A long time ago, before the Internet was invented, people had to go to stores to purchase the items that they wanted. Others, who didn't live near to any shops could get these things delivered to their home, however in the past, though, this took a really long time.

Grammar Focus

- Before means earlier than the time or event mentioned. It acts as a conjunction here. The conjunction "before" joins one clause to another.
- e.g. I always feed the dogs before I have dinner.
Before I have dinner, I always feed the dogs.
