Let's read!

One night around Christmas,
Timmy had a wonderful dream.
In his dream, he was woken up by Santa Claus, who looked a lot like Grandpa!

“Quick, Timmy! Jump on my sleigh!” said Santa.

Timmy ran to the window and jumped out onto Santa’s sleigh.

Who woke Timmy up in his dream?

Santa's reindeers flew them to Santa's special gift factory. The factory manager, who looked a lot like Sam, shouted out: "Help us, Timmy! We need to think up some new gifts!"

"Oh!" said Timmy. "Um... How about a robot that does your homework? Or how about roller skates for dogs?"

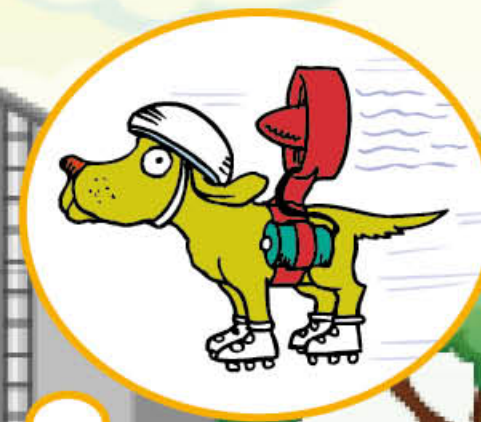

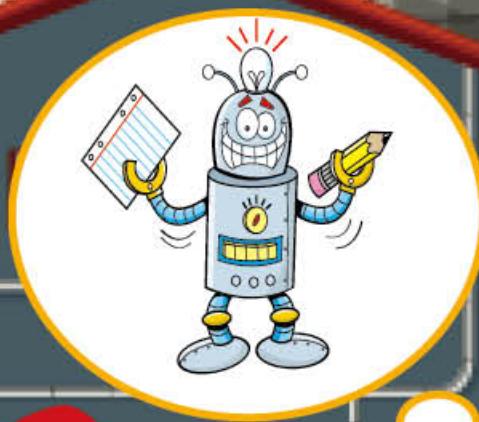

Grammar

Phrasal verb: think up

"Think up" means "to produce a new idea, name, etc. by thinking".
e.g. She is trying to think up a name for the baby.

What did the factory manager ask Timmy to help with?

Timmy and Santa then flew to the South Pole to see the penguins, who were thinking up new games. The penguin leader shouted: "Hey, Timmy! Help us think up a new Christmas game!"

"Easy, Mr Penguin!" Timmy said. "Penguin bowling, of course!"

What was the new Christmas game that Timmy thought up for the penguins?

Next, they flew to the North Pole to see the polar bears, who were making all the Christmas stockings!

“Yo, Timmy! Think up a way to make stockings more special this Christmas!” said a bear.

Timmy thought for a moment and then said: “Aha! Make stockings that are the same size as sleeping bags! It means we get more gifts, plus we have another place to sleep!”

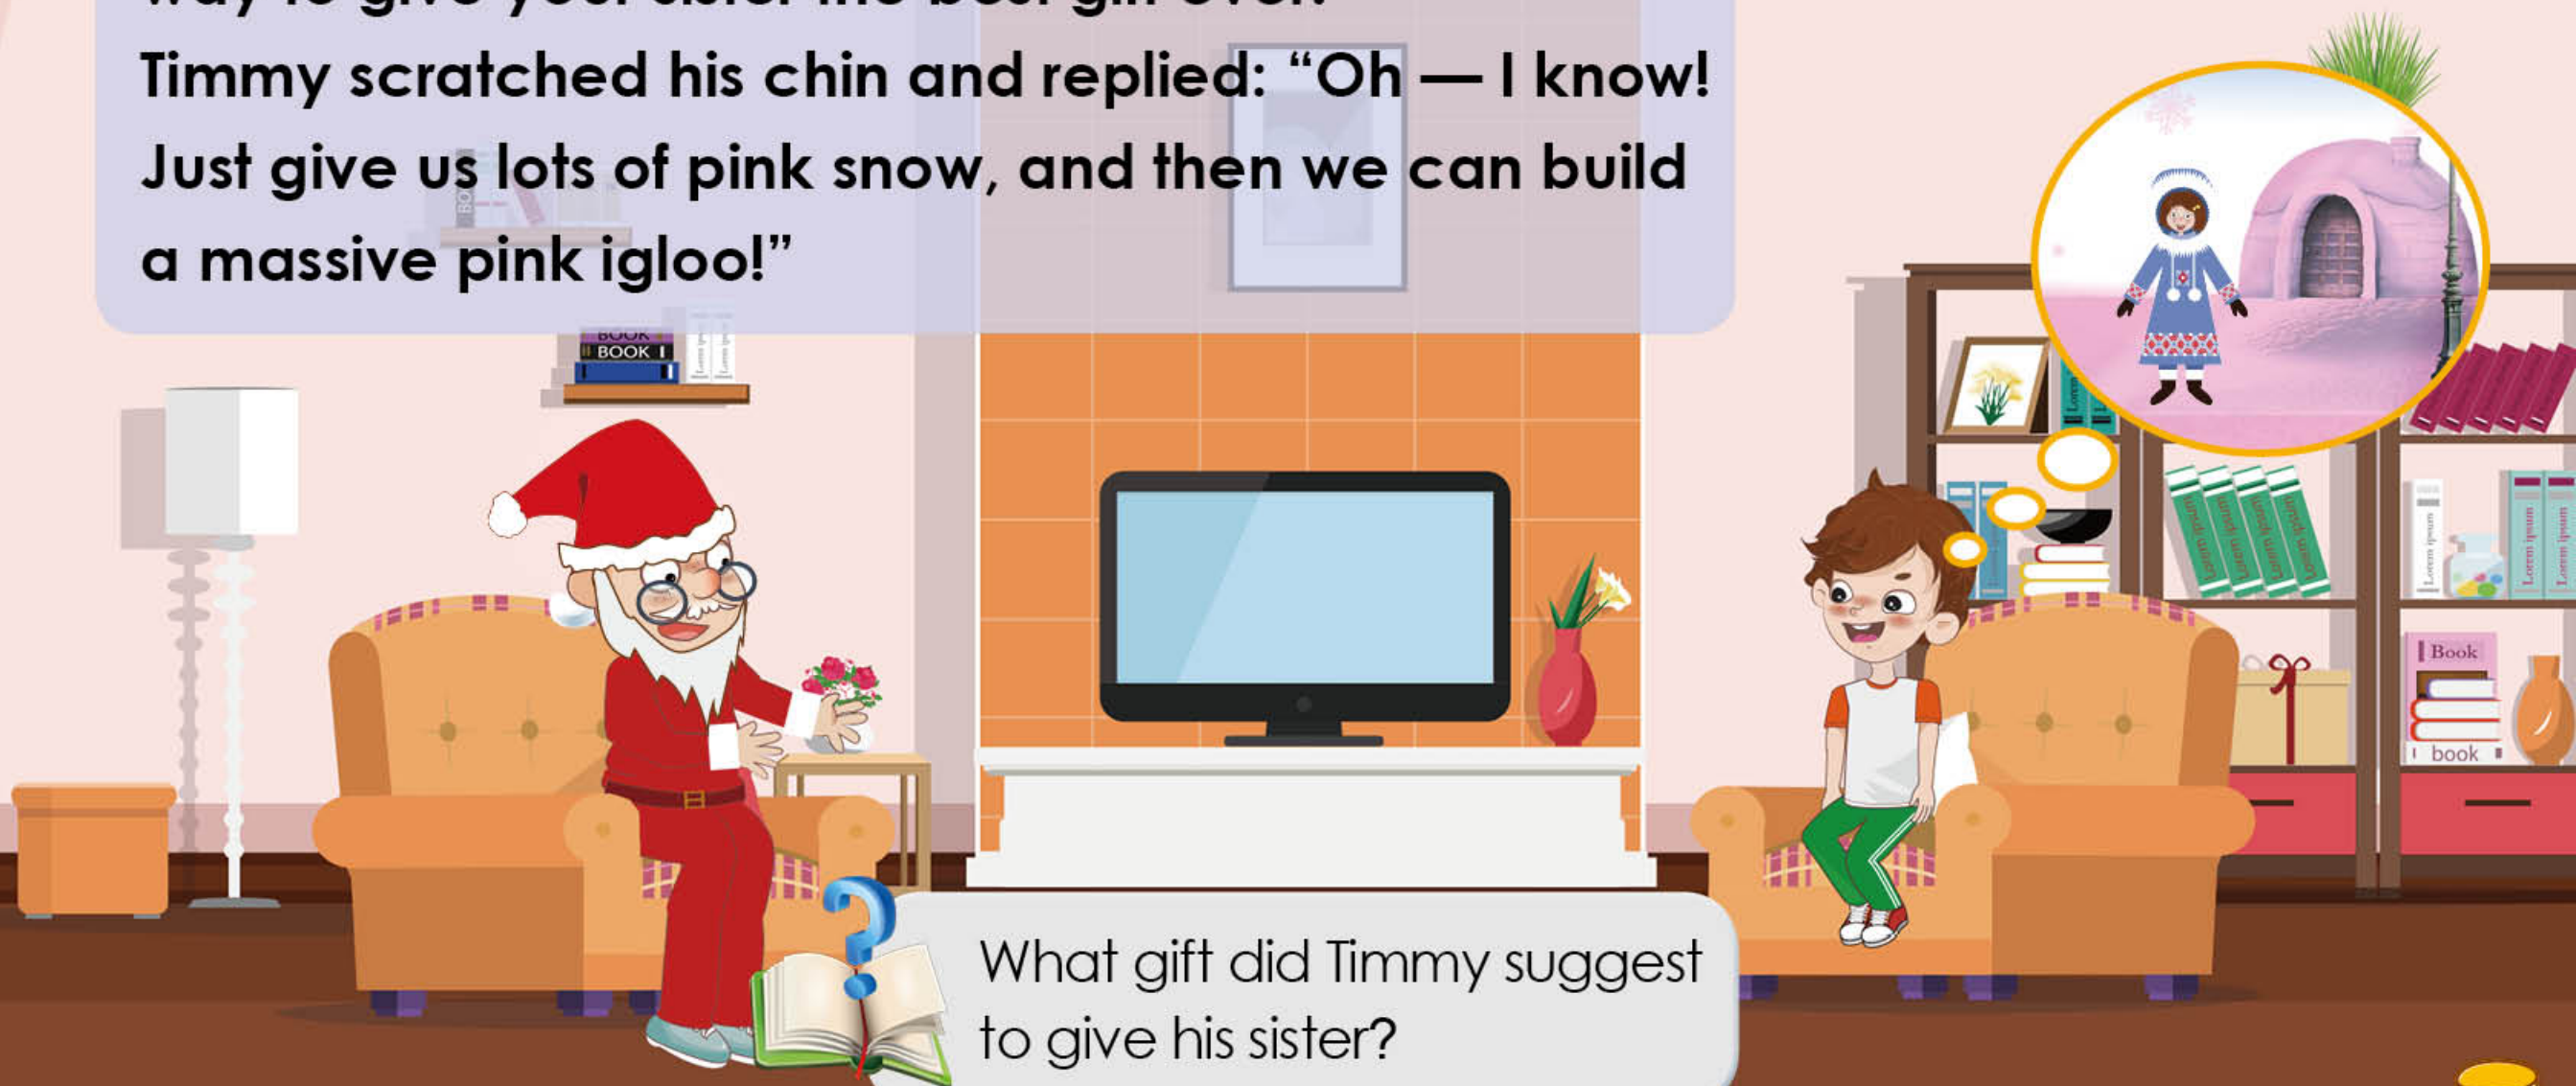

What were the polar bears doing?

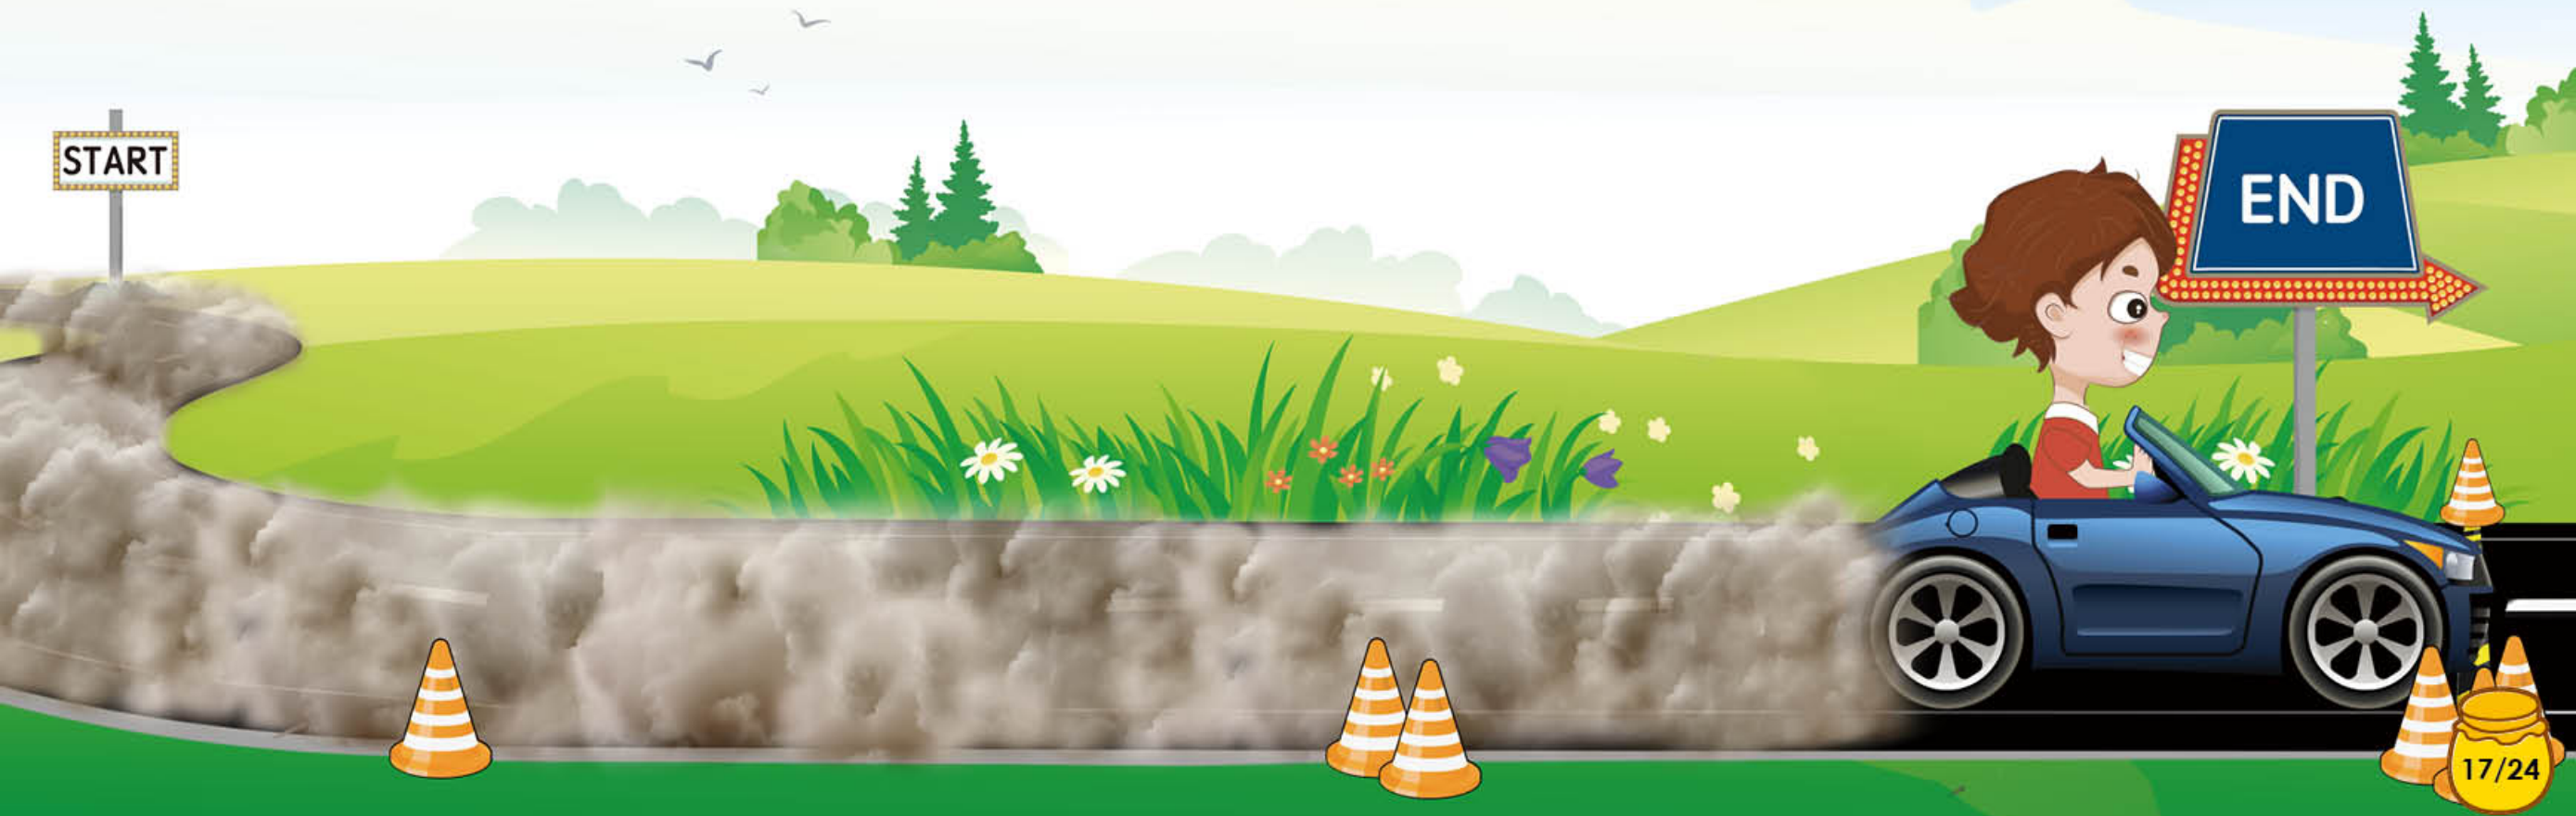

Finally, they flew back to Timmy's house and Santa asked one last question. "Timmy, help me think up a way to give your sister the best gift ever!"

Timmy scratched his chin and replied: "Oh — I know! Just give us lots of pink snow, and then we can build a massive pink igloo!"

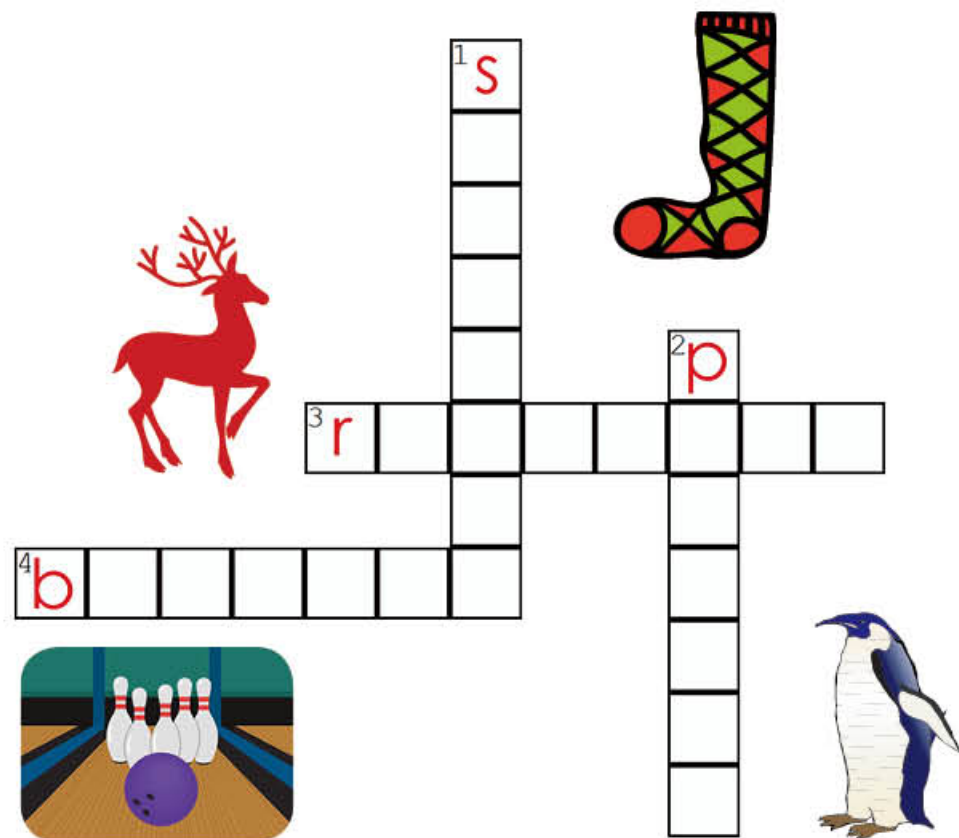

What gift did Timmy suggest to give his sister?
