My International School

We are going to review the daily lives of students around the world.

Warm-up*2 min

Do you have a favorite teacher? What subject does he/she teach?

Reading 4 min

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

Hi there, my name is Wang Meiling, but my friends call me Hermione. I chose this name because I am fascinated by the character Hermione from the Harry Potter movies. I attend an international middle school in Shanghai.

Word Focus

- Most of my classmates are fascinated by computer games.
- What are you fascinated by?

Reading 4 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Being a student at an international school gives me a great opportunity to meet and chat with children from all over the world. There's a wide variety of nationalities in my class, so I get to learn about different countries firsthand.

Is there a variety of nationalities in your class?

Reading 3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

My teachers also come from different countries around the world. For example, Ms. Neha, our I. T. teacher, is from India. She is actually a professional software engineer, and teaching is just a hobby for her.

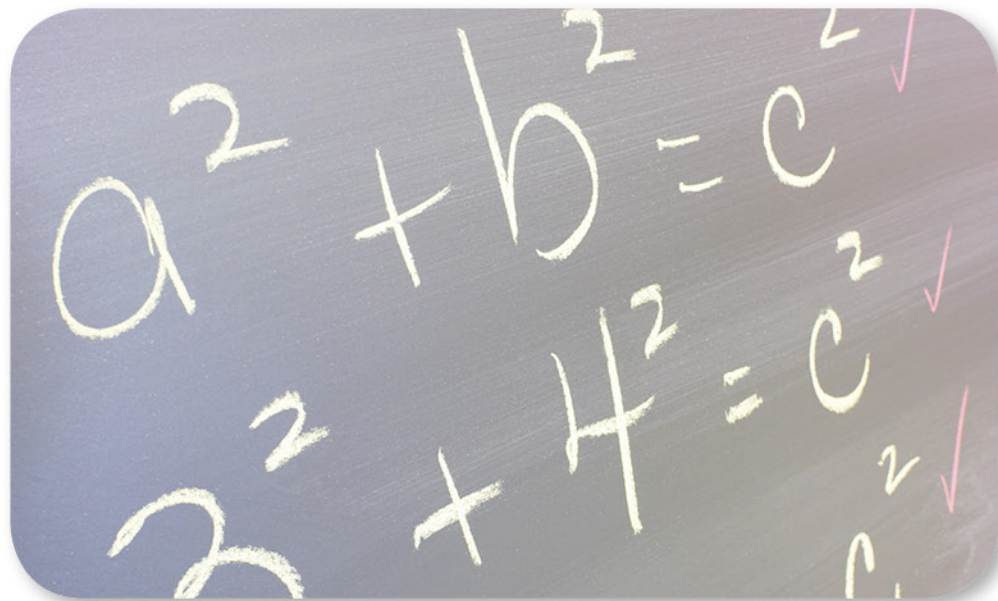

Do you attend I. T. classes?

Reading*3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Ms. Neha is also in charge of the extracurricular math classes, where the kids who love math get to hang out and solve tricky problems and equations. These classes are scheduled every Monday after school, and I never miss them.

Are there any extracurricular activities available at your school?

Let's practice. >>
