Read and say

Read about Helen and John in the museum.

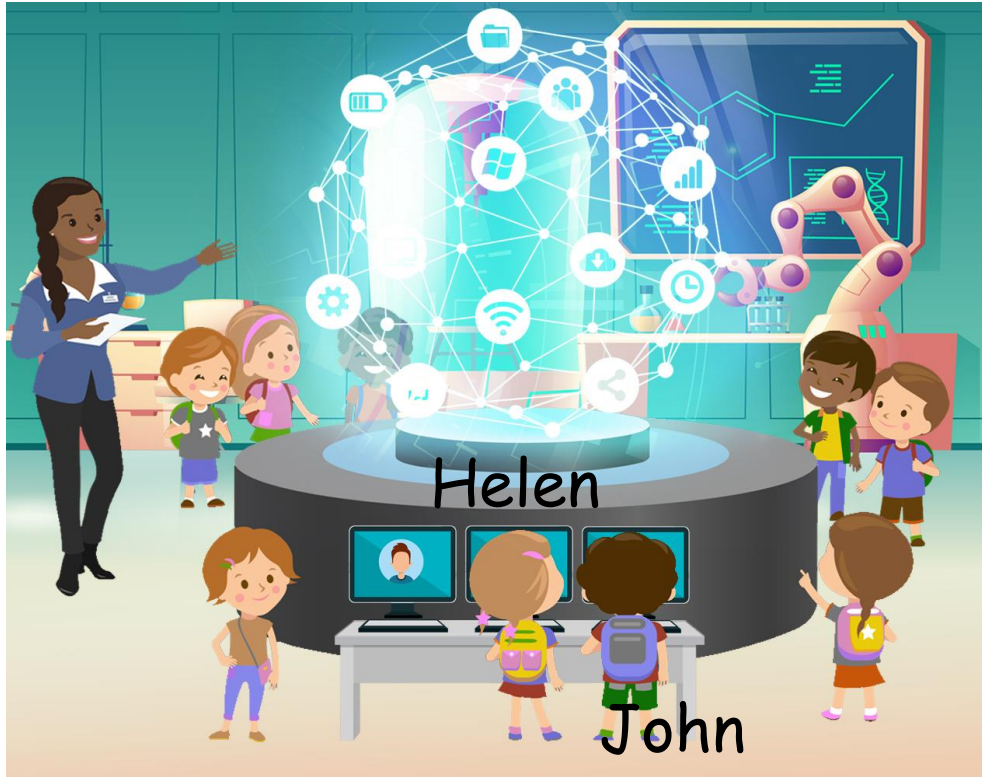

Helen and John are on their school trip. They're in a really interesting computer science museum. They're standing at a large table where there are three computers and lots of other things to look at. Helen and John are playing a science game on two of the computers. Their teacher is watching them. Helen and John aren't alone. Quite a lot of other children are in the same part of the museum. They're looking at something on the wall.

Read and say

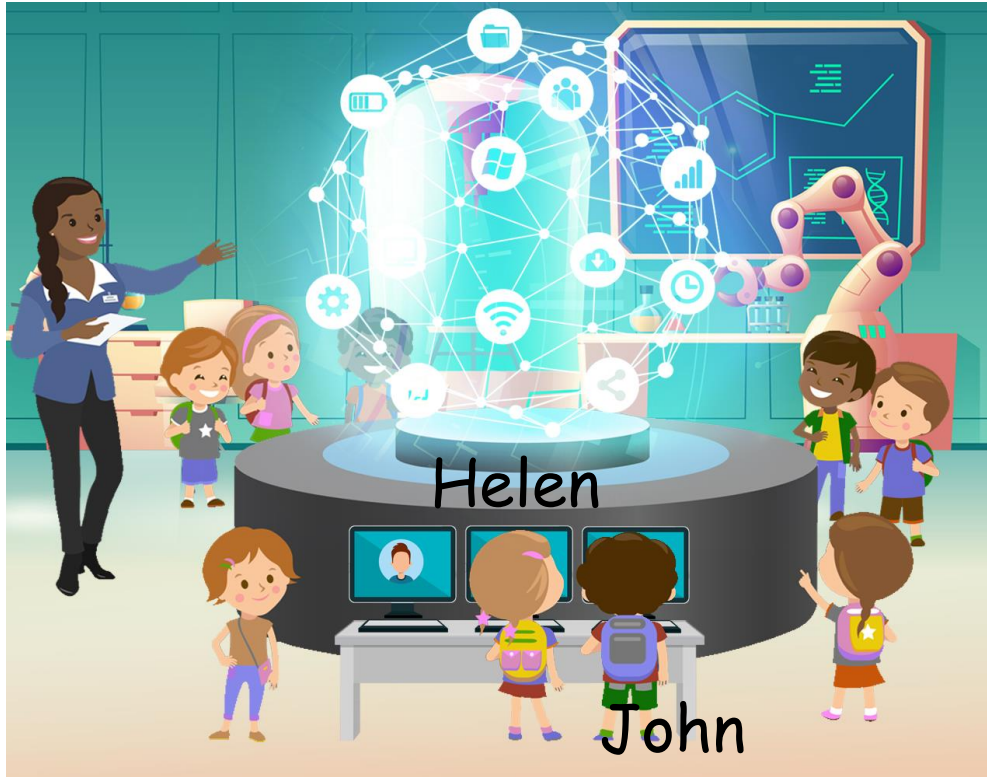

Look at the picture of Helen and John in the museum and answer the questions you hear.

1. Helen and John are on their school trip.

Role-play

Choose a role to play in this conversation.

Mrs Brown: Our class is going to the mountains next month. We'll be there for five days. I'm going to tell you ten things you need to bring with you. Write them in your books.

Bob: OK. What's the first thing, Mrs Brown?

Mrs Brown: You need to bring some soap.

Role-play

Bob: What? We have to take soap with us?

Mrs Brown: Yes. You need to wash your hands before you eat! And I want you to clean your teeth twice a day, morning and night, so don't forget your toothbrush. And on our last trip, some of you forgot to bring a comb. Please remember to bring one this time.

Bob: Alright.

Role-play

Mrs Brown: And don't forget to bring a flashlight so you can see at night.

Bob: A big flashlight or a small one?

Mrs Brown: It doesn't matter. You must bring a towel to dry yourselves with, too.

Bob: Just one towel?

Mrs Brown: Yes. Now, for the things you need to eat with. Bring a knife and a fork. Bring a spoon too.

Role-play

Bob: A knife, fork and spoon?

Mrs Brown: Yes, that's right. What else? Oh, yes. A plate.

Bob: Should we bring a bowl too?

Mrs Brown: No. Just a plate, please.

Bob: OK! What about my phone? Can I bring that?

Mrs Brown: Yes, but you should only use it if you need to send a message or speak to your parents, OK?

Look and talk

Did you have a school trip? Talk about it.
