Rafeeq's School Life

Iraq

We are going to learn about the daily life of a student in Iraq.

Warm-up*2 min

What would you do if school was cancelled for a day?
What if it was cancelled for an entire year?

Reading*4

min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Hello, my name is Rafeeq and I am a fourth grader from Iraq, a country in the Middle East. Today I will tell you all about where I go to school.

Where is Iraq?

min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Most students will travel to their school to have classes and I used to do the same, until the day my school got destroyed by an explosion.

Why cannot Rafeeq go to his school anymore?

Reading

4 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Now, my classes take place under a bridge. English class is my favorite. I often spend my breaktimes looking at the blackboard to remember the new words my teacher taught us in class that day.

What does Rafeeq do at breaktime at school?

min

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

Even though our temporary school is under a bridge, I'm still happy, as I get to continue studying for my future and also get to see all of my classmates every day. I just hope my school will get rebuilt again soon.

Word Focus

- My English teacher was sick, so a temporary teacher taught us English for one week.
- Have you ever had a temporary teacher at school?

Let's practice. >>

Task*4

min

Talk about Rafeeg's story in your own words.

Who is the passage about?

What happened to him?

What is the problem?

What is the temporary solution?

What does he hope for in the future?
