Introduction

Cindy is asking her dad about his work as an IT worker.

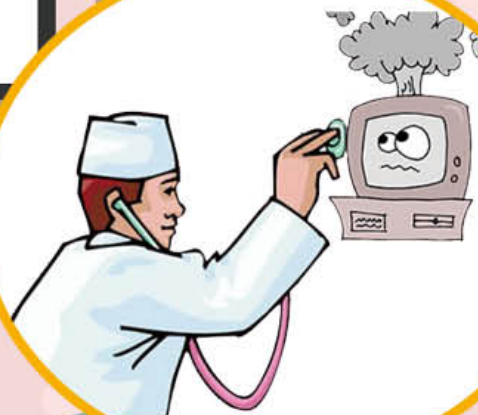

Jeez Dad, you come home so late every night! IT workers are so busy!

Yep – well everybody uses a computer these days, and I have to solve all the problems.

So you are like a computer doctor. Without you, people couldn't get on with their work.

I guess. Just like Timmy's dad fixes people's health, I fix computers.

Grammar

Phrasal verb: get on with “Get on with” means to start or continue doing something.

e.g. The teacher told us to get on with the work.

You know, Timmy wants to study IT next semester so he can make computer games!

Well then, he needs to study how to write computer programs. It's pretty tough.

Well, if it's tough, I'd like to try it too! I can program my own computer game: "Cindy in Wonderland!"

That's my girl! So get on with your homework and then we'll talk about your game.
