?"
