Let's talk!

Introduction

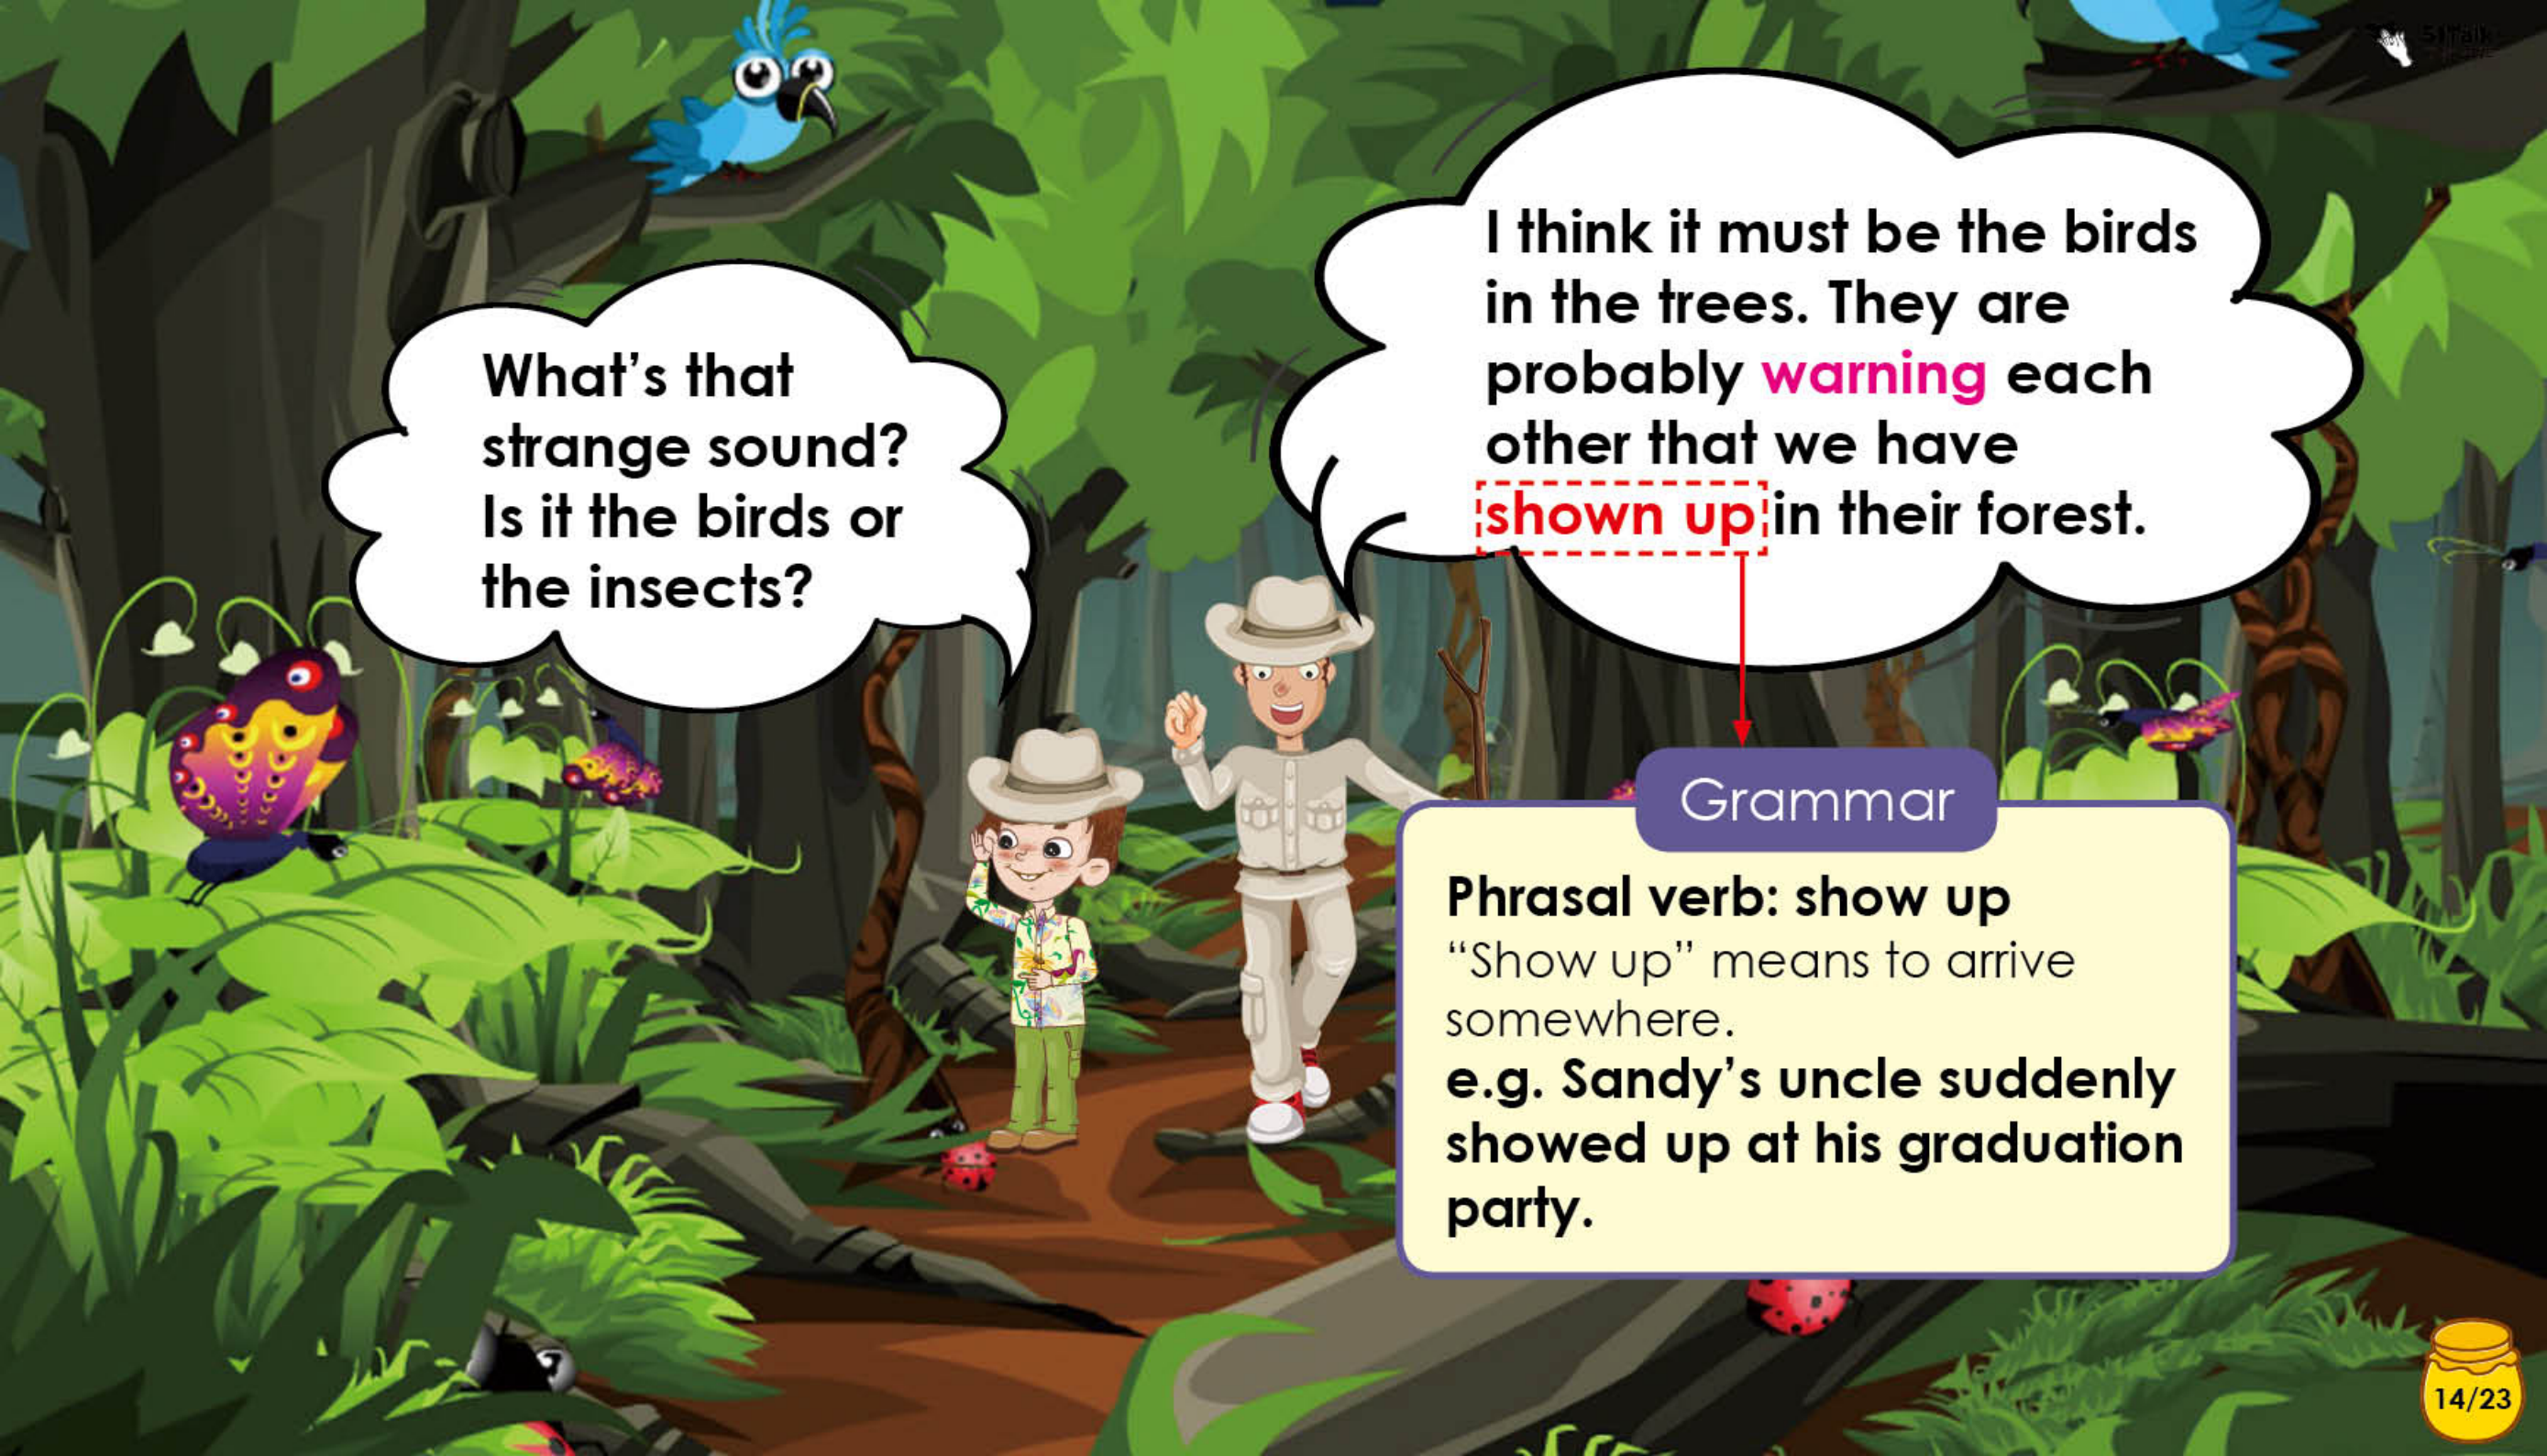

Timmy and Dad are having a long walk in the forest. Timmy is excited about the trip.

Dad, look at the trees,
flowers, and butterflies.
They are so beautiful!

Yes, it feels so
comfortable to be here.
We should definitely
come again.

What's that strange sound?
Is it the birds or
the insects?

I think it must be the birds
in the trees. They are probably warning each other that we have shown up in their forest.

Grammar

Phrasal verb: show up

"Show up" means to arrive
somewhere.

e.g. Sandy's uncle suddenly showed up at his graduation party.

A vibrant jungle scene with two explorers, a blue parrot, colorful butterflies, and ladybugs. The scene is set in a lush green forest with large trees and dense foliage. Two characters, a boy and a man, are walking along a dirt path. The boy is wearing a colorful floral shirt and green pants, and the man is wearing a light-colored shirt and pants. A blue parrot is perched on a branch above them. Several colorful butterflies are flying around, and ladybugs are on the ground. The scene is bright and cheerful.

I really like being here.
It is really refreshing to breathe in all the fresh air.

Yeah, and also the
scent of the flowers
and trees. We can stay here the whole day.

Look Dad, blueberries!
We can pick some and
make blueberry pie!

Great idea! I love blueberries. I used to eat a lot of them
when I was a kid.
