

Are You Ready?

Listen to me.

Eyes on me.

The Snowblower

You are going to learn:

Topic: Transportation —
The snowblower

Words: block, snowblower, junior,
stay away

Grammar: Phrasal verb (fall over)

Warm-up

What is the man doing?

Let's prepare!

Vocabulary

A fallen tree blocked the road.

block

Which is the correct word?
The players _____ the volleyball.

- ☐ found
- ☐ blocked

Vocabulary

His snowblower is on fire!

snow · blow · er

Which picture shows
a snowblower?

Vocabulary

This is a junior football team. All of the players are young kids.

jun·ior

Can you circle the junior in the picture?

Vocabulary

The doctor told him to stay away from fatty food.

stay a·way

What should you do if you see this sign?

Grammar

The woman fell over on ice.

The road was slippery.
The woman fell over on her way home.

Can you make a sentence with “fall over” ?

Let's talk!

Introduction

It has snowed outside.
Timmy and Grandpa are clearing the driveway.

You got up pretty early today, Timmy. What are you up to?

I want to help shoveling snow. Look at our driveway and the road. They are both blocked.

Timmy

Grandpa

Good boy! But shoveling might be too slow. Let me help with our new snowblower.

Ah, yes! Dad bought it last week. Can I use it?

Timmy

Grandpa

This big guy is too dangerous.
You are too young to use it and it's better you stay away or you may fall over.

Well, then what can I do to help? I can't stay here.

Timmy

Grammar

Phrasal verb: fall over

"Fall over" means to fall onto the ground.

e.g. Timmy fell over and cut his knee badly.

Grandpa

Ah-ha, my boy! Look! What's this?

It's a junior snowblower!
And it's for me?

Timmy

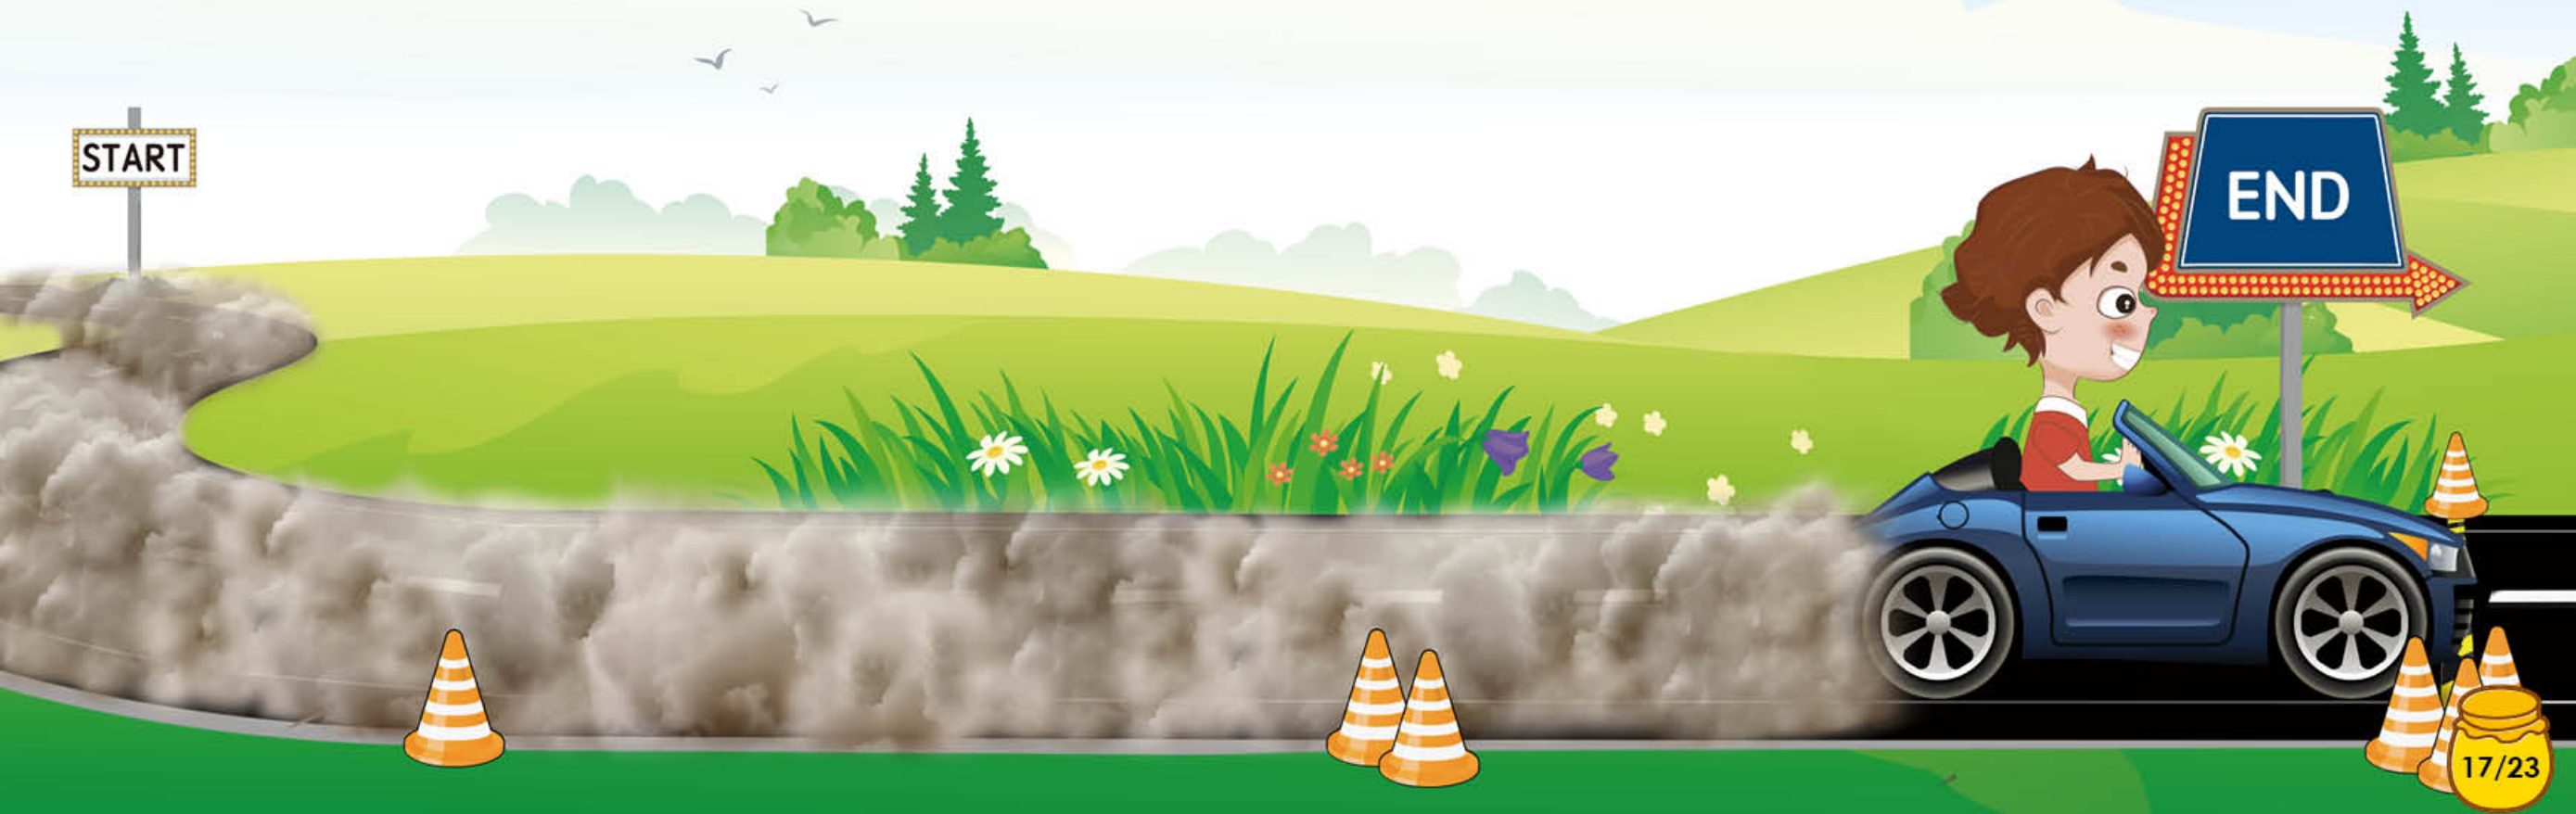

Grandpa

Of course! Let's start, soldier!
Remember: Be careful!

Let's practice!

Activity

Use each word to make a sentence about a “snowblower”.

snowblower

You need to check your snowblower before you use it.

block

junior

stay away

Activity

Complete the sentences with “fall over”.

Snowblower Safety Tips

Keep your hands away from the moving parts of the snowblower.

It's better for young kids to stay away, or they may _____.

Don't _____! You might be hurt by the machine.

Activity

Talk to the teacher.

Hints:

snowed a lot
roads blocked

It...

Yes, we can use our snowblower to clear the road.

Activity

Talk to the teacher.

Hints:

adult snowblower
dangerous
junior snowblower

Would you like to help me to clear the road?

Sure, but...

Today I learned:

Topic

Transportation —
The snowblower

Words

block

snowblower

junior

stay away

Grammar

Phrasal Verb (fall over)

e.g. You are too young to use it and it's better you stay away or you may fall over.

SEE YOU SOON!

51

TALK