Let's Talk!

Conversation

01:00

Conversation setting.

Timmy is talking to his dad in the living room.

Conversation

03:00

Role play the conversation.

Dad, I need your help. Sam is furious with me. He hasn't spoken to me since this morning!

My dear boy, you must feel terrible. Can you tell me what happened?

Our class is going to put on a play about "Adventures in Outer Space." Several of my classmates wanted to be the alien, even though only one person could be this character.

Grammar

1. Even though is used to introduce a statement that you accept as being true, which makes your main statement more surprising.

2. even though + subject + verb

e.g. Even though I was really tired, I couldn't sleep.

Choose the right answer.

They went out _____ it was raining heavily.

- A. because of
- B. even
- C. even though

Conversation

03:00

Role play the conversation.

Ah, they must consider the alien to be the coolest character.

Well, it sure is. I voted for Jack to be the alien instead of Sam, which made Sam very unhappy.

If I were Sam, I would be unhappy, too. After all, you are Sam's best friend!

That's true. We've been friends for six years.

What made Sam unhappy?

Conversation

03:00

Role play the conversation.

But I do believe you have your own reason, right?

Absolutely! Because Sam has always wanted to travel into outer space, so I thought the astronaut would be the perfect role for him!

I see, call and tell Sam your reason. I think he will understand.

What is the perfect role for Sam according to Timmy? Why?
